

(Society Continued)

A shower was tendered Mrs. Loren Salisbury Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Towne, with Mrs. C. C. Farr and Mrs. Henry Cardwell as joint hostesses with Mrs. Towne. The afternoon was spent in needlework and chat; after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses to the following ladies: Mesdames A. N. Foley, Berlyn Billings, Geo. Chapman, A. N. Willey, V. L. Bailey, Herbert Souder, John Sullivan, Mabel Camp, Mrs. Towne, Sr., and the guest of honor.

A Christmas party and exchange was held at the home of Mrs. T. K. Foss Monday afternoon for the newly organized group of Camp Fire Girls. Games were played, followed by the exchange of gifts. Each girl also brought an extra gift for needy children. Those were sent to the American Legion to be distributed. Miss Paulsen, assistant Guardian, helped Mrs. Foss with refreshments. Girls present were: Marybelle Yarbrough, Joanne Knight, Betty Emery, Marilyn Sage, Margaret Ann Wilson, Martha and Patricia Berg, Diana Powers, Kay Leslie, Doris Ann Wood, Beverly Lawrence and Harriet Tozier.

Mrs. Paul Trojel was hostess to her evening bridge club Tuesday night. The house was attractively decorated with a lovely Christmas tree and candles. The members had their exchange of gifts and then played contract bridge. Mrs. Julius Rubie won high score and Mrs. O. T. Gant, second. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour. Present were: Mesdames O. T. Gant, E. A. Walker, J. E. Axtell, Julius Rubie, Kenneth Kistner, D. B. Estes, Walter Litzenberger, a guest, Mrs. Ray Vaughan, and the hostess.

Mrs. Geo. Holbrook entertained the "Neighborhood Club" Tuesday evening with a lovely Christmas party. The rooms looked most attractive with holly and Yuletide decorations while a large tree laden with gifts for the annual exchange was resplendent in the corner. Following the exchange of gifts, contract bridge was played. Mrs. Fred Hudson won high score and Mrs. Fred Jensen, low. Delicious refreshments in keeping with Christmas were served at tables centered with holly, while favors were at each plate. Present were: Mesdames K. P. Lawrence, Fred Jensen, C. V. Carmichael, Fred Hudson, George Johnson, L. A. Greene, I. A. Larson and the hostess.

Monday evening, Mrs. Effie Miller entertained her evening bridge club for seven o'clock dinner at the home of Mrs. Hal Pierce on Knowlton Heights. Christmas decorations and a large tree formed an attractive setting. This was also a farewell party for Mrs. Ula Leach, who used to belong to the club but who is leaving soon to make her home in Los Angeles. She was presented with a lovely gift. After the exchange of presents contract bridge was played. Mrs. Hal Pierce received the traveling prize. Present were: Mesdames Ed. Lorenz, Muri Pettit, J. A. Lamb, Edna Hartson, Bert Folsom, H. A. Young, J. L. Smith, Hal Pierce, Ula Leach and the hostess.

A group of high school students were entertained with a party at the C. C. Farr home Friday evening, with Mrs. Farr and Mrs. E. E. Noster as hostesses. Christmas decorations and a tree made a very attractive setting. There were games, contests and singing during the evening. Prizes were won by: Charles Mulkey, Howard Taylor, Raymond Rowland and Patricia Noster. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served by the hostesses on individual trays which were decorated with tiny Christmas trees as favors. Guests included Emma Frances and Charles Mulkey, Bill Yarbrough, Raymond Rowland, Bud Miller, Donald and Leonard Farr, Bill Dimmick, Howard Taylor, Dorothy and Marjorie Hardenbrook, Jerry Holcomb, Patricia Noster, Beth Hooton and Marvin Myers.

The Justamere club ladies met for a one o'clock no-host luncheon at the hotel Wednesday. Following luncheon the ladies went to the home of Mrs. Hal Pierce, where they enjoyed their Christmas party and exchange of gifts. Present were: Mesdames J. A. Lamb, M. O. Hawkins, C. J. Fuhrnan, Bert Folsom, W. S. Sickels, H. A. Young, O. C. Sanford, J. L. Smith, F. L. Greenough, R. A. Wernich and the hostess.

Last week Mrs. Fay Waggoner gave a surprise party and shower for Mrs. Evelyn Elliott. After the opening of the large array of gifts, the ladies played bridge. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour. Present were: Mesdames Dorothy Fish, Mary Stevens, Margarita Brodie, Bernice Ireland, Lorraine Perrott, Maxine Stevens, Misses LaVerne Knife, Dolores Belloni, Carol Young, Geneva Agostino, the guest of honor and the hostess.

The N. O. M. A. club held its Christmas and exchange party at the home of Mrs. Lorraine Perrott Tuesday evening. The rooms looked lovely with Yuletide decorations and a large tree. After the Christmas exchange, a social time was enjoyed, followed by delicious refreshments. Present were: Mesdames LaVerne Ellingsen,

Alice Morris and Ronnie, Lucille Ellison, Elynor Miller, Maxine Stevens, Ruth Clayton, Ferry DeJarnett, Yvonne Carl, Ruth Dey, Bernice Ireland, Frances Detlefsen; three guests, Mesdames Mary Stevens, Fay Waggoner and Mary Morris. The club members plan to give away Christmas baskets.
