Safeway Campaign Shows Coffee Sales Increase

The power of advertising is extremely high with Safeway stores. Last week all stores of this area inaugurated a coffee sale promotion that will extend until the fore part of December. In every store gains in coffee sales have ranged from 50 to 100 per cent increases.

While the local stores showed radical increases in coffee sales which were due directly to the concentrated advertising program carried out through the local newspaper. There are 16 stores in this district and the quota in actual cups of coffee has been figured out at 1,200,000 cups. Each of the two stores here will have to sell 54,000 cups of coffee in order for the store managers to attend the district managers' party in December in full dress. Just what apparel the two managers here, Ralph DeJarnett and George Witters, will have on at the social can be seen on the dummy each store had. (The dummy is the one without any clothes on next to check stand.)

Wrestling Card Here Friday Night

Chief War Eagle, who two weeks ago here at the Coquille Community Building took the measure of Walter Achlu in no uncertain manner, will meet his supreme test when he faces George Wagner, of Houston, Texas, who has just returned from an eastern trip.

Can the Iroquois scalper get by Wagner and make good his claim to being the best grappler ever to hit this territory? They will meet Friday night at the Community building in a contest which should be classic.

In the special event Sammy Evans, the Montana shepherd will tackle Jose Rodriguez. The fans demanded a rematch between these two gladiators after they went to a sensational draw in 45 minutes of brilliant tussling.

Promotor Elliott hasn't quite decided on the prelim, but it will be a hot match whoever it is. The prelims have been in the habit of stealing the show at the Community building.

Pat O'Dowdy, after his battle with Elton Owens, has sworn off boxing for the rest of his life and will don the boxing gloves. Sammy Evans, formerly Montana state boxing champ, has put in a bid for a match against Owens, and Promotor Elliott has this bout under consideration. He will probably throw these two into the ring together with gloves on sometime in the near future.

Chief Eagle has been working out daily at the Portland Y to decrease his bulging waist line. He says that his legs are in better shape than ever before and that he will pull a few new tricks out of his bag if necessary to take Wagner.

George is in fine fettle for his bout Friday, but is making no predictions. He doesn't intend to leave his scalp on the Indian's belt, however. The first bout will begin at 8:30 Friday night.
