

Society and Clubs

Mrs. O. K. Rakestraw entertained the Laf-a-lot club last Thursday. The afternoon was spent in sewing, chatting, etc. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members: Mesdames W. H. Meyers, W. E. Cross, J. A. Martin, E. A. Wimer, Geo. Gilman, J. W. Rubie, Ed Detlefsen and guests: Mrs. Z. C. Strang, Mrs. O. T. Nelson and Mrs. Maggie Simmons. The club will meet with Mrs. Rubie May 25.

Mrs. J. E. Axtell was hostess to the Ecadriens for one o'clock luncheon at the hotel Monday. The members later went to Mrs. Axtell's home where an afternoon of sewing was enjoyed. Present were: Mesdames J. L. Aasen, Earl Nosler, F. A. Robb, W. E. Bosserman, Geo. Johnson and the hostess.

The Loyal Women's Class met at the home of Mrs. W. H. Wimer last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. A. N. Foley as joint hostess. Devotions were led by Mrs. Foley, followed by a poem she learned when fifteen years of age entitled, "Faith of Our Mothers." Mrs. Wimer and Miss Jennie Lafferty were appointed to welcome the mothers at the program conducted by the Eagles. Mrs. M. O. Hooton was chosen as the mother from the class. The next meeting of the class will be held at the church with Mrs. Willard Sloan, Mrs. V. L. Bailey and Miss Jennie Lafferty as hostesses. This will be in the form of a birthday party. Present were: Mesdames V. L. Bailey, John Widmark, M. O. Hooton, Fred Schaefer, Pearl Cardwell, C. C. Farr, Willard Sloan, Miss Jennie Lafferty and the hostesses.

After the regular meeting of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., last Thursday evening, the "Courtesy girls"—namely Mesdames B. W. Dunn, Rudolph Johnson, John Jayes, T. S. Stevens, J. F. McLarrin and V. G. Hazel—presented a lovely degree in honor of Mother's Day with Mrs. A. J. Sherwood, gowned in her wedding dress of so many years ago, as the honored mother. Mrs. Maud Woodyard sang a lovely solo in honor of the occasion, accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Norton. Following the program, a social hour was enjoyed with refreshments served in the banquet hall.

Mrs. C. T. Selbig was hostess to her bridge club last Thursday for one o'clock luncheon. The table and rooms were attractively decorated with iris and snapdragons. At contract, Mrs. George Johnson won high score and Mrs. Richard Arnold, of Myrtle Point, consolation. Mrs. S. A. Gaulke won the guest prize. Members present were: Mesdames C. P. Zumwalt, Geo. Johnson, John and Richard Arnold and guests: Mrs. Walter Litzberger, Mrs. O. T. Gant and Mrs. S. A. Gaulke.

The "Charta Club" met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Whereat last Thursday for one o'clock luncheon. At cards, Mrs. Val Harless won high score. Present were: Mesdames Walter Paulson, Edna Stewart, Wm. Nelson, Ted Snyder, D. G. Ireland, Hal Harless and a guest, Mrs. Merrill Foss.

The Justamere club ladies held a one o'clock potluck luncheon last Thursday at the home of Mrs. L. H. Hazard. The afternoon was spent in knitting, sewing and chatting. Members present were: Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, W. S. Sickels, H. A. Young, J. A. Lamb, F. L. Greenwood, Hal Pierce, A. J. Sherwood, M. O. Hawkins, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith and guests: Mrs. Thos. White, Mrs. Marvin Lyons and Mrs. K. Hu-ling, all of Marshfield.

The Duplicate club met at the home of Mrs. R. E. Boober Friday for one o'clock dessert luncheon. Mrs. Hal Pierce and Mrs. U. E. McClary were high for the afternoon's play. Present were: Mesdames Frank Thrift, J. L. Aasen, A. B. Collier, Mary McKeown, Hal Pierce, E. M. Kay, U. E. McClary and the hostess.

The most generally attended luncheon of the San Francisco council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs was the Youth Co-operation luncheon May 11 at the Canterbury Hotel, arranged and presided over by Mrs. Albert Powers, G. F. W. C. chairman of the division of Youth Co-operation. Among the distinguished guests attending were: Mrs. John Whitehurst, of Maryland, first vice president of the G. F. W. C.; Mrs. C. L. Dickinson, of New Hampshire, second vice president; Mrs. John Buck, of Virginia, treasurer; Mrs. Roland Latham, N. C., budget chairman; Mrs. Edwin Bevens, chairman of the department of public welfare; Mr. G. R. Ketterer, chairman of legislation, and Miss Agnes Samuelson, chairman of department of education.

To stimulate interest in sponsoring units of National Youth serving organizations, San Francisco Cub Scouts participated in the program. The girl scouts gave a five-minute program and 20 Campfire girls presented a group of American folk songs and were enthusiastically encored. Virgil Dickson, superintendent of schools in Berkeley and organizer of the first Youth Co-operation Council in America in 1919, addressed the luncheon guests.

Mrs. Powers later in the afternoon addressed the Council at the Memorial Opera House on the program of her division and announced an award of $250 to be divided between the two states accomplishing the most outstanding work in Youth Co-operation during the two years ending at the G. F. W. C. Triennial in 1941 at Atlantic City.

Helen Wilson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. Earl Wilson, received a real surprise party Tuesday afternoon at the Washington School in honor of her eighth birthday. At two o'clock the 34 youngsters in the second grade and the teacher were treated to a large birthday cake bedecked with eight candles and individual dishes of ice cream. To say Helen was surprised is putting it mildly. Games and a good time followed.

Mrs. Edna Kern was hostess to the Zodiac club members Tuesday for one o'clock luncheon in honor of Mrs. Ruby Johnson. Mrs. Johnson received a lovely gift from the club, one from her pal and also the hostess prize. The table, attractive with a hand crocheted cloth, was centered with a large angel cake. Corsages of fibre roses tied with appropriate colors were entwined around the cake for the individual members. Following luncheon the members spent the afternoon in sewing and chatting. Present were: Mesdames Gladys Wheeler, Ora Tennant, Jane Burch, Ethel Fuller, Emma Gasner, Blanche Mast, Carla Savage, Opal Buckles, Helen Detlefsen, Edith Tennant, Mildred Howe, Ruby Johnson, Lorena Thorp, Vera Hooton and a guest, Mrs. Lula Jarvis, of Myrtle Point, sister of Mrs. Kern. The club will meet May 24 with Mrs. Ora Tennant in honor of Mrs. Hooton's birthday.

Last Thursday, the Co-Workers club met at the home of Mrs. W. H. Schroeder for a noon potluck luncheon. A bridal shower was tendered Miss Elsie Wood, who is soon to become the bride of F. V. McNair. Mrs. Norma McNair received the club prize. The afternoon was spent in sewing and chatting. Present were: Mesdames Chas. Dondono, Gena Chase, Max Gant, Eleanor Morritt, Melvin Schroeder, Vera Hatcher, J. W. McGuffin, Ernest Embree, Leila Avery, Norma McNair, Johnny McNair, Miss Laura McNair, Miss Elsie Wood and the hostess. The club will meet May 25th with Mrs. Johnny McNair.

One of the nicest affairs in honor of Mother's Day was the tea given by the Girls' League Saturday afternoon from three to five o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. A. Wernich. The rooms were beautifully decorated with gorgeous bouquets of iris contributed by Mrs. J. R. Bunch. Hostesses for the tea were Miss Rose Naef, Girls' League adviser; Peggy Wernich, Jeanette Wheeler, League president; Frankie Edmon, Jeanne Clasterbos, Jean Laird and Mrs. Wernich. The hostesses and others were attractively gowned in floor length dresses. Presiding at the table during the tea were: Mrs. B. W. Dunn, Mrs. Clarence Osika, Jean Laird and Mary Jane Dunn. The program consisted of a lovely vocal solo by Joy Norton, accompanied by Gretchen Clinton, and a splendid reading by Geraldine Holcomb. During the afternoon, Mr. B. W. Dunn took moving pictures in technicolor of the group in the gardens which were resplendent with rhododendrons. Mrs. Jas. R. Watson assisted the girls with the refreshments.

After the meeting of the Royal Neighbors Tuesday evening, birthdays of four members were honored: Mrs. Ruby Johnson, Mrs. Mae Ensel, Mrs. Ethel Leach and Mrs. Georgia Stephenson. The members decided to award a prize of $2.50 to the merchant having the best decorated window in honor of their convention to be held in Coquille May 31.

Last Friday evening the Tauk-an-so club met at the home of Mrs. Harry Varney. The evening was spent in making badges for convention. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members: Mesdames Guy Torrey, Melvin, Giles, Sarah Davis, G. C. Barber, Nora Thorp, Wm. Peart, A. J. Burch, C. E. Martindale, W. J. McGuffin and E. R. Johnson.

Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Boober were hosts to a few friends for pinocle. Holding the evening's high score was O. B. Harriman. At a late hour, refreshments were served. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Godard, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Harriman and the hosts.

Mrs. Harry Oerding Leaves Saturday For The East

Mrs. Harry Oerding is leaving Saturday morning for the New York Fair. Her first stop will be at the San Francisco Fair, then a visit in Los Angeles with a cousin of Mr. Oerding's, Helen Tiedeman, who is head nurse of the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital. Her trip east will be through New Orleans to Jacksonville, Florida, then up the Atlantic seaboard to New York, stopping en route in Washington, D. C., Baltimore and Philadelphia. The return trip will be the northern route through Chicago, where she will visit with her mother. Mrs. Oerding will return in time for school this fall. She will again teach in District No. 19.

Piano Pupils To Give Recital
Mrs. Maud Woodyard will present her piano pupils in a recital at the Church of Christ next Tuesday evening to which the general public is invited. The hour is set for 7:30 o'clock.
