Little Business Before Council

The city council held a short session Monday evening with Mayor Rankin, Councilmen Cunningham, Harrington, Seely and Wood present. The repair of the sidewalk in front of the Ira Johnson place on Spurgeon Hill, which he claims was damaged when a water line was repaired, was referred to the street committee and water superintendent for a decision as to whom should repair it.

The only other business transacted was the approval of applications for liquor licenses—class B and retail beer, for which each of the five paid the city a $10 fee—S. H. Donsted's, Pastime, Allen & Lewis', Rex Tavern, W. H. Fortier's Bill's Place, C. L. Elkin's Place and Samuel E. Howell and Wm. O. Morris who purchased the Rainbow from Frank Cowan. A card room license was also issued to Mr. Elkins.
