Mrs. Warren Davis was hostess to the Pythian Home Club for one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon Tuesday. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing for the Pythian Home. The annual Christmas party will be held at the home of Mrs. Jas. Watson, Dec. 20. Present were: Mesdames Jack Arnold, Martha Bennett, W. E. Cross, Blanche Davis, Geo. Gilman, E. A. Wimer, Fred Hickok, W. L. Kistner, Clarence Tuttle, Frank Schram, Harold Varney, Jas. Watson, E. L. Perrott, J. J. Stanley, Maggie Simmons and the hostess.

Mrs. Walter Litzberger was hostess to her evening bridge club Tuesday evening. Contract was played, Mrs. O. T. Gant winning high score and Mrs. D. B. Estes, second. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour. Present were: Mesdames Julius Ruble, D. B. Estes, O. T. Gant, J. E. Axtell, Kenneth Kistner, E. A. Walker, two guests, Mrs. Fred Watson and Mrs. Ray Vaughan, and the hostess.

Last Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Roy Wheeler entertained a few friends at her home. The guests played different games, after which delicious refreshments were served. Guests included: Mesdames Leslie McKhaney, Charles Lewis, Ray Buckles, Pete Culbertson, Flora Dunne, Weldon Spanker, Lester Abbott, Harry Todd and Albert Wells.

Saturday evening in Eugene a new Bethel was instituted, sponsored by Hood River Chapter, O. E. S., of Eugene. Two Coquille girls were honored: Donna Dean Boserman as senior custodian in the instituting of the Bethel and the Lavelle Walstrom, senior custodian in the installation ceremonies. Over 350 were present; among them all the grand officers, including Past Grand Guardian Cora Young. Many gifts were received from different bethehs throughout the state. Francelle Jackson, cousin of Miss Boserman, was installed as fourth messenger and her mother, Mrs. Blanche Jackson, was installed on the council. Girls going from here were: Mrs. W. E. Baserman, Beverly Norton and Clarabel Watson. Mrs. Marvin Hopkins and her new baby accompanied them as far as Cottage Grove, stopping off to see the baby's great grandmother, Mrs. Zelma Groom. The Coquille folks returned Sunday.

Jr. Woman's Club Met Last Monday

Preceding the regular meeting of the Junior Women's club held Monday evening, December 5, the girls attended the very interesting address by Helen Whitaker on "China," which was sponsored by the B. P. W. club.

Mildred Hornecker, president, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Florence Berg was appointed program chairman for the Coquille Woman's club meeting in February.

The Christmas party was the main topic of discussion and Mrs. Bernice Ireland was appointed general chairman, with the following ladies to assist her: Mrs. Florence Berg, Arlene Harrison, Marjorie Knight, Mary Stevens, and Margaret Denison. The girls are requested to bring the baby photographs to the party. Miss Marjorie Knight won first prize for the original song contest and Helga Mathews won second place. The songs entered in the contest will be used in the club's book, which the committee plans to have ready for the Christmas party.

Helga Mathews, Madeline MacKnight and Grace Hughes served refreshments to the following members and guests: Mildred Hornecker, Irene Sandon, Margaret Denison, Blanche Sandon, Ileana Harris, Betty Axtell, Ariene Harrison, Emma Briggs, Etta Marie Wagner, Geraldine Thornton, Evelyn Elliott, Faye Waggoner, Laverne Knife, Eleanor McClellan, Carol Young, Myrtle Clausen, Bernice Ireland, Margaret Belloni, Virginia Wood, Marjorie Knight, Vesta Milley, Virginia Conn, Hazel Moffat, Margaret Dement, Eunice Barrow, Mildred Gould, Dorothy Fish, Margaret Reed, Wilda Schroeder, Dorothy McCue, Alice Early and last but not least, Lucille McEniry, who was so anxious to get to the meeting that she climbed through the window. Guests for the evening were Gladys May, Lucille Walker, Maxine Johnson and Lucrene St. Clair.

Mrs. L. A. Greene was hostess to the Neighborhood Club Wednesday for one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon. Contract bridge was played, Mrs. Fred Jensen winning high score and Mrs. I. A. Larson, consolation. Members present were: Mesdames Fred Hudson, K. P. Lawrence, C. V. Carmichael, Fred Jensen, I. A. Larson, two guests, Mrs. E. M. Kay and Mrs. T. S. Stevens, and the hostess.

DANCING CLUB PARTY VERY SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

Members of the Coquille Dancing club enjoyed a most delightful and successful party in the I.O.O.F. hall last Saturday evening in the opening social event of the season. Over fifty couples were in attendance.

The host and hostess committee comprised Mr. and Mrs. George Ulett, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rackleff and Mr. and Mrs. Lefe Compton.

The committee in charge of arrangements included the following: R. A. Jeub, Dr. C. A. Rietman, Dr. J. D. Rankin, Harry Claterbos, Weldon Kline, D. E. Rackleff, Geo. A. Ulett, Lefe Compton, J. Arthur Berg and George R. Turney.

The evening was spent in dancing with many of the latest steps interspersing the usual formal dances. Refreshments were also provided by the committee. The next dance will be held on New Year's eve, according to the committee.

The Pioneer Missionary Society will hold a cooked food sale Saturday, Dec. 17, in Nosler's Grocery. There will be home-made fruit cakes, plum puddings, home-made candy, popcorn, etc.

Pioneer Missionary Society

An all-day meeting of the Pioneer Missionary society was held in Pioneer Hall Tuesday with a pot luck dinner at noon. The missionary book, "The American City and Its Church," by Samuel Kincheloe was studied by the ladies during the day. Those present were: Mesdames Leland Petersen, Jas. Richmond, Walter Nohrner, Miranda Way, Walter Oerding, Orville Newton, Clyde Minard, Ernest Purvance, W. A. Ireland, Bob Lawrence, Helen Alcorn, E. C. Finley, Birdie Skeels, H. L. Graybeal, C. C. Southard, Rosella Wilkins and Cyril McCurdy.

Between three and four hundred attended the lecture on China, given by Miss Helen Whitaker in the Pioneer Methodist Church Monday evening. The lecture was under the auspices of the B. & P. W. Club with Mrs. Martha Mulkey as chairman and Mrs. Chas. Stauff and Mrs. Marion Endicott, her able assistants. The evening started off with the singing of "America the Beautiful," led by Miss Anita Pageler and Miss Inez Rover at the piano. Miss Rover then played a pleasing piano solo, apropos to the talk of the evening.

Miss Whitaker, who has taught in the missionary schools of China for twelve years, gave a most interesting talk on the country and people of China, dwelling to some extent on the war and lack of preparation for the conflict, as Chinese people always have been a peaceful race. Miss Whitaker has enjoyed her work over there and expects to return after her year's furlough. She had many articles on display, such as kimonos, shawls, luncheon sets, slippers, dolls, etc., even a thumb ring used by the Chinese. After the lecture, Miss Whitaker talked informally, answering questions on the war, domestic conditions, etc.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church met December 1st at the home of Mrs. Anton Schroeder for its business and social meeting of the month. There were fourteen members and seven visitors present.

After the regular business meeting there was an exchange of Christmas gifts, after which lunch was served by the hostess. Those present were Mesdames Belle Elwood, Geo. Gray, Lizzy Oden, Sadie Jayes, Hattie Shelly, J. J. Bennett, Ella Nelson, Laura Edmonds, May Bates, Fern Schroeder, Mary Bullack, Blanche Broad, Lucy

Whitney, H. L. Johnson, Alice Hol-verstott, Eva McCue, Z. C. Strang, Westbrook, Nash and Mrs. James Falls, from Marshfield.

The Eagles Auxiliary met at the home of Ernest Battey for a twelve o'clock potluck luncheon. Following luncheon, the ladies sewed, chatted, etc. Present were: Mesdames John Wersh, Paul Bany, Pete Culbertson, Pat Haynes, Roy Wheeler, Lester Abbott, Lowell Hickenbottom, E. C. Yarbrough, E. A. Wimer, Wm. Gaffey, Earl Schroeder, Ralph Manning, Ed. Tuel, Austin Kyle, W. O. Terry and the hostess. The next meeting will be Jan. 5, at the home of Mrs. Austin Kyle.

Mrs. Alice Morris entertained the N. O. M. A. club Tuesday evening. Names were drawn for the annual Christmas party which will be held at the home of Mrs. Lorraine Perrott, Mrs. Bernice Ireland drew the door prize. The evening was spent in needlework and chat, followed by delicious refreshments. Present were: Mesdames Ruth Rey, Ruth Clayton, Yvonne Carl, Bernice Ireland, Laverne Ellingsen, Ferry De-Jarnett and the hostess.
