A seven o'clock potluck dinner was held in the Legion Hall Monday evening for the Legion and Auxiliary, with about 70 present. Following the dinner, Mrs. Rosella Cline, new president of the Auxiliary, conducted a business meeting. She made the following appointments: Press, Mrs. Lee Hand; Historian, Mrs. R. L. Stewart; Hospital, Mrs. C. P. Zumwalt; Child Welfare, Mrs. J. E. Axtell; Legislation, Mrs. Gladys Gano; Relief, Mrs. Frank Schram; Fidac chairman, Mrs. Clifford Kern; Constitution and By-laws, Mrs. E. D. McCune.

After the business meeting the Legion and Auxiliary members went to the banquet room of the hotel where splendid moving pictures of the C & H sugar operations were shown by Stanley Robinson.

Auxiliary members present were: Mesdames Edna Kern, Nelson Stewart, Robah Robison, Bertha Seibig, Mildred McCune, Mabel Kunz, Nellie Frey, Lenore Hunt, Gladys Gano, Hallie Zumwalt, Elizabeth Hand, Joe Nilsen, Ula Schram, Maybelle Rackleff, Caroline Gray, Harriett Claterbos, P. O. Lund, Rosella Cline, three Junior Auxiliary members and two visitors.

The Gospel Tabernacle (Assembly of God) has a special program of particular excellence for this week. Rev. Hubert Mitchell, missionary to the Island of Sumatra, is speaking there every night this week and Sunday on the mission work in the Dutch East Indies and is singing and playing his piano accordion. Mr. Mitchell is an extraordinary performer on his instrument and has given programs this week to all three schools and both service clubs. He is also heard over KOGS in Marshfield. Meetings will be held every night this week and pictures will be shown Friday and Sunday nights. The seven hundred dollar accordion played by Mr. Mitchell is an instrument built particularly to withstand the rigors of tropical climates.

The "Friendly Dozen" met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Barrow with Mrs. Geo. Matney as hostess. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing, knitting and chatting. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members: Mesdames Louis Fugelson, Fred Wheaton, A. G. Trendell, Harry Wise, Clyde Minard, Sam Arnold, Jack Hultin and two guests: Mrs. Nellie Harry and Mrs. Wm. Barrow.

Mrs. Elton Savage entertained a few friends at her home Wednesday afternoon. A social time was enjoyed in chatting, etc. Dainty cakes, open-as you would select any other business man with whom you deal. You select a mechanic or carpenter because you depend upon his ability to practice his trade and his honesty in business relations. Why not use the same method in selection of a grocer. A grocery store where experience ability and integrity of business methods are to be found insures economy and satisfaction to you in your purchases.

Junior Woman's Club To Have Year Book

Owing to the absence of Mrs. Mildred Hornecker, president of the Junior Women's Club, Mrs. Alberta Brandon, vice president, conducted the regular meeting Monday, Nov. 14. Following the group singing, led by Mrs. Eunice Barrows, various reports by standing committees were given. The most important discussion of the evening was that of the year book, with Miss Grace Ellingsen in charge. The club voted to donate a dollar a month to the city library for children's books, to be purchased by Mrs. Ellingsen.

An educational guessing game was enjoyed by members in observance of National Educational Week, the first prize going to Mrs. Dorothy McCue and second to Mrs. Bernice Ireland.

Refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames Alberta Brandon, Mabel Tucker, Eunice Barrow, Dorothy McCue, Margaret Denison, Helga Mathews, Faye Waggoner, Evelyn Elliott, Virginia Wood, Maybelle Robinson, Dorothy Dement, Eleanor McClellan, Myrtle Clausen, Genevieve Grant, O. A. Hughes and C. S. Briggs, Misses Blanche Sandon, Irene Sandon, Grace Ellingsen, Bonniegene Cady, La Verne Knife, Carol Young, Alice Early, Marjorie Knight, Margaret Belloni, Georgianna Johnson. Guests for the evening were: June Baker, Laurene St. Clair and Mrs. Wm. Sullivan.
