

Arago News

The regular monthly meeting of the Missionary society was held Wednesday afternoon at the church with Mrs. Albert Lillie, Mrs. Albert Gulstrom and Mrs. Stanley Halter in charge of the program. A very interesting address given by Mrs. Anna Christensen was very much enjoyed. A short business meeting followed, after which the hostesses served refreshments of cake and punch in the basement. The next meeting will be held Nov. 1, with Mesdames J. D. Root, Frank Burbank and Lawrence Rackleff acting as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Farrer drove to Cottage Grove last Thursday and spent several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Verne Garoutte and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Garoutte. They returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Menegat and Donald spent the week-end visiting relatives at Lakeside.

Mrs. Naomi Robinson drove to Riveron Sunday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Root.

The regular quarterly meeting of the church will be held Wednesday evening at the church. There will be a potluck supper at seven o'clock to which everyone is cordially invited.

Rev. G. A. Gray conducted the regular Sunday morning church service. Sunday school followed with an attendance of 84. Services again next Sunday morning at 10 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lillie, Clyde, Laura Bernice, Gerald and Glenda, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edgmon and Kenneth and Mrs. Daisy Doyle went to Bandon Sunday to attend the birthday dinner given in honor of Mrs. M. E. Lillie, of Bandon, who was 88 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Harry are the proud parents of a baby daughter, born to them last week.

Everett Doyle, who has been in the Knife Hospital for about two weeks, was sufficiently recovered to be removed to his home Monday morning.

Dr. Lafayette Waters, optician of Portland, was an overnight guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burbank.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mast, Ardye and Jerene and Miss Maxine Lumberg, of Allegany, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Evans over the week-end.

Home Demonstration meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. J. L. Burtis with Miss Julia Bennett, the home demonstration agent, in charge of the meeting, which was on menu planning, table setting, seasoning, etc. Those present were: the Mesdames H. E. Watkins, Joan and Anne, O. H. Aasen, Ernest Hammack, Lawrence Rackleff, Reginald Menegat, Ward Evans, Tyrrell Woodward, J. D. Carl, J. D. Root, Everett Lafferty, Mayre Lee and Howard, George Gillespie, J. L. Burtis and the Mesdames Esther Davidson, Lois Robison, Mary Jean McAllister, Laura Bernice Lillie and Virginia King. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Hammack.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lett in Myrtle Point Saturday evening. Mr. Lett has been very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bognuda, of Ferris, California, are visiting at the home of their sons, Earl and Glenn Gensoll.

Mrs. Clarence Mullins and small son came home from the Knife Hospital last week.

The people of the Arago community were saddened by the death of Miss Peggy Blondell last Saturday morning at the Mast Hospital. She had only been ill for a short time and her death was a shock to every one. She had a bad cold which turned into pneumonia very suddenly. She is survived by her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Butler, one sister, Betty, and two brothers, Robert and Pat, and many relatives and friends who mourn her passing. Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. at Schroeder and Sons Mortuary in Myrtle Point. Interment was in the Norway cemetery.

Miss Maxine Rackleff returned home Friday from her trip to the Pacific International Stock Show in Portland, which she won as a reward for her 4-H club work the past year.

The regular monthly school board meeting was held Monday evening.

Bridge News

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Culver motored to Roseburg Sunday and visited with the Clarence Bartlett family. They had hoped to see Harold James, who has been at the Veterans' Hospital there since May, but he was so low that company was not permitted.

Miss Dorothy Hooton, who has been visiting at Port Madison, Wash., for the past few months while recovering from illness, spent the past week-end here with home folks, on her way back to Grants Pass to take up her work of nursing again. Her visits home are brief, because the perennial hay fever from which she suffers is always much worse when she is in this locality.

The Home Demonstration club held an enjoyable meeting in the school kitchen Thursday. A delicious meal was prepared by the ladies under the direction of the demonstration agent, Miss Julia Bennett. In the afternoon session, meal planning was discussed and helpful leaflets were given out. Mrs. Albert Pancoast and Mrs. Frank Culver were elected to attend the recreational groups to be held during the winter, under the direction of Miss Izora Jensen, of Oregon State College. Mrs. I. B.
