A Pretty Wedding Tuesday Evening

The marriage of Miss June Hickam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hickam to Mr. Robert Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Bailey, was solemnized at a lovely eight o'clock candlelight ceremony in the Church of Christ Tuesday evening, C. Adrian Sias officiating. The church looked attractive with a setting of Christmas decorations while the platform was decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums, ferns and standards containing white tapers.

Mrs. Maud Woodyard sang "Because" by Guy D. Hardelot and "Morning" by Speaks, before the ceremony. She was accompanied by Miss Louise Woodyard. Mrs. C. Adrian Sias played Lohengrin's wedding march.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin wedding gown, floor length and her white net wedding veil was caught about the head with white gardenias. She carried a bouquet of white lilies and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Elda Ogstrander, as matron of honor, who wore salmon pink taffeta and carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Other attendants were her sister, Priscilla Hickam, as maid of honor, who wore a wine moire taffeta gown; her cousin, Wanda Lee Hickam as bridesmaid, wearing royal blue taffeta, and Helen Lower, another bridesmaid, wearing copenhagen blue taffeta. All of the attendants carried nosegays of mixed flowers. Little Colleen Ostrander, niece of the bride, dressed in a wild rose taffeta frock, acted as flower girl.

Mr. Alan Bailey, brother of the groom, acted as best man and ushers were: Donald Bailey brother of the groom; Howard Hickam, cousin of the bride; Charles Rowell and Donald Farr.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents to about thirty friends. Mrs. Bailey was assisted by Mrs. John Hickam and Miss Priscilla Hickam.

After a short wedding trip, the happy couple will be at home at the Sanford Apts. on Sixth street.

The bride and groom have been residents of Coquille for many years, were both graduated from the Coquille high school and have a host of friends who wish them well. The groom is building superintendent at the Lincoln school.

Mrs. Erma Byington and sons, Wayne and Glenn, of Philomath, Oregon, mother and brothers of Mrs. Paul Simpson, arrived Christmas eve to spend the week-end at the Simpson home. They left Tuesday morning.
