

Society and Clubs

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boober were hosts to a few friends for dinner Saturday evening. Contract bridge was played, Mrs. U. E. McClary winning high score and Mrs. E. D. McCune, the travelling prize. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thrift, Mr. and Mrs. U. E. McClary and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McCune.

Mrs. Leland Petersen entertained her Sunday school class Saturday afternoon at her home on the Bandon highway. The girls made Christmas tree decorations and had a social time. Light refreshments were served by Mrs. Petersen to the following: Margaret Ann Wilson, Kay Leslie, Maxine Wiggin, Dorothy Davidson, Patricia Thomas, Betty Preston, Marion Blalock, Beverly Lawrence, Jean Erwin, Clarissa Peart, Colleen Ireland and a visitor.

Friday evening, Mrs. M. D. Sheridan and Mrs. Esta Stewart tendered Mrs. Parker Leatherwood a surprise handkerchief shower at her home in honor of an approaching birthday and also as a going-away celebration. Mrs. Leatherwood is leaving soon for the east to visit her father who is 86 years old and whom she has not seen for 29 years. The invited guests, many of whom were Royal Neighbors, decided to turn the party into a "Galloping Tea," so they made their usual donations to "the cause." A social time was enjoyed, followed by delicious refreshments.

Present were: Mesdames Lottie Miller, J. W. McGuffin, C. E. Martin, Geo. Burr, R. M. Waggoner, Guy Torrey, W. C. Davidson, Jack Clouse, Maggie Leatherwood, Harry Ross, Ruby Johnson, Christine Barber, Clarence Summers, Grace Stone, Lloyd Gregg, Henry Belloni, the hostesses and guest of honor, Mrs. Parker Leatherwood.

The Loyal Women's Class of the Church of Christ met at the church Thursday for a potluck dinner at noon. The table was attractively decorated with Christmas trimmings and centered with two large birthday cakes in honor of four members who had birthdays during the last three months. Following dinner, a short business meeting was conducted by the president; scripture was taken from Romans, 5th chapter. Election of officers for 1934 resulted in the following being chosen: president, Mrs. Fred Schaer; vice president, Mrs. Lola Estey; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Harold McCue, and teacher, Mrs. C. C. Farr. The women being the losers in a contest with the men for class attendance the last three months, have to serve a banquet at the church Monday night. Following the business meeting, the ladies sewed on new drapes for the church.

Present were Mesdames M. O. Hooton, E. Randeman, Walter Newton, W. Davidson, W. H. Wimer, George Swinney, L. E. Alexander, Bus McCullough, Julian Gregory, John Widmark, V. L. Bailey, R. P. Hadsall, Cal Young, Arthur Towne, Lola Estey, C. Adrian Sias, Henry Cardwell, A. S. Bean, A. N. Foley, Harold McCue, A. N. Willey and Miss Jennie Lafferty.

Mrs. Leland Petersen was hostess to some friends for one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon Friday. The tables looked lovely in silver and red, carrying out the Yuletide motif. The refreshments also carried out the color scheme. The afternoon was spent in sewing and chatting. Guests included: Mesdames E. C. Ashworth, B. W. Dunn, Orville Newton, Elton Savage, J. D. Gillespie, Paul Simpson, Cyril McCurdy, Clyde Minard, J. J. Geaney, Geo. Taylor, Jr., Leland Peart, R. E. Boober, Bob Lawrence and W. V. Lindenman.

Last Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman were hosts at a seven o'clock dinner party. Following dinner, the guests enjoyed moving pictures interspersed with chatting. Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bryant and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ulett invited a few friends for dinner Monday evening at their home on the Myrtle Point highway. A social time was spent in chatting, etc. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rubie, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Stevens and the hosts.

Mrs. Frank Pook was hostess to the "Laf-a-lot club" last Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in needlework and chat after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Present were: Mesdames W. E. Cross, John Martin, E. A. Wimer, O. K. Rakestraw, Geo. Gilman, Millie Waters, J. W. Rubie, Ed. Detlefsen and the hostess.

Mrs. W. E. Bosserman was hostess to the "Ecadriens" for one o'clock luncheon Monday. Following a delicious repast the ladies sewed, knitted and chatted. Members present were: Mesdames J. L. Aasen, Geo. Johnson, F. A. Robb, J. E. Axtell, E. M. Kay, Earl Nosler and two guests, Mrs. Marvin Hopkins, nee Zelma Bosserman, and her mother-in-law from Tacoma, Wash.

Mrs. M. O. Hawkins was hostess to the Justamere club ladies for one o'clock luncheon Thursday at her home on Spurgeon Hill. Following a delicious luncheon, the afternoon was spent in sewing and chatting. Present were: Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, H. A. Young, J. A. Lamb, F. L. Greenough, L. H. Hazard, Hal Pierce, E. E. Johnson, E. A. Wernich, A. J. Sherwood, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith, two guests, Mrs. Lloyd Rosa and Mrs. V. A. Dimmick. The ladies will meet Tuesday, December 20, for a no-host luncheon at the hotel with the Christmas party following at the home of Mrs. Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Spangler were hosts at a six-thirty o'clock dinner party Friday evening. Following dinner a social time was enjoyed. Present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Don Carver, Harry Todd, Albert Holstead, A. Shepherd, Nelson Anderson, Mrs. Roy Wheeler, Mrs. John Dunstan, of Medford, and the hosts.

Saturday evening a six-thirty o'clock pot luck dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McElhaney. Pinochle followed with Miss Janet Lewis winning high score and Roy Wheeler receiving consolation. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lewis and Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hurlburt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wheeler, Mrs. Florence Dunbar, of Coburg, Oregon, Mrs. Clara Wheeler, Messrs. Irwin Murray, Claire Wade, Willie Adkins and the hosts.

Mrs. George Johnson was hostess to her bridge club Thursday for one o'clock luncheon. The table and rooms were beautifully decorated with Christmas decorations and attractive poinsettias were arranged about the rooms. Contract bridge was played with Mrs. Richard Arnold, of Myrtle Point, winning high score and Mrs. C. T. Selbig receiving consolation. The members held their annual Christmas exchange at this time as Mrs. Selbig is leaving for Long Beach, California, with her husband to spend the holidays with his mother. The ladies were delighted to have one of their former members, Mrs. Theodore Clinton, with them to enjoy the Yuletide get-together. Others present were: Mesdames John Arnold, Richard Arnold, John Belloni and L. J. Maloney, of Myrtle Point and Mesdames Joe Knight, C. T. Selbig, C. P. Zumwalt and the hostess, of Coquille.

Thursday, Mrs. Cyril McCurdy was hostess to the K. Y. N. club for their annual Christmas party and exchange of gifts. A social time followed the appearance of "Santa." Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following ladies: Mesdames J. J. Geaney, Verrill McCurdy, Edith McCurdy, Sam Sturgeon, Bob Kramer, Kate Watson, Beatie Hall, Guy Kelley, Elmer Neeley, Will Myers, J. B. Dawson, Inez Pinkston, Roy Pettengill and the following children, Bobby, Patty and Johnnie Geaney, Ronald Kelley, Sandra and Jimmy McCurdy. The club will meet next with Mrs. Kramer.

About 190 enjoyed the annual turkey feed prepared by the Masons last Thursday at six-thirty o'clock sharp. The long tables were filled with good things to eat and the men proved to be exceptionally fine waiters.

Following dinner in the banquet hall, the regular meeting of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, was held upstairs, with a splendid attendance. It being election night, the following were elected: worthy matron, Florence Sanford; worthy patron, O. C. Sanford; associate matron, Maxine Jeub; associate patron, Ray Jeub; conductress, Gladys Gano; associate conductress, Gertrude Ulett; secretary, Emma Pierce; treasurer, Susie Folsom. Miss Bess Maury, worthy matron, was presented with a lovely bouquet in which nestled a past matron's pin, by Mr. Sanford in behalf of the members. An excellent degree by the officers preceded the presentation.

Thursday evening, January 5, the new officers will be installed.

Mrs. Roy Wheeler was hostess to her pinochle club Tuesday afternoon. The house was attractively decorated with Yuletide trimmings, a tree 'n' everything. The members also had a Christmas exchange. Pinochle followed, Mrs. Ruth Foss winning high score and Mrs. Dorothy Beyer, consolation. Attractive refreshments and a novel candy candle were served on individual traps by the hostess. Present were: Mesdames J. F. McLarrin, Ruth Foss, Dorothy Beyer, Leslie McElhaney, Albert Wells, Edward Tuel, Lester Abbott, Ernest Battey, John Wersh, A. O. Culbertson, Don Carver and the hostess.
