

"You Can't Take It With You" Capra's Greatest Triumph at Roxy Sun., Mon., Tue.

JEAN ARTHUR, LIONEL BARRYMORE IN ALL-STAR CAST

Hailed as another Capra triumph, Columbia's screen version of the George S. Kaufman-Moss Hart Pulitzer Prize play, "You Can't Take It With You," opens Sunday at the Roxy Theatre with a cast which includes Jean Arthur, James Stewart, Lionel Barrymore, Edward Arnold, Mischa Auer, Ann Miller and numerous others.

"You can't Take It With You" was produced and directed by Frank Capra from the screen play by Robert Riskin. These Columbia film-makers have been lauded time and again for their "It Happened One Night," "Lady For A Day," "Lost Horizon" and "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town." "You Can't Take It With You," based on the stage success for which Columbia paid $200,000, is said to exceed even the previous efforts of the two brilliant collaborators.

The new film deals with the lovable and perfectly delightful Vanderhof family, which believes in doing whatever it wants whenever it wants to.

In their old New York home, presided over by Grandpa Vanderhof, this uninhibited group reveals a heart-warming attitude toward life in a merry melange of comedy, flavored with romance and tinged with pathos.

"You Can't Take It With You" is concerned, in part, with the proud aristocratic Kirbys, as well as with the carefree Vanderhofs. Kirby's monumental plan to form a huge munitions merger, a move which requires the purchase of all property within an area of twelve city blocks, is halted when Grandpa refuses to sell the Vanderhof home at any price. The plan of Kirby's son to marry Alice Sycamore, his secretary, is blocked when the boy brings his parents to dinner one night, only to discover the Vanderhof family engrossed in its various eccentric affairs.

The romance and merry-mad conflict of the two families, coupled with the enjoyable hobbies of the Vanderhofs and their many friends, is declared to make "You Can't Take It With You" one of the outstanding productions of the season.

Prominent in the supporting cast of the new Capra film are Spring Byington, Samuel S. Hinds, Dub Taylor, Donald Meek, H. B. Warner, Halliwell Hobbes, Eddie Anderson and Lillian Yarbo. Dimitri Tiomkin composed the musical score.

A Thanksgiving program of recitation and songs was given at the grade school house Wednesday afternoon large surplus are not produced in this part of the state. Early indications are that payments may be increased some on practices common here, making the program of more value to Coos county farmers.

These elections will take place in all communities throughout the United States on December 7, according to information received by the committeemen from state officials who attended a meeting held in the county agent's office recently. Coos county meetings will be held as follows:

North Bend Community, North Bay Side Grange Hall, 10:00 a. m.

Marshfield Community, Coos River School, 1:30 p. m.

Myrtle Point Community, Myrtle Point High School, 10:00 a. m.

Coquille Community, Court House, 1:30 p. m.

Bandon Community, Bandon High School, 8:00 p. m.

The meeting in each community will be conducted by the 1938 chairman of the committee. The county agent or someone from the county office will attend each meeting and assist in keeping a record of the election. A report will be given on the status of the 1938 program at each community meeting, and the 1939 program will be explained briefly.

Most of the benefit payments earned by the farm operators in Coos county are made for seeding of perennial grasses and legumes, seeding of alfalfa and liming. The conservation program in this county, according to the committeemen, is one of encouraging soil-conserving practices. The phases dealing with acreage allotments, crop insurance, etc., are not important in this section as the basic crops which appear to be causing the which was enjoyed by all present.

Arago High School Play Evening practices this week are rapidly putting final polish on "Betty's Millionaire," the three-act comedy to be presented by the Freshmen and Sophomores of the Arago high school at 8 p. m. Friday evening, December 2, in the Arago gym. Admission, adults 25c, children 10c. "Betty's Millionaire" is a full of comic situations. Mrs. Brendlinger (Laura Bernice Lillie) is the romantic old soul who is trying to capture a man. Her victim is August Winslow (Ed Rowton). The times when Mrs. Brandlinger chases "Guskie" Winslow around the stage in order to tell him a joke will have you laughing. The millionaire, Peter Adams, (George Pettinger), eventually wins the attention of Betty (Maxine Rackleff), but only after he persuades her that millionaires are human beings. Nancy Fletcher (Virginia King) and Sue Weatherbeg (Mary Jean McAllister) plot to cure their friend, Betty's mercenary interest in millionaires. Sam Palmer (Junior Gulstrom) is the secretary of Peter Adams but he can give orders on occasion. Nora (Anne Watkins) will argue you with her liver complaint. Gerald Woodward, as Thaddeus Atterbury, owner of the Breezy Oceans summer resort where the entire action of the play takes place, and Frances Fisher, as Lillie Daniels, the architect, round out the cast of this fast-moving comedy. Ticket-sale this week is under the direction of John Pettinger, business manager.

Coquille Heights Lots At Bargain Prices

Elsewhere in this issue S. M. Nosler is announcing a reduction of prices on the $0 or more lots he owns on Coquille Heights, east of the Myrtle Point highway and south of Knowlton avenue.

To make these lots along Riverton avenue and south of there, up to Hoover street and Grand View Terrace, more easily accessible, he and the Sherwood estate, which also owns a dozen lots in that district, have replaced the old rickety wooden bridge, just east of the Wm. Ulett home, with a fill and as soon as possible it is to be graveled, providing a good road for the very few blocks between the Smith plant and these desirable building lots.

Mr. Nosler also has some acreage tracts there for sale.

A temporary sales headquarters is being opened in the front window at Nosler's Grocery, where Robt. Creager or Mr. Nosler will be glad to meet anyone interested.

We recommend planting shrubbery in the fall. See our display at Myrtle Gardens. Signed The Greenhouse Gardeners.
