

"Buck" Benny Rides In New Film Comedy

"Buck" Benny rides again! — America's undisputed peer of comedy, Jack Benny, returns to the screen, after almost a year's absence, in a new kind of screen musical comedy and the most lavish production of his career. It is "Artists and Models, Abroad," which Paramount will present to local fans beginning Thursday at the Roxy Theatre.

Coos' Unemployed Receive 9.3 Per Cent Of State Total in Jan.

Insured unemployed workers in Coos and Curry counties received $46,894.60 from the state unemployment compensation commission during January. This was 9.3 per cent of the state total of $506,035.

Distribution of benefit checks and comparison of the claim load and new applications for jobs reflects the general improvement in Oregon employment conditions over January, 1938, it was pointed out.

The state total for benefit checks during the month was less than the amount disbursed last June and but slightly greater than totals for July and August, during which seasonal conditions for work in Oregon are near the peak.

Aggregate new, original and continued claims handled by the Marshfield office are running about 600 per week less than a year ago and new applications for jobs are only one-third as numerous, analysis of commission records shows.

"BLONDIE" IN NEW FAMILY FILM SERIES

The Bumsteeds—Blondie, Dagwood and Baby Dumpling—are in the movies! The popular characters of Chic Young's famous comic strip will be seen in Columbia's "Blondie," first of a projected new series, starting Friday at the Liberty Theatre. Portraying Blondie is Penny Singleton, vivacious young musical comedy star of "Good News," "Follow Through" and "Hey Nonny Nonny." Dagwood's role is taken by Arthur Lake, an old hand at portraying comic strip characters, whose most notable role previously was "Harold Teen." Seen as Baby Dumpling is four-year-old Larry Simms, a screen newcomer whose present major distinction is that he's the living image of his comic strip counterpart.

"Blondie" takes the Bumsteeds over the well-known bumps, both financial and domestic. The complications are satisfactorily ironed out, however, and peace reigns again in the happy household. This after Dagwood spends a night in jail, Blondie wrestles with the suspicion of "another woman" and Baby Dumpling adds a touch of mischief here and there to confuse the hectic goings-on.

Directed by Frank Strayer, of "Jones Family" fame, "Blondie" was adapted to the screen by Richard Flournoy. Besides the principals, the cast features Danny Mummert, Gordon Oliver, Dorothy Moore, Ann Doran, Richard Fiske and Jonathan Hale.
