

(Society Continued)

The N. O. M. A. club met at the home of Mrs. Lucille Ellison Tuesday evening. A pleasant time was spent sewing, knitting and chatting. Mrs. Bernice Ireland received the prize. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were: Mesdames Ferry DeJarnett, Yvonne Carl, Belmont Ireland, Frances Detlefsen, Elynor Miller, Ruth Day, Alice Morris, Ruth Clayton and the hostess.

Mrs. E. A. Walker was hostess to her bridge club Tuesday evening. Contract was played: Mrs. O. T. Gant winning high score. Mrs. Paul Trojel, second and Mrs. R. C. Vaughan, the traveling prize. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were: Mesdames Julius Ruble, Walter Litsenberger, O. T. Gant, D. B. Estes, J. E. Axtell, Paul Trojel, C. P. Zumwalt, R. C. Vaughan and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanis Bosworth left Monday for a ten-day vacation in southern California. Mr. Bosworth is agent for the Ford car in Coquille and Mrs. Bosworth is in charge of the office of the firm. They plan to visit friends and relatives in Los Angeles and will devote some time to looking after business matters of the local agency as well.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fortier, Mr. and Mrs. Verrill McCurdy and daughter returned last Friday from a vacation trip to the east on which they were gone three days over two weeks. They got as far east as Minneapolis, Minn., but did not wait for the world series games in Chicago. At Minneapolis, Bill hunted up two of Ray Joub's brothers who had not gotten as far from home as Ray has, they having lived there for 54 years. The Oregon folks enjoyed the whole trip.

Miss Lonamse Morser, daughter of Mrs. Mae Logan, of this city, became the bride last Sunday afternoon of Ross Dean, one of the Dean Brother proprietors of the Lake Takenitch summer resort.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few close relatives and friends by Rev. H. A. Minter at his home in the north part of Coquille, before the fireplace which had been banked with flowers for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Dean, of Tahkenitch were their attendants.

The bride who has resided in Coquille for the past three years, wore a teal blue suit, trimmed in fox fur, her accessories being burgundy. She wore a corsage of red and white roses and white camellias.

Following the ceremony the bridal party drove to Marshfield, to the clamor of cans tied to their car, and enjoyed a splendid six o'clock dinner at the Chandler, a gift of Mrs. L. C. Machon.

The color scheme in the private dining room was pink, white and silver, and the room had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. A lovely wedding cake crowned the feast.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dean left on a honeymoon trip to Idaho and will be at home after Oct. 20, at Lake Tahkenitch.

Mrs. Albert Powers, Jr., and Mrs. C. W. Kline were hostesses at a lovely one o'clock luncheon Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Powers in honor of Mrs. Charles Sprague, of Salem, who is accompanying her husband on his "get acquainted" trip to Coos county and other points. Mrs. Sprague was presented with a lovely corsage by the hostesses. Following the luncheon, a large group of Pro America ladies and others had the privilege of hearing Mrs. Sprague in a most homey and informal manner tell of their trips around the state and of some of Mr. Sprague's ideals and purposes.

Honoring Mrs. John Lotz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bradford of Marshfield, who is leaving Sunday with her two-year old son for their home in Memphis, Tenn., Mrs. Geo. Bryant entertained with a lovely tea Wednesday from two-thirty until four o'clock. Mrs. G. A. Ulett and Mrs. F. S. Emery presided at a beautifully appointed tea table.

Junior Women's Club Meeting Monday

The regular meeting of the Junior Women's Club was at potluck dinner held in Pioneer Hall Monday, October 10. The committee in charge for the evening were Evelyn Elliott, Faye Waggoner, Maxine Stevens and Bernice Ireland. The table was beautifully decorated with marigolds, vine maple leaves and candles.

Later a business meeting was called to order by Mildred Hornecker, president. Mrs. Don McEniry was appointed library chairman for the new year, and Grace Ellingsen was appointed year-book chairman.

Members drew names of their unknown friend, under the direction of Mrs. Dan Fish, unknown friend chairman.

The club voted to hold their Harvest Festival dance on October 28. Marjorie Knight, chairman, gave an interesting report and appointed the following committees: poster committee, Dorothy McCue, Grace Ellingsen and Vesta Miley; ticket sale committee, Albert Brandon, Mildred Gould, LaVerne Knife and Carol Young; decorating committee, Helga Matthews, Myrtle Clausen, Bernice Ireland, Irene Sandon, Blanche Sandon, Mary Stevens, Maxine Stevens, Marjorie Fuller, Dorothy Fish and Alice Day.

Members present were: Mesdames Ted Hornecker, Marlin Brandon, Robert Harbison, Hal Howell, Harold Stevens, Tom Stevens, Dale Elliott, Dennis Waggoner, Alton Clausen, George McClellan, Donald McEniry, Fred Grant, Wayne Robinson, Harold Day, Dan Fish, Belmont Ireland, Misses Alice Early, Irene Sandon, Blanche Sandon, Heane Harris, LaVerne Knife, Marjorie Knight, Grace Ellingsen and Carol Young.

English Classes Are Being Taught Weekly

The Grace Miller system of correct English is being taught each Friday evening at the city hall under the direction of Mrs. George Chaney to a class of students of this vicinity.

The course was presented two years ago by Mrs. Chaney and the desire of numerous people here for another course was responsible for the series of lessons this year. Mrs. Bertha Smith is arranging the program of instruction and reports that the only charge is that of purchasing the textbook used in the course. Thirty or more took the classes the first time two years ago and as many or more will follow the work this season.

Four Concerts Slated

Four concerts of the Coos County Concert Association have been scheduled for the coming season, according to Fred Brenne, secretary of Marshfield.

They include Natalie Bodany, soprano, on Monday, October 31; Lancing Hatfield, a baritone, on Monday, Nov. 21; Kneisel-Alden Turner on Monday, January 21; and Mozart Boys Choir on March 8th.

The drive for membership to attend the concerts will be made soon and usually a great number of Coquille folks subscribed to membership which is $5.00 for the four concerts.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Cecil Laws returned last Monday evening from the trip which he won in the Real Silk Hostery contest. On his arrival at the mills in Indianapolis, Ind., he was surprised as well as pleased to learn that he had won not only first place in the western division but had won in the national division also, competing with 2200 college salesmen. He reports that his trip was most enjoyable and instructive. He has returned to the University of Oregon where he is a senior this year.

The Episcopal Guild ladies met in the Parish House Wednesday afternoon. A social time was spent in needlework and chat. Light refreshments were served by Mrs. A. J. Sherwood and Mrs. L. H. Hazard to the following ladies: Mesdames W. H. Mansell, C. J. Fuhrman, Ed. Lorenz, Lloyd Ross, Ida Owen, C. T. Selbig, Chas. Stauff, T. B. Currie, Geo. Laird, Mrs. R. F. Lemon and her daughter, Mrs. Brown, both of Myrtle Point, and Rev. G. R. Turney.

The Zodiac club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Gladys Wheeler Wednesday for one o'clock luncheon in honor of Mrs. Carla Savage. The rooms and table were decorated with vases of sweet peas. Following a most delicious luncheon, a short business meeting was held. Mrs. Jane Burch drew the lucky number and Mrs. Helen Detlefsen the door prize. Members present were: Mesdames Blanche Mast, Carlis Savage, Edna Kern, Emma Ganser, Ethel Fuller, Helen Detlefsen, Ora Tennant, Opal Buckles and the hostess. Guests included Mrs. Edith Tennant, Mrs. Ruby Johnson, Mrs. Mildred Howe, Mrs. Vera Hooton and Mrs. Wheeler's mother. Three new members were taken into the club: Mrs. Edith Tennant, Mrs. Ruby Johnson and Mrs. Mildred Howe. The club will meet Nov. 9 at the home of Mrs. Carla Savage with Mrs. Ruby Johnson as hostess and Mrs. Howe, the honored guest.
