

(Society Continued)

Mrs. George Holbrook and Mrs. L. A. Greene entertained some friends with a real old-fashioned Hallowe'en party Monday evening at the home of the former. All the guests came costumed for the occasion and plenty of fun was enjoyed. The house was decorated with Hallowe'en gadgets of all kinds. Games and cards occupied the evening. Mrs. E. L. Benham won high at cards and Mrs. Geo. Johnson and Mr. Greene won other prizes. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames George Johnson, E. M. Kay Fred Jensen, E. L. Benham, T. S. Stevens, Geo. Holbrook, L. A. Greene, Mrs. Hester Holverstott and Mrs. Ula Leach.

The J. G. W. club ladies met at the home of Mrs. A. N. Gould Friday for twelve-thirty o'clock luncheon with Mrs. Birdie Skeels, Mrs. J. L. Smith and Mrs. Henry Lorenz as joint hostesses with Mrs. Gould. The table looked most attractive with favors and other decorations carrying out the Hallowe'en motif. The luncheon itself was in keeping with the season. Following luncheon, the ladies spent the afternoon sewing, knitting and chatting. Those present besides the hostesses were: Mesdames E. E. Johnson, C. J. Fuhrman, Bert Folsom, J. A. Lamb, Ed Lorenz, Lloyd Ross, M. O. Hawkins, of Coquille, and the following ladies from Marshfield: Mesdames J. S. Lyons, Marvin Lyons, C. McC. Johnson, C. Huling and C. W. Endicott.

Mrs. K. P. Lawrence was hostess to the Neighborhood club Wednesday for one fifteen o'clock dessert luncheon. Bridge was played; Mrs. Geo. Johnson was high and Mrs. Hudson, low. Members present were: Mesdames Fred Jensen, C. V. Carmichael, Fred Hudson, George Johnson, Geo. Holbrook, L. A. Greene, I. A. Larson and the hostess.

Coquille Woman's Club will meet Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 8, in the Guild Hall at 2:15 p. m. Dr. R. M. Stephensen, a speaker of note, will give a talk on "Among the Head Hunters of the South Seas." The Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Pageler, will sing.

Junior Woman's Club Activities

The Junior Women's Club dance held last Wednesday was very well attended and the hall was beautifully decorated with crepe paper streamers and pumpkins filled with marigolds. Receipts amounted to $124.50.

At the meeting of the club held at the Pioneer Hall last week, Mrs. R. E. Boober gave two humorous readings which were enjoyed by members and guests. Group singing was enjoyed by the club led by Mrs. John Clabaugh, song leader, with Mrs. Karl Dement as accompanist.

A short business meeting was held with reports including standing committee and Second District Convention which was held at North Bend October 23.

Mrs. Elbert Schroeder gave an interesting report on the Newport convention held Oct. 13. She also told of the activities of the county health association.

Refreshments were served by Myrtle Clausen, Mabelle Robinson and Grace Ellingsen to the following members and guests: guests, Mesdames R. E. Boober, Karl Dement, Chas. Briggs, Ed Wagner, Clovis Church, Bob Nelson, T. L. Thornton and Miss Virginia Conn; members, Mesdames Ted Hornecker, Wm. Barrow, D. A. Fisher, Robert H. Hines, Kenneth Henninger, Harold Gould, Henry McCue, John Clabaugh, Geo. Fuller, Alton Clausen, Wayne Robinson, Tom Stevens, Harold Stevens, Donald McEniry, T. H. Mathews, Tom Denison, Belmont Ireland, Geo. McClellan, Marlin Brandon, Lloyd Wood, Elbert Schroeder, and Misses Alice Early, Barbara Richmond, Madeline McKeown, Aloha Allen, Jean McNelly, Margaret Belloni, Ilean Harris, Vesta Miles, Blanche Sanden, Irene Sandon, Marjorie Knight, La Verne Knife, Carol Young, Grace Ellingsen and club adviser, Mrs. J. Arthur Berg.

A board meeting of the Jr. Woman's club was held at the home of Mrs. Ted Hornecker Monday evening, October 31.

The meeting was held for the purpose of discussing year books and song books, to be printed within two weeks. Designs for song books were submitted by Mrs. Tom Denison. Colors and plans for printing the year books were discussed by the committee in charge, headed by Grace Ellingsen.

Witches' brew and cookies were served to the following guests: Mesdames Dorothy Fish, Mable Tucker, Lucille McEniry, Margaret Denison, Alberta Brandon, Dorothy McCue and Misses Alice Early, Grace Ellingsen, Marjorie Knight, Irene and Blanche Sandon.

The Cornerstone class of the Church of Christ held a Hallowe'en party in the church parlors Saturday evening. Everyone came in costume and what a spooky sight—witches, hobgoblins, et cetera. Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan won the prize for the cleverest costume. All sorts of Hallowe'en games were played and then "eats." Mrs. Berlyn Billings and Miss Vera Hadsall were in charge. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Adrian Sias, C. C. Farr, Geo. Chapman, Albert Halstead, Henry George, Levi Wilson, Paul Simpson, Tom Stevens, Harold Stevens, Herbert Souder, Ernest Odell, John Sullivan, Berlyn Billings, Misses Ruth Towne, Catherine Estey, Vera Hadsall, Maxine Sias, Messrs. Don Stevens, Don Bailey, Chris Christiansen.

The "Friendly Dozen" met at the home of Mrs. Fred Wheaton Wednesday afternoon. The ladies spent the time in needlework and conversation. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were: Mesdames H. W. Kelley, L. C. Kelley, Clyde Minard, Geo. Matney, Harry Wise, Louis Fugelson, A. G. Trendell, a guest, Mrs. M. S. Couly and the hostess.

Mrs. Wm. Gauntlett, of Seattle, Washington, spent the week-end visiting her close friend and girlhood chum, Mrs. Ella Nelson. Mrs. Gauntlett, born Annie Windsor, was the second girl baby of white parentage to be born in Curry county. She and Mrs. Nelson spent their girlhood in Port Orford and have remained the closest friends through the years. Mrs. Viola Ross, another close friend, enjoyed this reunion; the ladies, all seventy-nine years young, had a most enjoyable time reminiscing over past years and old friends. Mrs. Nelson attended Mrs. Gauntlett's wedding at the old Windsor Hotel in Port Orford and later her golden wedding anniversary in Bandon. Mrs. Gauntlett has made her home in Seattle for several years. One of her married sons lives there, one in Florida and one in Bellingham, Wash. She has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary Gauntlett, at Gold Beach several weeks. The two sisters married brothers. Mrs. Gauntlett is a great aunt of C. G. (Hode) Caughell, of Coquille.

Notice

Regular meeting of the Junior Women's club will be held at Pioneer Hall Monday, November 7. All members are requested to be present for discussion of the new year books and work will begin on the song books.

The following committee will act as hostesses for the evening: Lucille McEniry, Alice Early and Eleanor McClellan.

The Eagles Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Robert Chard Wednesday for one o'clock pot luck luncheon. Following luncheon, the ladies sewed, knitted and chatted. Those present were: Mesdames E. C. Yarbrough, John Werah, Geo. Gilman, L. Hickenbottom, Ernest Battey, W. O. Terry, Wm. Gaffey, Austin Kyle, E. A. Wimmer, Pat Hayes, Ralph Manning, Paul Bany and the hostess.

The Episcopal Ladies met in the Parish House Wednesday afternoon. After the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Watson, the afternoon was spent in a social time. Refreshments were served by Mrs. T. B. Currie and Mrs. W. H. Mansell to the following ladies: Mesdames Annie Robinson, Clarence Tuttle, Lloyd Ross, Ed Lorenz, Geo. Bryant, A. A. Hall, C. V. Smith, L. H. Hazard, Jas. Watson, Chas. Stauff, C. J. Johnson, F. P. Fisher, Mrs. F. L. Greenough and Rev. G. R. Turney.

CAFE CHANGES HANDS

Announcement was made this week of the sale of the Canary Cafe on Hall street to Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Town, of Cottage Grove. The cafe has been operated for the past two years by Mrs. Ann Rokkan with the assistance of Mr. Carpenter. Mrs. Rokkan plans to return to her home in the state of Washington and Mr. Carpenter will go to Tacoma.

The new owners of the Canary are experienced in this line of business, having operated a similar establishment in California. They have lived in southern Oregon for the past 18 years. They plan to carry on the regular service of the Canary and will announce changes later.

A. F. of L. Socials Sat.

Members of the plywood lumber and sawmill workers unions of the Smith Wood-Products enjoyed a joint social of the two organizations last Saturday evening at the W.O.W. hall.

A short program followed by dancing and lunch was the order of the evening. S. S. Hardenbrook was general chairman of the party. Husbands and wives attended.
