Little Hal Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevens, celebrated his fourth birthday with a party Friday afternoon from three to five o'clock. The decorations, favors and prizes all carried out the Halloween motif—even the ice cream had tiny candy pumpkins. The little tots had a grand time playing in a beautifully decorated room with balloons, etc., and had the thrill of their life opening the little prizes and favors. Refreshments, consisting of individual cakes with each one's name and a tiny candle, ice cream, etc., added the finishing touch. Children present were: Paul and Johnny Clayton, Bobby Swinney, Lindley Simpson, Rannie Morris, Nancy Perrott, Patty Brown, Patty Detlefsen and last, but not least, little Hal. Mrs. Tom Stevens assisted the hostess. Other mothers present were: Mrs. Ernest Perrott, Mrs. Ray Detlefsen and Mrs. Marion Clayton.

Mrs. C. M. Gray invited the "Fenescam club" members Tuesday afternoon for the pleasure of Mrs. Ray Thomas, of Corvallis, formerly of Coquille and a member when she resided here. Contract bridge was played during the afternoon with Mrs. Bert Folsom winning high score. Mrs. Thomas received a lovely guest prize. Refreshments were served by the hostess late in the afternoon. Invited guests were: Mesdames Bert Folsom, Hal Pierce, R. L. Stewart, D. E. Rackleff, J. E. Axtell, J. L. Aasen, R. E. Boober and the honored guest, Mrs. Thomas.

At a special meeting of Mamie Rebekah Lodge Tuesday evening, four candidates were initiated into the order—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Erickson, Miss Dora Kendall and E. C. Briner. Following the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room. The Three Links club will hold a dance Oct. 29 in the I. O. O. F. hall.

Mrs. Orville Newton and Mrs. Henry Ellis tendered Mrs. Richard Knife, nee Cloy McElhaney, a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Newton last Thursday evening. After opening the large array of gifts, a social time was enjoyed, followed by refreshments. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Knife, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Knife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Knife, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Pinkston, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Knife, Mesdames Leona Swindall, Orrin Coy, Bert Ferry, Inez Pinkston, J. W. McGuffin, Lizzie Oden, Naomi Robinson, Helen Salisbury, Miss Laverne Knife, the guest of honor and hostesses.

McGuffin, Ernest Embree and Leon, Jack Clouse and three children, Katherine, Louise and Jimmie, Misses Gladys Avery and Laura McNair and Mike Avery.

Several ladies motored to the lake cottage of Dr. and Mrs. M. Earl Wilson Tuesday for a pot luck luncheon. The day was perfect, the huckleberries ripe and the luncheon most satisfying. Following the luncheon, contract bridge was enjoyed. Mrs. R. E. Boober won high score, Mrs. Wilson, second, and Mrs. Paul Trojel, low. Those enjoying the day were: Mesdames Keith Leslie, Geo. Jenkins, A. A. Hall, R. E. Boober, J. D. Rankin, Paul Trojel, C. W. Kline, H. L. Clasterbos and M. Earl Wilson.

Mrs. Jack Hultin entertained the "Friendly Dozen" at her home in Riverton Wednesday afternoon. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing, knitting and chatting. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members: Mesdames Pearl Arnold, Susie Matney, Elsie Wheaton, Zoe Fugelson and guests, Mesdames Alma Minard, Lony Peart, Lucia Ireland, Edith Simmons, Mabel Molthu and Jennie Taylor.

Meets At Hawkins Home

The Coquille Choral Club held its second meeting of this season Tuesday evening and was happy to welcome back its regular accompanist, Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, and also to welcome several new members.

The Choral Club presents two concerts each season under the direction of Mrs. Maud Woodyard. New music is now being studied in preparation for the first concert which is to be given soon after the first of the year.

Mrs. Woodyard says that it is not too late for new members to join the group and urges that any who are interested in choral work attend the next practice which will be held Tuesday, Oct. 25, 7:30 p. m., at the Christian church.

The first meeting of the Cornerstone club was held October 13 at the home of Mrs. Levi Wilson with Mrs. Adrian Sias as joint hostess. A business meeting was held and the following officers elected: Mrs. Levi Wilson, president; Mrs. Adrian Sias, vice president; Miss Vera Hadsall, secretary-treasurer. Refreshments were served to Mesdames Gordon Epps, Alton Dungey, Ernest Wherast, Paul Simpson, Berlyn Billings, Arthur Hooton, Opal Buckles, Loren Salisbury, Ernest Benham, George Chapman, Adrian Sias, E. H. Souder, Ralph Harry, Henry George, Elmer Hadsall and Misses A. B. Collier, Hadsall. The next meeting will be Nov. 10, with Mrs. Elmer Benham and Mrs. Ernest Benham as hostesses.

Mrs. Elton Savage and Mrs. J. D. Gillespie tendered Mrs. E. C. Ashworth a shower Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Savage. Mrs. O. A. Bunch, mother of Mrs. U. E. McClary, was hostess at a lovely twelve o'clock luncheon Wednesday at the home of her daughter. The room was beautiful with bouquets of autumn foliage, while the individual tables were most attractive, with colored pottery, clever place cards and small vases of tiny flowers to match the ensemble. Following a delicious luncheon, the guests played cards, sewed and chatted. Mrs. J. L. Aasen won high prize at contract and Mrs. T. De La Rhue drew the lucky drawing. Invited guests were: Mesdames P. W. Culver, M. Earl Wilson, R. E. Boober, M. O. Hawkins, J. L. Aasen, A. B. Collier, Mary McKeown, Frank Thrift, F. C. McNelly, T. De La Rhue, Victor Dimmick, R. A. Wernich and O. C. Sanford.

DILLARD WILL CLOSE

Dillard Fruit Market on Front street will close this Saturday evening for a week's renovation during which time plans will be carried out for the opening of a complete line of groceries in conjunction with the versatile fruit displays the firm has carried since coming to Coquille last year.

According to Ted Peterson, manager, the store will be ready in about a week and will open on a strictly cash basis with a wide choice of stock. Watch for further announcement.

DAVE BIEGGER RETURNS

Dave Biegger, manager of the Biegger & Gunderson Furniture store of this city, returned to Coquille Monday after a month's visit in the middle west states of Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and other sections of the country. Mr. Biegger drove the trip with his family and parents and returned with his sister, who has been living in Iowa. They came by way of Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona and California and up the coast to Coquille.

While in the east, Mr. Biegger visited many of the industrial factories, including the General Electric company and he made a thorough trip through these properties. The local firm retails G. E. products in Coquille and is doing a splendid job of it.

Mrs. Naamah Wilson, of Oakland, Calif., sister of Hal Pierce, left for home Friday morning after a week's visit at the Pierce home. Hal's father, D. D. Pierce, returned to California with her.
