High School Senior Girls Are Honored

The annual reception tendered the High School senior girls by the B. & P. W. club was held Monday evening in the Pioneer church parlors, which were beautifully decorated with potted azalia and pussy willows. The program was in charge of the finance and music committees with Miss Catherine Barker and Mrs. Georgia Richmond as chairman. The program started with an address of welcome by Mrs. Ruth Beyers, the senior class adviser. She also led the group singing with Miss Inez Rover at the piano. Two delightful piano solos followed, played by Miss Rover, entitled, "Selections from Il Trovatore and Taranella." Miss Ruth Towne sang two lovely solos, "Is It the Golden Key" by Carrie Jacobs Bond and "When C. V. Carmichael, consolation. Members present were: Mesdames Fred Hudson, Geo. Johnson, Geo. Holbrook, L. A. Greene, I. A. Larson, C. V. Carmichael, a guest, Mrs. Stanley Ayers, and the hostess.

Mrs. H. L. Clasterbos was hostess to a few friends for one o'clock potluck luncheon Tuesday. The table looked lovely with a Quaker lace cloth and centerpiece of early spring flowers, featuring yellow, flanked by matching tapers. Contract was played, Mrs. Paul Trojel winning high score and Mrs. Weldon Kline, second. Present were: Mesdames A. A. Hall, J. D. Rankin, R. E. Boober, M. Earl Wilson, Geo. Jenkins, Paul Trojel, C. W. Kline and the hostess.

County W.C.T.U. Holds Institute

The W. C. T. U. County Institute was held in the Bandon Methodist church Tuesday for an all-day session. The noon luncheon was under the auspices of four girls of the Youth Temperance Council, Miss Dorothy Leuthold, president. The council gave a fine report at the business meeting and said there were 30 in attendance at their last meeting. Devotions were led by Miss Mary Ayers, of the Baptist church, her subject being, "Service." Miss Virgil Olsen gave a splendid address on "Building Christian Citizenship through Youth." A round table discussion was conducted dealing with scientific temperance instruction, the organization of new groups and sponsoring of material for libraries in this connection. Mrs. Wm. Phillips, of Marshfield, gave a tribute to Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens. A review of the 1939 devotional book, "Precious Jewels," was given by Mrs. Alice Holverstott, of Coquille.

At the June Institute, which will be held in Coquille, Mrs. A. M. Peterson, of North Bend, who is chairman of the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, plans a miscellaneous shower for the new cottage which is being built out there. The next institute will be held at Coos Bay the first week in March. Those driving to Bandon from Coquille were Mesdames Harold McCue, John Widmark, Alice Holverstott, Henry Cardwell, C. C. Farr and Geo. Chapman.
