C. E. S. Plays Reedsport

Several cars of loyal supporters plan to accompany Coach Leslie and his football team to Reedsport this Saturday when Coquille battles Reedsport in a non-conference game. This game is the second for the Red Devils to be fought away from home this season and is the last non-conference combat.

Juniors Select Play

The junior class has selected at its class play, "Pleased to Meecha," a three-act comedy by J. Bernard Chichester. Try-outs were held Tuesday evening and the following students will be cast as characters: Martha Bixby, the mother, Jeanne Clasterbos; Henry Bixby, the father, Danny Cardwell; Betty Bixby, their daughter, Gretchen Clinton; Binks, the butler, Bill Smith; Marie, the maid, Shirley Nye; Elmer Hicks, fresh from the country, Bill Yarbrough; Beevy, a detective, John Williams; Archie Pomeroy, one of Betty's boy friends, Charles Hawkins; Andrew Grimes, who claims to be a detective Farrel Bailey; Helen Maxwell, girl friend of Betty's, Jean Laird; Ruth Adams, another girl friend, Eunice Howe; Howard Willis, a boy friend, Vern Knox. In addition to the cast, committee appointments were made as follows: stage manager, Emerick Hultin; property manager, John Salimena; promptress, Mary Jane Dunn; business manager, Bud Mill; wardrobe mistress, Vesta Duncanson; entertainment between acts, Dick Sproul. The date for the presentation of the play has not yet been definitely settled. Miss Rose Naef will coach the play, assisted by Mr. Harold Cole. Mrs. Oelka will have charge of tickets, publicity and seating arrangements.

Seniors Choose Announcements

On Monday of this week Jack Martin, senior president, called a meeting of the senior class to confer with Mr. Babbert, of the Master Engraving Company, and select commencement announcements. This selection marks the first official action of the class of '38.

Assembly Held Monday

A short assembly was held in the study hall Monday morning to celebrate our 35-6 victory over the Bandon Tigers and to hear a description by Mr. Dunn of the new state capitol building at Salem which he visited while attending the principals' convention held there last week-end. Mr. Dunn also recounted some outstanding incidents of the meeting.

Riverton School

The radio is beginning to announce the number of shopping days until Christmas. The senior class is all ready for the last-minute rush. Forty-five boxes of expensive-looking Christmas cards arrived last week. This beautiful selection of cards (21 of them) is being sold by the senior class for $1 (less than 5c each).

"Fifty! Who'll make it fifty-five? Fifty-five! Who'll make it sixty?" will be the cry heard in the Riverton gym Friday, Oct. 28, when the dancers will stand surrounded by pumpkins and spooks at the senior basket social dance and listen to the auctioneer. Music? Babe's Melody Kings.

Mr. Rycraft has ten members of the "fair sex" now reporting for song practice. Those who reported for practice were: Margarette Carlson, Mayne Royer, Helen Haga, Geraldine Guerin, Margie Rogers, Doris Morgan, Caroline Fetch, June White and Glenys Gilbert.

How would you like to go home with your boyhood sweetheart after you had hastily married him and the very first day you were there have his son mount the sofa, waving an ax over his head, and confront you and your three feminine companions. "Come, come, one of you must be the first. You can't all be butchered last. Eventually each one of you will be murdered—so why not now? Won't you have your head chopped off, lovely lady? Think how lovely it will look hanging up by the hair in my chamber of horrors! Yes, yes, you'll be the first. I know you'll be the first!"

That will be the plight of unfortunate Mrs. Agnes Martin (Ferril Schrader) in "A Ready-Made Family" to be given by the student body on Friday evening, November 4.

An inexpensive dance and refreshments are planned for after the play.

The members of the Riverton grade school teaching staff met at the school on Wednesday evening. After dinner, the regular monthly meeting of the grade school teaching staff was held. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. James Leonard, Miss Opal Robinson, Miss Ann Alford, Mrs. Joyce Owen, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Robinson.

The second issue of the "Trojan" (Riverton high school paper) was issued last week. A copy was given each child in the school to be taken home to the parents. Any parent who did not receive one should request that one be brought home. Each issue contains news of the school, the communities served by the Riverton school, and messages from the faculty to parents and patrons of the school.

A representative of the Oregon Knitting Mills called at Riverton Monday with a line of class and lettermen's sweaters. Several students were measured for sweaters. All purchases were the result of individual desire without any suggestions or encouragement from the school. Final purchase of the garments will be made later on in the week after all students have talked the matter over at home.

Several members of the Smith-Hughes agriculture class are busy manufacturing kyaks in the shop. Some of the boys have the ribs cut out and attached to the keel. They hope to have their boats ready to use within the next few weeks.

Miss Nye's home economics class has made curtains for the windows of the home ec. room and are now embroidering a cover for the cot which is used for persons who became ill at school and cannot get home until the busses leave.

Riverton's array of busses look quite impressive lined up down the road in front of the school yard. Mr. Johnson backs them out of the shed and puts them in place before the bell rings. By doing so he removes the danger of backing over children coming to get into the busses and also makes it possible for them to get started home a few minutes sooner.

Myrtle Point

Mrs. Humphrey, of Los Angeles, is spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Woods.

Mrs. Rose Garrett arrived Wednesday and is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Gilkinson. She will also visit her father, William Chandler, on Dement Creek.
