

SPORT NOTES

Bowling League Led By Eagles--Lynn High

Play in the Coquille Bowling league is now held by the team entered in the competition by the Eagles' lodge. Members of the Plywood team are in close second and the team representing "Bill's Place" is third.

There is considerable enthusiasm about the sport this winter and it is expected that the competition will get even keener before it closes next May. All play is conducted on the Coquille Bowling Alley.

High scores for the week disclose the following recordings: Elmer Lynn, 277; E. Terhune, 253; A. Richardson, 244; Ted Meyers, 218; Jack McCarthy, 217.

Standing of the teams is as follows:

Team	Won	Lost
Eagles	8	4
Plywood Local	6	3
Bill's Place	6	6
Bosworth Motor	4	5
Pastime Tavern	5	7
Ladies Auxillary	4	8

Casino Entry Plays Powers Five Tonight

The Casino club basketball team will vie against the independent team of Powers this evening in the Community Building, according to Fred Coleman, manager, who is in charge of the local team.

Members of the local entry which was last week granted playing rights in the Coos Bay league of independent basketball this year are looking forward to an active year of sport.

Mr. Coleman reports an excellent array of talent. The personnel of the team comprises Roy Berg, Louis Donaldson, Jim Schaer, Warden Ellis, Alan Bailey, Bill and Dick Walker.

It is expected that the Casino crew will also engage in play of the Coquille valley league which is expected to be organized soon. Teams from Bandon, Port Orford, Myrtle Point, Coquille Plywood and Powers will have entries in this league.

Belle Knife Hospital

Ike Chandler, 83-year old resident of the Lee district, entered the hospital Sunday for treatment for heart trouble.

Dismissals the past week were Mrs. Anna Stephens, of Bandon, and Mrs. Maud Frye, of Marshfield, on Monday, and Mrs. Chauncey Fish and baby on Tuesday.

City Police Court Cases

Earl Shambow was fined $10 in recorder's court last Friday, the fine being suspended for a year, and Webble Mast forfeited a $5 fine when he failed to appear in court Monday. And last but not least, "Bacon" Sanders started serving a $10 fine yesterday.

SOLD! A $1500 PIECE PROPERTY FROM 25c AD

Yes, "sold!" That was the answer of one party this week who advertised a piece of property with a house on it located on Sanford Heights for sale in the Sentinel classified column.

With a meager expenditure of 25c for space in this section of the Sentinel, Mrs. Ida C. Smith sold her house at 101 Sanford Heights to C. E. Vance who inquired of Mrs. Smith after he had read the ad in the paper. This was not the only call as a result of this ad either.

You, too, can get results each week if you use this bargain medium and it is so inexpensive but yet yields such large returns.

"BILL'S PLACE" TEAM HAS THREE-GAME LEAD

The entry of Bill's Place in the Coos Bay Bowling league shows the local entry to have a three-game lead in the race over any competition.

The team personnel comprises Chester Price, Bill Fortier, Stuart Norton, Moose Claybaugh, Harold McGrew, Harry Oerding and Butch Briner. Much credit is due this crew as the competition over there is exceptionally good and there are some other very strong teams in the league.

Drainage District Elects Supervisors

F. D. Fish, C. A. Keitner and Geo. Hampton were last Saturday chosen by the taxpayers of the Fishtrap Drainage district as supervisors for the coming year, and Harry Slack was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The assessment of land in the district was set for 1939 at $4.50 per acre for bottom land and $2.25 for the higher.

With bond interest reduced to four per cent and all outstanding warrants void of interest, in accordance with an agreement worked out with the holders of the paper last summer by Mr. Slack, the district expects to be able to meet its obligations as they come due.

Five More Enter The County Jail

Claude Albert Stout was brought to the county jail from Myrtle Point last Wednesday to serve three months for breaking a plate glass front of the Hi-Lead Bar, which he is said to have done quite deliberately. Justice Dodge, who also fined him $10, said Stout would be paroled after 30 days if the window was replaced. That is estimated at a $47 job.

A Myrtle Point 18-year old boy, W. F. Bingham, was bound over to the grand jury by Justice Bolt at Marshfield last Wednesday on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. He issued one or more bogus checks at the Bay, and bail was set at $2,000.

Veryl Ringle was brought up from Bandon, Sunday, and lodged in jail with bail set at $500 on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

A ten-day sentence for vagrancy is being served by Ruby Rose Hathaway, who was brought from Marshfield last Friday.

Geo. Jeahing, on a non-support charge, was brought to the county jail on Tuesday. His bail was fixed at $500 by Justice Bolt at Marshfield.

TRAINED MAN WANTED

A woman advertised for a caretaker for her town house, and, after interviewing a large number of applicants, found one who suited her, says the Boston Transcript.

"Thanks for giving me the job," said the man; "and might I ask you a question? You stated in your advertisement that you wanted a married man. Does that mean you have some work in view for my wife?"

"Oh, no," replied the woman. "I wanted a married man so as to be sure I'd get someone used to taking orders from a woman."

On His Metal

"They tell me that was a wealthy girl you were flirting with this summer."

"Yes, her father made a fortune in some kind of mine."

"Copper?"

"No. Another fellow beat me out."—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Fat Elk School Had Party Tuesday Eve.

The "Howdy Neighbor" party held at the Fat Elk school Tuesday evening was for the purpose of permitting old patrons to meet the new people who have moved into the district this year. The evening was spent most enjoyably with all present participating in games, stunts and listening to Mrs. Olive Barber's discourse on Coos county birds. Mrs. Barber is a forceful, interesting and informative speaker. Her talk was well received. The evening ended with the serving of lunch.

Mrs. Harry Oerding, the teacher in charge, announces that this is the first in a series of entertainments and parties to be given this winter, the next being scheduled for Dec. 23. These parties last year were so successful and well attended that it became a problem to know where to crowd in everyone who came. The pupils are receiving valuable training in public speaking and in entertaining and at the same time the school has become an active community center through the medium of these parties.

Time for Rejoicing

Valet—So the madam has left you? Believe me, I know just how you feel.

Master—Go on, Sparrows, you never felt that good in your life.

BRUTALITY

"You say your brother was very much stuck up at the time of his death?"

"Yes, he died of fly-paper."

Try the Icebox

First cannibal (running into camp)—Is I late fo' dinna?

Second cannibal—You is; everybody's eaten.

And That Was Enough

"Do you spend your time with puzzles?"

"No. Only with the one I married."

Optimist

"Every cloud has a silver lining."

"Nickel plate, anyhow."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

(Society Continued)

The choir of the Church of Christ and a few extra guests held a get-acquainted meeting at the church Wednesday evening in the form of a six-thirty o'clock chicken dinner. Following a sumptuous repast, a short business meeting was held and a social time enjoyed. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Widmark and Elvin, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Nosler and Patty, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Farr, Donald and Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Sias and Maxine, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henderson, Phillip and Junior Stem, V. L. Mrs. C. C. Farr as assistant hostesses. Miss Hickam is to be married to Bob Bailey some time this month. The gifts were cleverly hidden and found by means of tiny arrows which caused the bride-to-be to scurry from one room to another, indoors and out. During the evening clever guessing games were played, followed by delicious refreshments. Others present were: Mesdames Willard Sloan, Geo. Swinney, Adrian Sias, Walt Newton, Levi Wilson, Henry George, John Sanders, Gus McCullough, Arthur Towne, Misses Margaret Stanger, Dorothy Kern, Verene Bailey, the bride-to-be's mother and sister, Elda, and, of course, the guest of honor.
