Little Bobby Swinney celebrated his fourth birthday Saturday with a merry circus party given by his mother, Mrs. LeRoy Swinney. A merry-go-round birthday cake and animal motifs created pleasure for the following youngsters: Alan Dungey, Nancy Perrott, Donna and Janice Schroeder, John and Paul Clayton, Deanne Boynton, Hal Stevens and Janet and Bobby Swinney. Mrs. Swinney was assisted by Mrs. Marion Clayton and Mrs. Paul Boynton.

Another jolly children's party was that given Tuesday by Mrs. Harold Gould for her little daughter, Jane, who was four years old on that day. The home of Jane's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Gould, was transformed into a zoo, and the animal idea was carried out to amuse Mavis Newton, Cynthia Rust, Diana Schroeder, Nancy Perrott, Sandra McCurdy, Patty Brown, Marcia Mauney, Carol Ann Craeger, Sherril Hatcher, Patsy Ray Dellefson, Rosemary Rickard and Martel Roper, of Myrtle Point, were also guests. Mrs. Wm. Barrow assisted Mrs. Gould with the party.

A surprise birthday party was given Mrs. Walter West at her home by the members of the Young Matrons' club at her home last Friday evening. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Fran DeCosta and Delores, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Embree, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clouse, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Curtis and Ethel Mae, in addition to the host and hostess. The evening was enjoyably spent and closed with a lunch furnished by the guests. The surprised hostess received many nice gifts.

Fox Meetings To Close Sunday

The popular Fox Evangelistic party whose meetings at the Assembly of God have attracted city-wide attention are to close their meetings on this coming Sunday night. Large crowds have attended the revival nightly and meetings outside of the church have likewise been well attended. Saturday night the Pioneer Methodist Church was packed to hear Lorne Fox play an organ recital of an hour's length. He has also addressed and played for both the Lions and the Rotary clubs. An effort to have the Fox party stay over an additional week has failed, owing to the fullness of their future program.

Thursday evening Evangelist Ethel M. Fox will speak on the topic, "What Shall a Well Dressed Christian Wear?" The special musical feature of the program will be Mr. Fox's own piano arrangement of "There's No Disappointment in Heaven."

Friday evening the service will be in the nature of a Divine Healing service, at which time Evangelist Lorne Fox will relate his own personal testimony, entitled, "From St. Vitus' Dance to Victory." According to Mr. Fox, he was at one time incurably afflicted with St. Vitus' Dance, streptococcal poisoning, and heart enlargement. Through faith and prayer, Mr. Fox states he was completely and instantly cured. The musical program of the evening will include the evangelist's piano composition, "The Fall of the Walls of Jericho!"

Sunday services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. will close these revival services. At 11 a. m. Evangelist Ethel Fox will bring her concluding message. At 7:30 p. m. the Fox party will conduct their closing evangelistic-musical rally. Mr. Fox will play one of his most popular piano compositions, entitled, "The Crossing of the Red Sea." This composition describes in minute detail the biblical story recorded in Exodus, of the time when the Israelites crossed the Red Sea. Mr. Fox will speak on the topic, "The Biggest Gambler in Coquille." A capacity crowd is expected to attend the service.

There will be no meeting Saturday night.
