

Society and Clubs

The Past Noble Grands club met at the home of Mrs. Jennie Price on Knowlton Heights Friday evening. A short business meeting was held, presided over by the new president, Mrs. Hester Holverstott. Several games were played with much enjoyment. Mrs. Inez Chase winning one prize. At a late hour, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Present were: Mesdames Inez Chase, Fred Schaefer, Flora Dunne, Estelle Dunn, E. M. Kay, H. S. Norton, E. L. Benham, Harry Ross, C. V. Carmichael, Mary Bates, Miss Ida Oerding and the hostesses.

Last week, a few of the Royal Neighbors held another "Galloping Tea" at the home of Mrs. Frank Willard. Those attending were: Mesdames J. W. McGuffin, Laura Brandon, Belle Elwood and Lizzie Oden.

Miss Georgianna Johnson was hostess to the Omic Club for seven-thirty o'clock dessert bridge Thursday evening. Bridge was played: Mrs. Lloyd Wood winning high score and Miss Betty Axtell, low. Present were: Misses Lurene St. Clair, Jean McNelly, Aloha Allen, Betty Axtell, Margaret Belloni, Mrs. Lloyd Wood, Mrs. Monroe Swindall and the hostess.

The Justamere club ladies met at the hotel for one o'clock luncheon Thursday and later went to the home of Mrs. F. L. Greenough, where the afternoon was spent in sewing, knitting and chatting. Present were: Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, H. A. Young, Hal Pierce, E. E. Johnson, R. A. Wernich, A. J. Sherwood, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith and the hostess.

A Galloping Tea was held at the home of Mrs. Ruby Tuel on the Myrtle Point highway Friday afternoon.

Present were: Mesdames Guy Barber, Ernie Johnson, Harry Varney and daughter, Carl Ensele and M. D. Sherard.

A large group attended the fourth open house at the Coquille Valley Country Club Friday afternoon. Mrs. Geo. Ulett, of Coquille, and Mrs. Tom Dement, of Myrtle Point, had charge of arrangements. There were six golfers: Mrs. Eugenia Dement won low score and Mrs. Corinne Baxter, next. Twelve tables of bridge were in play; winning scores were won by Mesdames Julius Ruble, Wm. Hicking, Rose Garrett, E. E. Leslie, W. E. Bosserman, F. S. Emery, Victor Dimmick, Kaufman, Lufe Compton and H. S. Norton. The ladies on the committee played Chinese Checkers. Present from Coquille besides the prize winners were: Mesdames Bert Folsom, M. Earl Wilson, J. Grebel, Ethel Littler, G. E. Stark, P. W. Culver, J. E. Axtell, R. F. Milne, Frank Thrift, J. S. Barton, T. B. Currie, Hal Pierce, U. E. McClary, F. L. Greenough, R. A. Wernich, R. L. Stewart, H. L. Clatterbos, D. E. Rackleff, C. M. Gray, Mary McKeown. The Coquille committee, besides Mrs. Ulett were: Mrs. Ted Hornecker, Mrs. J. R. Bunch, Mrs. J. A. Berg and Mrs. Geo. Oerding. The Myrtle Point committee included: Mesdames Grace Dement, Mabel Laird, Lillian Bowers, Leta Arnold and Eugenia Dement. The next open house will be Friday, Feb. 3, with Mrs. Ted Hornecker, of Coquille, and Mrs. Eugenia Dement, of Myrtle Point, in charge of arrangements.

Friday evening, joint installation of Mamie Rebekah Lodge, No. 20, and Coquille Lodge, No. 53, will be held in the I.O.O.F. hall. Members and friends are invited to attend. A social time and dancing will follow.

Honoring Mrs. Walter Sproul, who is leaving Coquille to make her home in Linnton, Ore., Mrs. Charles Porter entertained with a lovely one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon Friday. The tables looked very attractive with hand-made luncheon cloths, the color scheme being yellow, which was carried out in the nut cups, and other decorations. Bridge and Chevy Chase checkers were played. Present were: Mrs. Fred Grant, Mrs. Frank Martin, Mrs. M. M. Newdall, Mrs. Orville Hughes, Mrs. Wm. MacKnight, the guest of honor, Mrs. Sproul, and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boober were hosts to their bridge club Saturday evening. The members started a new venture: the ladies challenging the men, the losers to furnish the eats for the winners at the end of the series. E. D. McCune won high score for the evening. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McCune and the hosts.

A potluck luncheon was enjoyed by the ladies of the M. E. church Thursday in the basement of the church. After a social half hour, the committee, comprised of Mrs. Estelle Dunn, Mrs. Ella Nelson and Mrs. Laura Edmonds, served the luncheon. Following the meal, a short business meeting was held, presided over by the president, Mrs. Edwood. She read a very touching story, also a tract dealing with the substitution of worldly amusements in place of the old-fashioned gospel as a means of interesting people in church.

Members and visitors present were: Mesdames Belle Elwood, G. A. Gray, Lizzie Oden, May Bates, Laura Edmonds, Ella Nelson, Sadie Jayes, Estelle Dunn, Leona Dow, Fern Schroeder, Mary Bullack, Blanche Broad, H. L. Johnson, Alice Holverstott, Mary Cary, Emma Westbrook, Blanche Davis, Frank Schram, Harold McCue, and Miss Edna Bates. Several gentlemen also enjoyed the luncheon.

The missionary circle of the Assembly of God church met at the home of Mrs. V. R. Wilson Wednesday, Jan. 4. There were 21 members and visitors present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. H. L. Johnson. Following the routine of business, Mrs. Ethel McAllister, the visiting evangelist's wife, gave a very inspirational talk on soul winning, taking as her text, Proverbs 11:20, "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise" also Genesis 18:22: "But Abraham stood yet before the Lord." Mrs. Newton was in charge of the program and gave two very interesting articles.

Lunch was served at the close of the meeting to the following: Mesdames Ethel McAllister, of Canada, Lydia Lindsey and Beckett, of Port Orford; H. L. Johnson, Martha Denzer, Theresa English, Bessie Marney, Elizabeth Van Fleet, Ada Howard, Fern Schroeder, Newton, R. D. E. Smith, Frances Holmstrom, Steward, Fish, V. R. Wilson, Misses Margaret Steward, Violet Howard, Dorothy Jeffries, Dorothy Caudle, and Aileen Wilson.

Mrs. Carl Dement was hostess to the Octette club for one-thirty o'clock luncheon Friday. Following luncheon, contract bridge was played. Mrs. Fred Jensen won high score and Mrs. Belmont Ireland, low. Present were: Mesdames I. A. Larson, Ray Detlefsen, S. A. Morris, Lewis Wiltshire, Earl Tichenor, Belmont Ireland, Fred Jensen and the hostess.

Mrs. O. E. Mattoon, of Myrtle Point, formerly of Coquille, entertained with a six-thirty o'clock dinner Friday evening. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schroeder, Mrs. Roy Wheeler and Irwin Murray, of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Royer, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Daniels, of Myrtle Point.

Of much interest to friends in Coquille and vicinity is news of the engagement of Miss Grace Ellingsen, daughter of Mrs. Pearl Ellingsen, to Mr. Tallant Greenough, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Greenough. The news was made known at a lovely dessert bridge given by Miss Ellingsen Friday evening by means of clever match folders with a "flash" of the announcement which were presented the guests by Mrs. Ellingsen.

The room was attractively decorated with greens and candles, while individual tables were centered with lighted cream candles bound by a nosegay of yellow flowers and tied with gold ribbon. Miss Ellingsen was assisted in serving by Miss Harriet Webb and Miss Vesta Miley. Following refreshments, the guests played contract bridge and Chinese checkers. Mrs. Wm. Barrow won high at contract and Miss Harriet Webb at checkers. Singing by the group concluded a happy evening.

Invited guests included Misses Carol Young, Vesta Miley, La Verne Knife, Virginia Conn, Hazel Moffet, Gertrude Mehl, Inez Rover, Harriet Webb, Elda Gilman, Julia Bennett, Marjorie Knight, Mesdames Marjorie Fuller, Lucille Nelson, T. T. Denison, Eric Tucker, Wm. Barrow, Henry McCue, Eugene Reed, Marlin Brandon and Ted Hornecker.

Both Miss Ellingsen and Mr. Greenough attended the Coquille grade schools and high school, Miss Ellingsen going on to Oregon Normal, where she was an outstanding student and active in its affairs. She has been teaching in the grade school for five years, is a member of the Junior Woman's Club and has assisted with the May day dance of the Senior Woman's Club for some time.

Mr. Greenough graduated from Oregon University and Oregon Law School, belonging to Phi Delta Theta and Phi Alpha Delta, a legal fraternity, also Sigma-Delta Psi athletic fraternity. He plans to practice law in Coquille.

No date has been set for the wedding.

There was a large crowd at the installation of the Royal Neighbors last Tuesday evening when the following officers were installed by the district deputy, Mrs. Ann Montgomery, of Marshfield, assisted by Mrs. Henry Belloni: oracle, Ida Sherrard; vice oracle, Ruby Johnson; recorder, Mae Waggoner; receiver, Ethel Leach; chancellor, Myrtle Jones; marshal, Elizabeth Bull; assistant marshal, Georgia Stephenson; inner sentinel, Nora Thorp; outer sentinel, Mollie; Wersh; past oracle, Katherine Varney; musician, Mae Ensele; manager, Lottie Miller; Faith, Jane Torrey; Modesty, Ruby Tuel; Unselfishness, Lottie Miller; Endurance, Minnie McCarthy; Courage, Jane Burch; flag bearer, Christina Barber; drill captain, Aurora Willard.

Mrs. Nellie Martindale was initiated into the order. The Royal Neighbors participated with other organizations in providing Christmas baskets for the needy. Following the meeting, the members adjourned to the Canary Cafe where delicious refreshments were served. The table was attractively decorated in purple and white with a large birthday cake in the center, Mrs. Towne, the manager, sharing natal honors with the lodge.

Pioneer Missionary Society

The Pioneer Missionary Society held its monthly meeting in the church parlors Thursday afternoon. Devotions were led by Mrs. Louis Fugelson. The business session followed, conducted by the president, Mrs. Jas. Richmond. The following ladies were appointed to serve at the silver tea, January 19: Mesdames Heleap Alcorn, Jennie Adams, Ernest Adamson, Henry Belloni and B. W. Dunn. Mrs. Ida Smith was appointed program chairman. Reports of the various committees were given. It was decided to hold a cooked food sale once a month to raise money. Articles on missionary work in China and Nashville, Tenn., were read by Mrs. Alcorn and Mrs. Oddy. Captains were appointed for a two months' contest on "Filling the pig," namely, Mrs. O. B. Harriman and Mrs. Ernest Adamson.

Following the business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed with light refreshments served by Mesdames Le-land Peart, Helen Alcorn, Elton Savage and Cyril McCurdy. Others present were: Mesdames Miranda Way, Ida Smith, Earl Carlisle, Clyde Minard, Lundy Peart, Ernest Purvance, Louis Fugelson, Esta Ellis, Birdie Skeels, Jas.
