Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis were hosts at a six-thirty o'clock dinner party Friday evening. Following a delicious repast, the guests spent the evening chatting. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Albert Wills, Leslie McElhane, Richard Knife, Ralph Hurlburt, Roy Wheeler, Messrs. Willie Adkins and Clair Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and daughter, Janet.

Mrs. D. B. Estes entertained her bridge club Tuesday evening in her new home on First street. She was pleasantly surprised with a towel shower. Contract was played. Mrs. Paul Trojel won high score and Mrs. E. A. Walker, second. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour by the hostess. Those present were: Mesdames Walter Litzenger, O. T. Gant, E. A. Walker, Julius Ruble, Paul Trojel, J. E. Axtell, Kenneth Kistner, Fred Watson and the hostess.

Mrs. Paul Simpson and Mrs. Levi Wilson entertained with a shower for Mrs. Ralph Harry Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Simpson. After the opening of the large array of gifts, the ladies displayed their own baby picture for inspection with a guess—who's who!

A delicious lunch was served to the guests. Mesdames C. C. Farr, M. O. Hawkins, Ernest Wherast, Howard Taylor, V. L. Bailey, T. S. Harrington, Guy Kelley, E. H. Souder, Aaron Wilson, Adrian Sias, Art Towne, and the honored guest, Mrs. Harry.

The Episcopal Guild Ladies met in the Parish House Wednesday afternoon. A social time was spent in sewing and chatting. Light refreshments were served by Mrs. Ida Owen and Mrs. Ed Lorenz to the following: Mesdames Geo. Gosline, T. B. Currie, Hal Pierce, Geo. Bryant, Chas. Stauff, Annie Robinson, W. H. Mansell, L. H. Hazard, C. T. Selbig, F. L. Greenough, Geo. Laird, Lloyd Ross, Fred Hickok, C. J. Fuhrman, Jas. Watson and Briner.

A joint celebration was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Leslie McElhane Wednesday afternoon when a group of friends tendered Mrs. McElhane a birthday party and her daughter, Cly (Mrs. Richard Knife), a bridal shower. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers. After the opening of the many gifts, delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Chas. Lewis, C. H. Davis, Ealie Oddy, Carol Helvie, Albert Wells, Roy Wheeler, Ivan Shuck, Wm. Gaffey, Ralph Hurlburt, Joe Salisbury, Elmer Knife, Bud Knife, Frank Thurman, Miss Jessie Knife, Miss Janet Lewis and the two honored guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schram, Jr., of Salem, visited his parents and grandmother over the week-end. They also called on relatives and old friends.

The Three Links Club of Mamie Rebekah Lodge will hold a dance Saturday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall.

A "Who's Who" Of Oregon Club Women

A "who's who" of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs will feature the directory issue of its own magazine, the "Oregon Clubwoman," which will be off the press this week and ready for distribution to clubwomen in every part of the state.

For the first time in many years, the federation is printing a complete list of its member clubs, the names and addresses of their presidents and secretaries, the time and place of their meetings and the approximate size of their membership. A total of 134 organizations is included in the directory, representing 63 Oregon cities and towns. In the list are names of some of the state's best known women leaders, either as officers of their own clubs or as officers or chairmen for the federation.

The Coquille clubs included are the Coquille Woman's Civic Club, with Mrs. E. E. Leslie, president, and the Coquille Junior Woman's Club, with Mrs. Ted Hornecker serving as president. In addition there is the Coos County Federation of Women's Clubs.

The Powers clubs included are the Powers Junior Woman's club, Mrs. Elwyn Frye, president, and the Powers Woman's club, Mrs. Grace W. Gamwell, president.

The full issue of the federation magazine will contain a list of all its own new officers, department and division chairmen and heads of its special committees.

The "Oregon Clubwoman" will be issued bi-monthly this year, according to Mrs. O. C. Sanford, of Coquille, chairman of the federation's magazine committee. The next number will appear in December.

Pioneer Missionary Society

The Pioneer Missionary Society held their monthly tea and program in the church parlors last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Ireland had charge of the program. Fairview Items

Mrs. J. A. Deadmond has been ill at her home here. The Fairview Home Extension Unit met at the home of Mrs. T. H. Benham on Tuesday of this week. Miss Julia Bennett, county home demonstration agent, demonstrated "Menu Planning." The business meeting was held in the afternoon and the following project leaders were named for the remainder of the year: food project leaders, Mrs. Lillie Berkheimer and Mrs. Sophia Tosten; clothing project leaders, Mrs. Blanche Yeoman and Mrs. Lena Moore; recreational project leaders, Misses Viola Johnson and Bette Yeoman; home furnishing leaders, Seville Teagarden and Vida Prince. Twenty-five members attended. The J. W. Powell home was threatened by fire last Saturday when the roof caught from a faulty flue. The damage consisted of a burned roof and water in the upstairs rooms. Mrs. Earl Ashbaugh and Dorothy Ashbaugh and three small children were alone at the house when the fire started but a group of men stopped the fire for them. Donald Phillips and C. E. Nevin, of Napa, California, are visiting in the valley now.
