The Rev. Father Kelley read an impressive marriage service at eleven o'clock a. m. Saturday at the Holy Name Catholic Church when Miss Betty Brady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brady of Allegany, formerly of Coquille, became the bride of Mr. Donald Wm. Sturdivan, of Redmond, Oregon.

The bride wore a lovely blue ensemble with hat to match and a corsage of gardenias and tulle roses. She carried a white prayer book. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Kathleen Brady, who was attractively gowned in a powder blue afternoon dress, with matching hat, and a corsage of mixed flowers. The best man for Mr. Sturdivan was Mr. Marcellus Peul. Mrs. Michael McCarthy played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

A reception at the home of Mrs. J. E. Axtell immediately followed the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a large bouquet of white lilies and tulips in the pastel shades. The rest of the rooms were decorated with bouquets of spring flowers. Mrs. Will Lundy, of Myrtle Point, poured and Mrs. Roy Neal, of Allegany, served the bride's cake. Others assisting in serving were Mrs. R. W. Haughton, and Miss Belva Alice Stemmler, of Myrtle Point, and Miss Gwendolyn Weaver, of Camas Valley.

The bride's mother wore beige and purple print, with-matching hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Sturdivan went north on a short wedding trip and will then make their home at Fairview, where the groom is employed by the Kline Logging Co.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Will Lundy, Mrs. R. W. Haughton, Miss Belva Stemmler, of Myrtle Point; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neal and Mr. and Mrs. Coates, of Allegany; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Powers, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer and family, of Powers, and Miss Helen Donovan, of Eugene.

Mrs. George Johnson was hostess to her bridge club Thursday for one o'clock luncheon. The rooms were attractively decorated with bouquets of dogwood. At contract, Mrs. John Arnold won high score and Mrs. J. H. McCloskey, second. Mrs. S. Gaulke received a guest prize. Present were: Mesdames John Arnold and Richard Arnold, of Myrtle Point; Mrs. J. H. McCloskey, of Norway; Mesdames S. Gaulke, C. T. Selbig, C. P. Zumwalt, Geo. Holbrook, of Coquille, and the hostess.

Mrs. Hal Pierce entertained her bridge club Friday for one o'clock dessert luncheon. At duplicate, Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. Boober were high for the afternoon play. Present were: Mesdames Mary McKeown, Frank Thrift, J. L. Aasen, U. E. McClary, R. E. Boober, A. B. Collier, E. M. Kay and the hostess.

The Laf-a-lot club members met at the home of Mrs. John Martin on the Marshfield highway Thursday afternoon. The pleasant hours were spent in sewing and chatting, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Members present were: Mesdames J. W. Rubie, O. K. Rakestraw, W. H. Myers, W. E. Cross, Ed. Detlefsen, E. A. Wimer, Geo. Gilman and three guests: Mrs. Z. C. Strang, Mrs. O. T. Nelson and Mrs. Maggie Simmons.

Mrs. Walter Paulson was hostess to the Charts club for one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon last Thursday. At cards, which followed, Mrs. D. G. Ireland won high score. Present were: Mesdames Ted Snyder, Val Harless, Ernest Whereat, Edna Stewart, Wm. Nelson, D. G. Ireland, a guest, Mrs. M. L. Foss, and the hostess.

Mrs. J. L. Aasen was hostess to the Eadriens Monday for one o'clock luncheon. The afternoon was spent in sewing, chatting, etc. Members present were: Mesdames E. M. Kay,
