Townsend Club

Tuesday's session was a very successful business meeting with a large attendance; coffee and wonderful home-made pies were served after the meeting.

The principal discussion and motion adopted was the wording to be on the Townsend highway signs which are to be placed near the three highway entrances to Coquille.

Next Tuesday is social and dance night; a surprise is in store for those attending. Everyone invited.

B. P. W. Club To Sponsor Exhibit

The Business and Professional Women's Club will hold a novel exhibit in the Pioneer Hall Saturday afternoon, November 19, beginning at 1:30 p. m. The exhibit will consist of fancy work, hobbies, and antiques, contributed by Coquille residents, with prizes to be awarded in each of the three sections. Everyone is invited to bring articles to display and to compete for the prizes. Admission to the exhibit will be free, but afternoon tea will be served for a nominal sum later in the afternoon. A fish pond for fishermen will also be a feature of the afternoon's entertainment.

Beginning at 5:30 o'clock a cafe dinner will be served with three different menus at three different prices, the prices being fifty cents, thirty-five cents, and twenty-five cents. Each menu contains a carefully selected variety of foods, tastefully cooked by Coquille's best cooks. The excellent food will be further supplemented by selections from Coquille High School Band under the direction of Miss Anita Pageler.

See Hooton Electric Shpp for your new Universal Electric Oven. Its small cost and economical operation enable every housewife to have one.
