THE THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY

Again we observe the day first celebrated by the Pilgrim forefathers who designated a special day for social thanksgiving and appreciation to the Divine Ruler for the blessings of plenty which visited that hearty group after the extreme hardships of early pioneers on the eastern coast.

So, it is with this background that we will all settle around the fireside of home this Thanksgiving and give thanks for this land of plenty and entertain friends and relatives during this one most hospitable season. For everyone, it will be a gay time this year.

The Duplicate Club met at the home of Mrs. E. M. Kay Friday for one o'clock dessert luncheon. Duplicate contract was played. Mrs. A. B. Collier and Mrs. Frank Thrift were high for the afternoon's play. Members present were: Mesdames J. L. Aasen, Frank Thrift, Hal Pierce, A. B. Collier, R. E. Boober, U. S. McClary, Mary McKeown and the hostess.

The "Charta Club" met at the home of Mrs. D. G. Ireland Thursday for one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon. The afternoon was spent in playing cards. Mrs. Ernest Whereat won high score. Those present were: Mesdames Paul Brinkley, Edna Stewart, Ernest Whereat, Wm. Nelson, Ted Snyder, Grady Johnson, Geo. Thurber and the hostess.

Mrs. Grace Hatcher and Mrs. Perna Brault were tendered a surprise birthday party last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. June McGilvery in the Knife Apts. They both received a lovely gift. The evening was spent in needlework and chat, followed by delicious refreshments served at a late hour. Invited guests were: Mesdames Jennie Taylor, Helen Gamblin, Lucia Ireland, Cora Sullivan, Mabel Whereat, Lundy Peart, Alma Minard, Perna Ross, Ruth Barklow, Lola Olsen, Sue Cooper, Edith Simmons, Mabel Malthu, Claire Hultin, Bernice Malthu, Gertrude Hultala, Pressie Cackler, Rena Willard, Miss Eileen Harris, the honored guests and Mrs. McGilvery.

Between 80 and 90 sat down to a six-thirty o'clock potluck dinner in Pioneer Hall Wednesday evening for a church get-together. Rev. H. L. Graybeal was very much surprised when he was presented with a fish pole and outfit in honor of his birthday by J. L. Smith, in behalf of the members and friends. A social time with singing followed.

Mrs. S. A. Morris entertained the Octette bridge club Friday for one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon. Contract was played: Mrs. Milton Greenfield won high score and Mrs. Carl Dement, low. Present were: Mesdames Felix Miller, Belmont Ireland, Gary Ellison, Carl Dement, Milton Greenfield, Fred Jensen, Raymond Detlefsen and the hostess.

Thursday evening, Miss Jean McNelly was hostess to the Omnit Club for seven-thirty o'clock dessert bridge. The house was attractively decorated with mistletoe. Following delicious refreshments apropos to Thanksgiving, bridge was played. Miss Betty Axtell won high score and Margaret Belloni, low. Members present were: Misses Georgianna Johnson, Helen Lund, Lurene St. Clair, Aloha Allen, Margaret Belloni, Betty Axtell, Mrs. Lloyd Wood; a guest, Mrs. Marlin Brandon, and the hostess.

Mrs. John Belloni was hostess to her bridge club Thursday for one-thirty o'clock luncheon at her home in Myrtle Point. Following luncheon, contract was played. Mrs. John Arnold won high score, Mrs. C. T. Selbig, low, and Mrs. Genevieve Kaufman, the travelling prize. Members present were: Mesdames Geo. Johnson, C. T. Selbig, Joe Knight, John Arnold, Richard Arnold, L. J. Maloney; a guest, Mrs. Genevieve Kaufman, of Myrtle Point, and the hostess.

Mrs. Hester Holverstott entertained a few "Rebekahs" at her home Friday afternoon. Different games were played with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Marion Clayton and Mrs. Jack Leach. Mrs. Harry Ross was the recipient of the door prize. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Invited were Mesdames Annie Robinson, Harry Ross, Jack Lach, A. N. Gould, Estelle Dunne, Marion Clayton, Mary Bates, Jennie Price and Miss Edith Gruenwald.

The Past Matrons and Past Patrons met in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple Friday evening with Mrs. Jessie Campbell, Mrs. V. G. Hazel and O. B. Harriman serving. The evening was spent in cards and sewing. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Hazel, Mrs. C. A. Rietman, Mrs. Henry Lorenz, Mrs. Ed Lorenz, Mrs. Jessie Campbell, Miss Bess Maury and O. B. Harriman.

The Pioneer Missionary society held its monthly silver tea in the church parlors Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Orville Newton presented part of the topic, "Building National and Racial Barriers" and took her text from Matthew and John 14. Other parts of the lesson were given by Miss Lura Morgan and Mrs. Ernest Adamson. Mrs. Helen Alcorn very ably presented Robert Service's poem, "Young Fellow, My Lad," and a humorous Thanksgiving reading. The missionary societies of the Southern Methodist church are now celebrating the 60th anniversary of the first society. Mrs. Jas. Richmond, president of the local society, gave a short sketch, "We Are Sixty." The society was originally started by four women who ardently believed in missions.

Following this, Mrs. W. A. Ireland presented a "Missionary Quiz" dealing with missionaries and their aims in all parts of the world. At the close of the program, six junior members of the missionary society sang one of their lovely Sunday school songs accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins. The society planned to hold their mission study December 6th with a potluck luncheon at noon. Following the meeting a social time was enjoyed with refreshments served by Mrs. Leland Petersen, Mrs. Birdie Skeels and Mrs. Leland Peart. Others present were: Mesdames Jennie Adams, O. B. Harriman, Orville Newton, Clyde Minard, Elton Savage, Ernest Purvance, W. A. Ireland, Jas. Richmond, Esta Ellis, R. E. Boober, Bob Laurance, H. L. Graybeal, Inez Pinkston, Ada McCurdy, Helen Alcorn, J. W. Zanders, Gladys Gano, Ernest Adamson, E. C. Finley, G. W. Tyrrell, M. O. Hawkins, June Walker, Miranda Way, Lundy Peart, Cora Wimer, Cyril McCurdy, Jack Hultin, W. P. Laws and Miss Lura Morgan.

At the attractive Arts, Crafts, and Hobbies display conducted by the B. & P. W. club, held in the Pioneer hall Saturday evening, the following prizes were awarded: Virginia Lake, a school girl of Bridge, received first prize for her paintings. This was the only display of paintings. In the Art division: Mrs. Viola Newton received first prize for the Japanese centerpiece and Japanese dishes; second prize was awarded Mrs. Richmond for the brass plate from Egypt, and third went to Mrs. Bertha Smith for the shawl from Ceylon.

In the Hobby display: Mrs. Viola Newton won first for the collection of jewelry; Miss Ida Oerding, second, for the fan display, and Mrs. G. C. Gauthier for the stamp collection, which contained a cancelled stamp of every state in the union. In the Fancy Work display: Mrs. C. G. Floten won first prize on the curtains made in Norway in 1904; second prize went to Mrs. Anna Rooney for the table centerpiece which contained 500 eyelets, and third to Miss Lois Fenn for the lace bedspread. Gifts of bookends, bath salts, candles and stationery, attractively wrapped, were awarded the first prize winners.

At the monthly business meeting of the B. & P. W. club held in the Pioneer church parlors Monday evening, six new members were added to the roll: Mrs. Leta Leslie, Mrs. Beulah Norton, Miss Julia Bennett, Mrs. Ethel Littler, Mrs. Rosalie Ostman and Miss Barbara Richmond. The club is sponsoring a lecture by Miss Helen Whitaker, who will give a talk on "Conditions in China" Monday evening, Dec. 5, in the Pioneer church. This is under the auspices of the International Relations committee, Mrs. Martha Mukey, chairman. This lecture will be well worth hearing and a large attendance is urged.

The Missionary society of the Church of Christ met in the church parlors last Thursday afternoon. The meeting was opened by singing: "Sweet Hour of Prayer." Reports followed and then the program on "World Peace," led by Mrs. Gus McCullough. Her text was taken from Philippians 4:5-10. Several ladies read articles in regard to world peace.

After the program a social time followed with refreshments. Present were: Mesdames Arthur Towne, A. S. Bean, W. H. Wimer, Guy Kelley, E. H. Souder, Laverne McCue, Carrie Benham, Alton Dungey, M. O. Hooton, V. L. Bailey, Amos Payne, E. E. Benham, Cal Young, E. E. Nosler, Ralph Harry, Harold McCue, Henry George, Henry Cardwell, Berlyn Billings, John Widmark, Adrian Sias, W. Davidson, Geo. Chapman, L. N. Williams and Miss Jennie Lafferty.

The "Pythian Home Club" met at the home of Mrs. Geo. Gilman Friday for one-fifteen o'clock dessert luncheon. The afternoon was spent in sewing for the Home and in chatting. The ladies had as a special guest, Mrs. Lucinda Deburgh, of Eugene, grand chief of the Pythian Sisters, who gave a most interesting talk on the activities of the Washington-Oregon Pythian Home. Mrs. Ada Smith, sister of Mrs. Deburgh, was a special guest also. Members present were: Mesdames Clarence Tuttle, Jack Arnold, Martha Bennett, W. E. Cross, Blanche Davis, Geo. Gilman, Fred Hickok, W. L. Kistner, Nell McGilvery, Frank Pook, Roy Pettengill, Harold Varney, E. A. Wimer and a guest, Mrs. Maggie Simmons. The club will meet with Mrs. Cross November 29.

B. P. W. Club Exhibit Very Interesting

It was an interesting collection of hobbies, art work and curios which the B. P. W. club had on display in Pioneer Hall last Saturday. One of the most unusual was the display of teeth which was loaned by Miss Ida Oerding. There were about a dozen samples, human and animals.

The ladies served a splendid dinner in the evening and although they may not have realized as much for their treasury as they had hoped, their customers were well pleased with the service and food.

The vocal and instrumental numbers furnished by high school students were a very pleasant addition to the afternoon and evening affair.

The Young Matrons' club met at the home of Mrs. Enno Dornath last Wednesday afternoon. Cards were played during the afternoon with Mrs. Virgil Todd and Mrs. Weldon Curtis winning prizes. Mrs. Walter West received the door prize. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Present were: Mesdames Fred Martin, Jack Clouse, Walter West, Elmo Sanders, Ernest Embree, Wiley Embree, Bert Ferris, Ronald Burr, Virgil Todd, Weldon Curtis, Frank DeCosta and the hostess.

Several friends gathered at the E. Leslie home on Spurgeon Hill Thursday evening for a six-thirty o'clock no-host dinner. Mrs. Leslie was assisted by Mrs. H. S. Norton. Following dinner, contract bridge was played. Present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Hal Pierce, U. E. McClary, T. B. Currie, E. C. McNelly, H. S. Norton and E. E. Leslie.

The ladies of the Baptist church motored to the home of Mrs. H. K. Plaepp in the Lampa creek district last Thursday, where a shower was tendered Mrs. Werner Plaepp. The afternoon was spent in singing, sewing and chatting, after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. Guests included: Mesdames C. L. Brockmann, T. R. Rutledge, Elmer Holverstott, Jerry Williams, John Wasson, Harry Ross, Wm. Bond, Josie Gilman, H. A. Minter, E. B. Finley, John Stone, Boardman, Flora Dunne, W. C. Davidson and the guest of honor, Mrs. Werner Plaepp.
