Novel Uses for Xmas Cranberries

Eat your cranberries and have them too by following the old-fashioned custom of using the bright winter-time fruit for Christmas decorations. In the sketch shown above, the modern design of the little silver tree makes a unique background for the string of bright colored berries wound round and round it. Cranberries are also used with chunks of orange and marshmallows as a garnish around the turkey, while the silver sauce boat contains the traditional 10-minute cranberry sauce, an indispensable part of the American holiday dinner since earliest Puritan days.

The tree of silver cardboard is not too complicated for the older children to fashion, while the littlest tots will squeal with pleasure if allowed to string the bright colored berries into a long chain. A good stout thread with a not-too-thick needle will keep the youngsters occupied for an entire afternoon and provide a novel touch to the table decorations.

The tangy taste of Cranberry Juice Cocktail will sharpen the before-dinner appetite while its rich red color will further enhance the festive feeling of the day. Mock Strawberry Pie, Cranberry Muffins, Cranberry Cookies—all add extra zest which makes the holiday meals so memorable.

MOCK STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE
 1 cup chopped Cranberries
 1 cup chopped tart apple
 1 cup crushed pineapple
 1 cup sugar
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup cream, whipped
 Baking Powder biscuits or Sponge Cake Layers

Combine cranberries, apple, pineapple, sugar and salt and let stand for 2-3 hours. Arrange shortcake fashion on hot biscuits or sponge cake layers. Top with whipped cream.

Mock Strawberry Pie—Bake above mixture in double crust pie.

CRANBERRY MUFFINS
 1 cup Cranberries
 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 cup flour
 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 egg
 1/2 cup milk
 1/2 tablespoon melted butter

Chop cranberries and sprinkle with half the sugar. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and remaining sugar together. Beat egg slightly, combine with milk and melted butter and add to dry ingredients. Stir only until blended. Then fold in cranberries. Transfer to buttered muffin pans and bake in hot oven, 425°F., about 25 minutes. Make 12 medium sized muffins.

CRANBERRY COOKIES
 1/2 cup shortening
 1/2 cup sugar
 1 egg, well beaten
 2 cups flour
 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 1 cup ten-minute Cranberry Sauce, drained of juice

Cream shortening and sugar together, add egg, dry ingredients, and vanilla. Chill dough. Roll out very thin, shape with round cutter. Place 1 tablespoon Cranberry Sauce on half the rounds, top with remaining rounds with centers removed. Bake in moderate oven, 375°F., 10-15 minutes.

CRANBERRY JUICE COCKTAIL
 1 pound (4 cups) Cranberries
 4 cups water
 1/2 cup sugar

Cook cranberries and water until all the skins pop open. Strain through cheesecloth. Heat, add sugar and boil for 2 minutes. Chill before serving. Lemon, orange, grapefruit or pineapple juice, ginger ale or other beverages combine well with this cocktail.
