

Junior Woman's Club Christmas Party

Sixty-one members and guests attended the Junior Woman's Club Christmas party held in Pioneer Hall Monday evening, starting off with a delicious Christmas plum pudding and coffee served at eight o'clock. The tables were beautifully decorated with red crepe paper and red candles while unique Christmas corsages were at each plate. The hall was also resplendent in Yuletide trimmings with a large Christmas tree in the corner. A contest of three-minute after dinner speeches was held, Miss Alice Early winning the prize. At the advertising game, Mrs. Dorothy McCue was the winner. In the song contest, Miss Virginia Conn and Mrs. Lucille McEniry were prize winners and Mrs. Alice George won in the guessing game. In the baby contest, Mrs. Grace Hughes won first prize, with several others winning prizes also.

Following the games and contests, Santa Claus and his reindeer put in an appearance with gifts for all. The attractive year books were given to the club members by the president, Mrs. Hornecker.

Members present for this joyous occasion were: Misses Betty Axtell, Aloha Allen, Margaret Belloni, Alice Early, Grace Ellingsen, Irene Harris, LaVerne Knife, Marjorie Knight, Vesta Miley, Blanche and Irene Sandon, Carol Young, Mesdames Eunice Barrow, Florence Berg, Alberta Brandon, Emma Briggs, Myrtle Clausen, Juanita Clabaugh, Margaret Dement, Margaret Denison, Ruth Dey, Evelyn Elliott, Dorothy Fish, Marjorie Fuller, Mildred Gould, Genevieve Grant, Estelle Harbison, Arlene Harrison, Mildred Hornecker, Grace Hughes, Bernice Ireland, Eleanor McClellan, Madeline MacKnight, Dorothy McCue, Lucille McEniry, Helga Matthews, Wilda Schroeder, Mary Stevens, Maxine Stevens, Geraldine Thornton, Mabel Tucker, Marie Wagner, Virginia Wood, Faye Waggoner, and guests: Rosalie Church, Becky Morgan, Laura Louise Garrett, Hazel Foss, Ruth Clayton, Dorothy Harris, Fay June Nostler, Alice Jordan, Alice George, Maxine and Georgianna Johnson, Lu-rene St. Clair, Barbara Oederkirk, Hazel Moffet, Jean McNeely, Pat Mintonye and Virginia Conn.

The Lincoln club held its Christmas party and exchange at the home of Mrs. W. H. Schroeder Monday afternoon. The house was decorated with greens and a large Christmas tree. After Santa's appearance, a social time was enjoyed with refreshments. Present were: Mesdames Margaret McLeod, Clara Wheeler, Flora Dunne, J. M. Doering, H. A. McCue, J. W. McGuffin, A. S. Bean, A. N. Foley, Bertha McDuffee and the hostess.

Christmas Bells rang merrily Thursday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Gray when a host of friends and neighbors gathered to spend the evening and wish them a merry Christmas. A social house was spent in conversation, after which Mr. and Mrs. Gray unwrapped their very lovely and useful Christmas gifts, which were displayed and admired. Light refreshments were then served by the self-invited guests. Rev. Mr. Gray then made a few brief remarks, which included a short but vital gospel message. Rev. H. A. Minter offered prayer and then the guests departed to their various homes. Those present were: Messdames and Mesdames C. R. Bloyd, Lloyd Shepherd, H. A. Minter, F. A. Christiansen, Mesdames V. R. Wilson, H. L. Johnson, J. C. Strang, Emma Westbrook, John Bullock, Hattie Shelley, Mary E. Mr. and Mrs. Gray.

BEATRICE SANDERS AND VERN ODERKIRK MARRIED

Vern Oederkirk, Jr., and Miss Beatrice Sanders, both of this city, were married in Vancouver, Wash., last Saturday evening. A slight hitch in their plans was overcome when the groom's sister, Mrs. Ted Bergmann, came to their rescue. Both young people are of an age which requires their parents' consent. They had this but it had not been sworn to before a notary as required by law. The license clerk at Vancouver, however, was willing to accept the statement when Robelle swore that the signatures were those of the parents.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Sanders and was a graduate of Coquille High last May. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Oederkirk and graduated from C. H. S. in 1937. He is employed at the Smith Wood-Products plant.

The young people expect to return home Saturday.

"Drums" Filmed in Color in Dangerous Khyber Pass

Korda Film Unit Was First To Invaade Famous Gateway To India

Hollywood boasts of its good fortune in being situated a stone's throw from a variety of locations that lend themselves admirably to doubling for the Sahara Desert, the snow-capped Alps, the South Sea Islands or a simple stretch of English countryside.

But the breath-taking natural color shots of the Kyber Pass, the historic gateway to the plains of India, which will thrill pic-turegoers at the Roxy Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Alexander Korda's "Drums," could have been obtained in only one place in all the world. And that place was the treacherous Khyber Pass itself.

Realizing this, Korda dispatched a unit to India by air to get authentic films of tribal life and fighting beyond the Northwest Frontier. This marked the first time a camera had ever penetrated this remote country, which even army officers are forbidden to visit except on regimental duty.

ELECTRIC SINK

Washes the Dishes—Disposes of Garbage—ELECTRICALLY!

Listen, Mr. Santa Claus: Why not win Mother's lasting appreciation this Christmas by giving her a complete G-E Electric Sink—that washes the dishes and disposes of garbage electrically. It's a practical gift that carries with it the freedom from the two most hated tasks in the kitchen.

Banishes the Garbage Can
Food wastes—table scraps, parings, bones, etc.—go down the drain into the Disposall unit of the Sink where they are quickly reduced to a pulp and flushed away like waste water. No fuss, no muss, no odors. The Disposall even cleans itself!

Quicker, easier and better than it can be done by hand—and the operating cost is only about a penny a day!

Ends Dishwashing Drudgery
The Dishwasher section of the G-E Electric Sink does the entire dishwashing job much more quickly than the old-fashioned way.

Readily installed in Old or New Kitchens! Easy Budget Payments! Come in and See a Demonstration!
