Junior Women's Hobby Show

The Junior Woman's Club meeting was held Monday evening in Pioneer Hall, with 34 members present. After group singing led by Mrs. John Clabaugh, a short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mildred Hornecker.

The Valentine party, scheduled for February 13, was discussed and committees appointed and the club voted a donation to the scholarship fund. Miss Rose Naef, parliamentarian, gave a drill on parliamentary procedure, after which the meeting was turned over to Alberta Brandon, program chairman.

"Lobbying for your hobby," might well be termed the program title, as each member brought her hobby and gave a short talk. Very unusual and unique hobbies were on display. Maybelle Robinson gave an interesting talk on a university tour which took her and her husband through 36 of the United States and several provinces of Canada. Many amusing incidents were related and were heartily enjoyed by all the girls. Maybelle's hobby is scrapbooks, which she has kept since her grade school days. Of her 42 scrapbooks in all, she had ten on display.

Other hobbies included a display of 24 cups and saucers by Alberta Brandon, small glasses belonging to Carol Young, soap carvings of Betty Axtell's, an interesting collection of old coins belonging to Helga Mathews, hand paintings and drawings by Bernice Ireland, needlework and a beautiful crocheted bedspread of Arlene Harrison's, old pieces of china and glassware by Mildred Hornecker, original needlework by Irene Sandon, wood blocking prints which belonged to Grace Ellingsen, who explained the way they were done.

Perhaps the largest hobby collection on exhibit was that of La Verne Knife—a tableful of dogs. Also on display was the jewel collection belonging to Mrs. Orville Newton, which attracted much attention.

Refreshments were served by Estelle Harbison, Arlene Harrison and Margaret Dement to the following members and guests: Mildred Hornecker, Irene Sandon, Margaret Dement, Juanita Clabaugh, Grace Hughes, Genevieve Grant, Emma Briggs, Alice Early, Blanche Sandon, Marjorie Fuller, Lucille Nelson, Maybelle Dey, Rose Naef, Bernice Ireland, Eleanor McClellan, Lucille McEniry, Margaret Denison, Hazel Foss, Margaret Belloni, Aloha Allen, Grace Ellingsen, Dorothy McCue, Mabel Tucker, Eunice Barrow, Alberta Brandon, Arlene Harrison, Estelle Harbison, Maxine Stevens, Faye Waggoner, Mary Stevens, Evelyn Elliott, LaVerne Knife, Carol Young, Marjorie Knight and Mrs. J. Arthur Berg.
