

Society and Clubs

Mrs. Adolph Molthu entertained on June 9th, with an out-of-door birthday party for the pleasure of her games and a rosebud decorated pink birthday cake was served to the following youngsters: Kay Simmons, Nadine Molthu, Betty Sell, Delores Sell, Alma Smith, Joan Smith, Ann Louise Ridings, Charlotte Bogard, Jeanette Johnson, La Crista Gwilliam, Dorothy Ducey, Doreen Barnes, Patty Gibbs, Velma Gibbs and the guest of honor. Mrs. Molthu was assisted by Mrs. Jack Hultin and Mrs. Harold Simmons.

Strictly a stag affair was the "Wimpy" dinner given for Clinton Peart in honor of his ninth birthday Tuesday evening. Jimmy Peart, Donald Ireland, Harry Slack, Jack Ax-tell, Bobby Taylor and the young host were those who enjoyed the party, which was followed by attending the local theatre.

The Charta club was entertained Thursday by Mrs. D. G. Ireland at a salad luncheon, followed by an afternoon at bridge. About the tables were Mesdames Merrill Foss, F. Brown, Jay Carter, Val Harless, Ted Snyder, Walter Paulson, Adolph Molthu and the hostess. Mrs. Harless received high score, while Mrs. Carter had low.

The Helping Hands class of the Church of Christ was entertained on Thursday by Mrs. Henry George. Business of the afternoon included the report of a class project of sending a box valued at $24.00 to the Old Peoples Home at Beaverton, containing a quilt, pillowcases, and other essentials. It was announced that no more meetings would be called until September. The afternoon was concluded in chatting and fancy work until refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Oran Hardenbrook, Pearl Cardwell, Ione Billings, A. Ragsdale, C. C. Farr, A. N. Foley, Harriet Schaefer, Mary Wimer, Adrien Sias, Fred Martin and Mrs. George, Sr., and to Maxine Sias and Gerry Hardenbrook. Mrs. George was assisted in serving by Mrs. Billings.

The home of Mrs. Frank Leslie was the meeting place of the W. C. T. U. for their regular meeting on Friday. Devotions were led by Mrs. Esta Ellis. Plans for the county institute to be held at Pioneer church, June 27th were discussed followed by musical numbers by the Fox evangelistic party. Mr. Fox gave an inspirational message on Peace during the afternoon. Eight bouquets and thirteen cards were prepared to send to the sick. Plans for the afternoon of prayer held Sunday at the Pioneer church in response to a call by the national president was made. Joint hostesses with Mrs. Leslie were: Mrs. Ernest Purvance, Mrs. Alice Holverstott and Mrs. G. A. Gray. Refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Loren Fox and Miss Ethel Fox, and Mesdames C. C. Farr, Ella Nelson, Belle Elwood, E. A. Davis, Mary Cary, Alice Holverstott, L. S. Ball, E. M. Wilson, Eva McCue, Verne Bailey, Geo. Chapman, Ione Billings, Pearl Cardwell, Harriet Schaefer, Dora Oeding, E. A. Harriman, Esta Ellis and Gus McCullough. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. L. Johnson.

The Loyal Woman's class of the Church of Christ enjoyed a pleasant 12:30 dinner at the church parlors last Thursday honoring Mrs. Mary Wimer, Mrs. C. C. Farr and Mrs. Jane Sanders, who had recently celebrated birthdays, with three delicious cakes. Following the luncheon the ladies had a short business meeting. Those present were Mesdames Fred Schaefer, C. C. Farr, Addie McCulloch, Verne Bailey, Ed Aasen, Belle Hooten, Mary Wimer, Lou Williams, A. N. Foley, Pearl Cardwell, Jane Sanders, Jennie Lafferty, and Mrs. McCue.

Last Thursday the Justamere club gathered for a very pleasant luncheon at the home of Mrs. Thomas White of Marshfield. Those driving over for the affair were Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, J. A. Lamb, E. E. Johnson, Hal Pierce, J. L. Smith, Bert Folsom, H. A. Young, A. J. Sherwood, H. L. Hazard and F. L. Greenough. Miss Katherine Huling of Marshfield was also a guest.

A Spanish setting was given the Monday night club at the home of Mrs. U. E. McClary, when guests gathered for a 7:00 o'clock dessert dinner about tables smartly laid in ivory brown. Bridge was played during the evening by the following: Mesdames Bert Kay, H. S. Norton, Geo. Johnson, Frank Thrift, Hal Pierce, T. B. Curry, McNary and the hostess. The traveling prize was awarded to Mrs. T. B. Curry, while the first prize was captured by Mrs. McClary.

The home of Mrs. Genia Chase was the scene of a pleasant gathering of the Co-workers club, who met for a pot luck luncheon and afternoon. Those present were Mesdames Genia Chase, Ora Bell, Mary Ann Embree, Laura McNair, Lillian Gant, Marjory Clouse, Norma McNair, Mattie McGuffin, Nellie Childs, Nora Dondono, Lelah Avery, Katherine Schroeder, Lena McNair, and visitors included Leone Embree, Katherine, Louise and Jimmy Clouse. The next meeting will be in the form of a family picnic at Bandon beach, Sunday, June 25th.

Free Dance At Sitkum Friday Eve.

As a farewell for a portion of the boys at the Sitkum 3C camp who will soon be returning to their homes in Kentucky and Ohio, a free dance is to be given there tomorrow (Friday) evening. There will be refreshments. Pat Hayes' orchestra will furnish the music and free transportation will be available for those not having their own, the bus leaving the Tip Top here at seven o'clock and the Jack & Jill in Myrtle Point at 7:30.

Naturally the authorities are hoping there will be a number of young ladies accepting the invitation in order that the young men may all have dancing partners, but the welcoming invitation is for anyone who may care to attend.

Refrigerator Dealers' Adv.

Attention is called to a co-operative adv. on another page of this issue in which four of the electric equipment dealers of the Coquille valley and the Mt. States Power Co. are calling the public's attention to the line of refrigerators they handle. Those participating are the J. A. Lamb Co., Zenith; Bieggler & Gunderson, General Electric; U. E. McClary, Kelvinator, and H. A. Schroeder & Sons, Myrtle Point, Hotpoint.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Coquille Eagles

After a short meeting to take care of a little unfinished business last Thursday night, we joined with the ladies in an evening of entertainment. The newly elected officers put on the show and from the way every one present laughed and held their side, I guess it was a honey. All the men took the part of small boys, speaking their first nursery rhymes, and ask any one present if they are not a little childish. The M. C. called on some of the ladies to take part and they came to the front like old troupers and almost copped the show.

After the entertainment, Shady and his bunch of little cowboys and girls furnished the music for a couple of hours of dancing and if I am any judge of horn blowers, they are on the road to success.

Ice cream and cookies were served with plenty for all. There was a nice delegation from Marshfield, and taken all in all, we had a lot of fun.

A special meeting was held this last week-end for initiation of twelve new members with four more applications in and ready. We have a good start on this year's quota. The new officers will settle down in their chairs this evening in earnest and really start the ball to rolling.

Everybody is all atwitter over the coming state convention at Roseburg the last of this month. And if Roseburg puts on all they have on their program, it will surely be a busy three days. I understand the Eagles and Auxiliary have rented most of one of the best hotels in Roseburg but I don't know when they will get time to sleep. Me? I don't want a room. I want to see everything, so will take mine standing.—Press Correspondent.

Junior Chamber To Conduct Tournam'nt

Members of the Coquille Junior chamber of commerce will compete in a joint tournament on the local links Monday afternoon in a novelty golf contest. Only one club can be used by each player and the matches will start at 4:30 p. m., according to Andy Anderson, president.

It is planned to have a common pot for accumulation of some prize money to give to the highest and lowest scores made during the afternoon. All members are urged to be out.

Electrical conveniences are rapidly bringing new ease and comfort to the modern home. To fully enjoy these conveniences and for safety's sake, adequate wiring is vitally essential. See Hooton Electric Shop for your wiring.

A. L. Hooton, electrical contractor and dealer, 274 Second St., Coquille. Complete stock of wiring supplies.
