George I. Warren Speaks At Rotary

George I. Warren, managing secretary of the Victoria, B. C., Chamber of Commerce, also commissioner of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, gave an interesting talk before the Rotary Club Wednesday noon on the tourist business as a major industry. Mr. Warren complimented the Oregon Coast Highway association on their splendid work in promoting the highway in Oregon and said that all of the coast organization should cooperate in publicity toward securing the tremendous travel that will result from the fair in San Francisco next year for the entire length of the coast.

Rotarian guests present beside Mr. Warren were Frank Skewin and S. H. Wanezak, of Marshfield, M. R. Thomas, of Corvallis. Other guests were J. E. Norton, Lefe Compton and Bobbie Burns, of Coquille.
