Coquille Woman's Club In Session

The Coquille Woman's Club met in regular session Tuesday afternoon in Guild Hall, which was attractively decorated with fall flowers and autumn foliage. Rev. G. R. Turney gave a short talk urging Red Cross activity. Mrs. Lila Wall, president of the State Congress P.-T. A., gave a short informal talk urging co-operation between the home and the school and was very anxious to see a parents-teachers association revived in Coquille.

The club now has a record membership of 132 paid up members. The club voted to sponsor the "Oregon Clubwoman," the state magazine, one hundred per cent. Mrs. O. C. Sanford, state vice president, gave a short talk expressing her appreciation of this decision.

The club also voted to sponsor a Red Cross drive with Mrs. Ida Owen as chairman. The matter of joining the Oregon Roadside Council, which has as its aim the preservation of trees, shrubs, etc., was acted upon favorably. The several committees in the club decided to work co-operatively in raising funds for its activities and decided to have a Variety sale, which will include antiques, rummage, food, jellies and what not, Friday and Saturday of this week in the room formerly occupied by Greene & Jensen.

At the home of Mrs. Estelle Gray, Senator George H. Chaney, by request, gave a very interesting talk in regard to the twelve bills which are to be voted upon at the November election. Mrs. Fred Jensen, accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, played two delightful violin solos, "Romance by Svendsen, and "Norwegian Dance" by Greig.

Mr. Hugh Rossen, in charge of Public Safety under Secretary of State Earl Snell, gave a splendid talk on law observance, which should have been heard by all good Americans. He spoke on "Natural Laws" and "Social Relations" and said that too many people were intellectually lazy; that human relations should be adjusted to new laws and conditions. The power to govern is authorized by the consent of the governed. He spoke of our rights under the laws as against laws in some other countries where people have no rights.

Following this worth while talk, tea was served by the following committee: Mesdames M. Earl Wilson, R.

A. Wernich, G. A. Ulett, C. T. Skeels, Geo. Taylor, Jr., D. E. Basklett, J. E. Axtell, C. M. Gray, W. E. Sprout, R. F. Milne and L. A. Greens to the following ladies: Mesdames E. E. Kline, Fred Jensen, L. H. Hazard, Elton Savage, Leland Peart, O. C. Sanford, J. A. Lamb, F. S. Emery, Geo. Bryant, C. A. Rietman, L. L. Bonney, A. J. Sherwood, M. O. Hawkins, U. E. McClary, O. A. Bunch, Bert Folsom, Clarence Tuttle, Lela Compton, F. C. McNelly, Leland Petersen, T. B. Currie, Roy Wheeler, Bonnie Walker, Fred Kunz, Lee Hand, Gladys Gano, Wm. Campbell, R. B. Rogers, Mary McKeown, J. D. Rankin and Julius Ruble.

Mrs. Harry Slack entertained her bridge club for one o'clock luncheon Friday. The table and rooms looked most attractive with bouquets of fall flowers. Following luncheon, the ladies played contract. Mrs. Paul Trojel won high score prize. Invited guests were: Mesdames Albert Powers, Jr., Lucey Bonney, J. Arthur Berg, C. W. Kline and Paul Trojel, of Coquille, Mesdames Frank Shaw, Horace Byler, Beverly Hancock, Chas. Huggins, Stanley Emery and Howard Morse, of Marshfield.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church held a short business meeting Monday evening before the joint installation with the men. Mrs. Rosella Cline was installed as the new president of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Oliver Overmeyer, of Medford, officiating as installing officer. Following installation, a social time was enjoyed with refreshments. Mr. Bobby Burns played several selections on the piano and a community sing was enjoyed. Those present were: Mesdames Robah Robison, C. T. Selbig, C. M. Gray, Clifford Kern, D. E. Rackleff, R. L. Stewart, Frank Martin, C. F. Zumwalt, Frank Schram, Fred Kunz, Nellie Prey, Rosella Cline, Perley Lund, Harold McCue, Lee Hand, Gladys Gano, E. D. McCune, Harold Minter, all of Coquille; Mrs. Oliver Overmeyer, Mrs. Thos. Freed and Mrs. Charles Kunz, of Medford.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Marc Shelley on Knowlton Heights for its business and social meeting. There were ten members and five visitors present. After the usual business was taken care of, the rest of the afternoon was spent in chatting and working on tea towels. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following ladies: Mesdames Hattie Shelley, Belle Elwood, May Bates, Ella Nelson, Lizzie Oden, Anton Schroeder, Sadie Jayes, Fred Kunz, G. A. Gray, Blanche Davis, Frank Schram, C. R. Bloyd, Martindale and Holverson.

The Monday Night Club was entertained by Mrs. Bert Folsom for seven o'clock dinner Monday evening. The color scheme in the dining room was red; pottery dishes and lovely glads enhancing the beauty of the setting. Following dinner, contract bridge was enjoyed. Mrs. Muri Pettit received the travelling prize. Members present were: Mesdames J. L. Smith, Hal Pierce, Muri Pettit, H. A. Young, Effie Miller, J. A. Lamb, Ed. Lorenz, Edna Hartson and the hostess.
