In honor of Mrs. McGilvery and Mrs. Harold Taylor, the Birthday club met last Friday evening at the home of the latter. Gifts were presented to the honor guests, and a pleasant evening was passed with sewing and cards, followed by refreshments featuring a large birthday cake. Those present were: Mesdames Harold Simmons, Adolph Molchu, Olga Molchu, W. W. Sullivan, D. Ireland, W. L. Peart, Clovis Church, Atkinson, J. Cooser, Caekler, Clyde Minard and the guests of honor.

A delightful event of the week was the luncheon Friday at the home of Mrs. L. W. Oddy. Covers were laid for Mrs. Catherine Huling, R. Nelson, and Miss Helen Nelson of Marshfield, and Mesdames J. A. Lamb, H. A. Young, Blanche Smith, Eric Tucker, Wm. Barrow, Tom Dimmick, Lloyd Rosa, Ray Vaughan and the hostess. The afternoon was spent pleasantly with sewing and conversation.

Mrs. Ray Dettleson was hostess Tuesday night for the N. O. M. A. club. Those enjoying the evening were: Mesdames Denton Ellingson, Craig Perrott, Harold Stevens, Felix Miller, Gary Ellison, Marion Clayton, Sherman Morris, Tom Dettleson. Guest prize was won by Mrs. Perrott and birthday gifts were presented to Mrs. Felix Miller and Mrs. Gary Ellison. The evening was passed in sewing and cards.

Misses Elois Wilson and Margaret Purvance arrived in Coquille Friday evening, following the concert of the a cappella choir in Roseburg, which was the final program of their tour. They report a very enjoyable and successful trip, during which they presented concerts as far south as Los Angeles and Long Beach, also stopping at the World's Fair to represent in song the Portland Rose Festival. Arriving with them for the week-end were Misses Pauline Hayden, Beatrice Lomas and Virginia Shove, also Henry Brown, Hubert Ulrich and Oscar Carlson, who visited here over the week-end.

The Get-Together club assembled Monday night at the home of Mrs. G. S. Gosline for an evening of cards. Those present were Mesdames J. M. Doering, J. W. McGuffin, Robert Plyeth, Robert Waggoner, George Holverstott and the hostess. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

As a feature of their monthly meeting the Hope Chest Club, which is composed of the young people's class of the Baptist Church, a bridal shower and welcome was given to Rev. and Mrs. Ed Swanson, newly married and recently arrived, he being pastor of the church. Faye and Maye Saylor were joint hostesses for the evening. Election of officers resulted in re-election of Ruby Pierce, president; Faye Saylor, secretary and treasurer, and Willa Dean Finley, assistant secretary. The business meeting was followed by an enjoyable session of games, the presentation of gifts to Mrs. Swanson and finally refreshments. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Rutledge, Misses Dorothy Landaker, Leah Bickel, Lela Wilberger, Ruby Pierce, Leona Arnett, Theresa Pierce, Willa Dean Finley, the hostesses and the guests of honor.

Those in the party were: Misses Pauline Hayden, Beatrice Lomas, Virginia Shove and Myrtle Minter, Messrs. Henry Brown, Hubert Ulrich, Oscar Carlson, Richard Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Purvance and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson.

Mrs. Gasner Entertains Club

The Zodiac club met last week at the home of Emma Gasner at Norway, in honor of Edna Kern's birthday. A one o'clock luncheon was held. Mrs. Kern received a lovely gift from the club and was remembered by her pal, with a birthday gift and a wedding anniversary gift. Ethel Fuller drew the lucky number and Ruby Johnson, the hostess prize. The afternoon was spent in talking, sewing and visiting the beautiful garden of Mrs. J. H. McCloskey. Those present were Mesdames Ethel Fuller, Jane Burch, Helen Dettleson, Ora Tennant, Gladys Wheeler, Blanche Mast, Opal Buckles, Ruby Johnson, Edith Tennant, Mildred Howe, Edna Kern, Misses Jerene and Ardis Mast, Jeanette Wheeler and the hostess. The next meeting will be with Jane Burch in honor of Emma Gasner.

The home of Mrs. Alma Halter was the scene of a pleasant gathering last Sunday when relatives and friends came in to help celebrate her birthday. A potluck luncheon was held at noon and many beautiful gifts were received by Mrs. Halter. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Halter, Norman, Jr., and Rodney; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Danielson, Lela June and Phyllis, of Myrtle Point; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Halter, Alan and Ronald, and Miss Opal Robinson, of Arago; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brockmann, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Sherwood, Virgil and Raymond Halter and Mrs. Alma Halter, of Coquille.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Bunch, Phyllis and Jimmy, are leaving Sunday for Seattle from which port they will sail with a party of friends on an 80-foot chartered cabin cruiser. There will be 22 or 23 in the party and they will travel as far up the Alaskan coast as they can and still be home in two weeks.
