

Society and Clubs

The regular Saturday night Fire-side gathering at the Baptist Fellowship room took on a festive air last week when the group gathered for a kiddies' party. Pigtails, corkscrew curls and hair-ribbons were much in evidence, and such games as ring-around a rosy, London Bridge and New Orleans provided amusement for the evening. Lollipops, cake and ice cream were served at the close of the party. Those present were: Leona Arnett, Lela Wilburger, Ruby Pierce, Faye and Maye Saylor, Leah Bickle, Mary Louise Sorensen, Dorothy Landaker, Wilda Dean Finley, Gwendolyn Elrod, Eleanor Peterson, Marie Burg, Sharon Knox, Cliva Capps, Floyd Jenkins, Lee Finley, Fred Finley, Roland Saylor, Howard Seeley, Dewey Helton, Don Landaker, Arthur Wilburger, Gaylord Wilburger, Jewell Capps, Mrs. Alice Holverstott and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Brockmann.

Mrs. Al Burch entertained the Zodiac Club with a one o'clock luncheon in honor of Mrs. George Gasner, who was celebrating her birthday. Members arrived dressed as little girls. The club gift was presented to the guest of honor; Mrs. Buckles received the lucky number and Mrs. Detlefsen was given the hostess prize. Those enjoying the affair were Mesdames Tom Detlefsen, George Gasner, Ora Tennant, Roy Mast, Ray Buckles, Edith Tennant, Bob Wheeler, Geo. Johnson, Clifford Kern, Ellis Fuller, Arthur Hooton and the hostess, Mrs. Edith Tennant will entertain for Mrs. Buckles on July 19th.

Mrs. Irving Larson entertained a group of friends with a dessert dinner and bridge Monday evening. Those enjoying the occasion were Mesdames Frank Thrift, Earl Tichenor, Lucille Ellison, Felix Miller, Maude Green, Belmont Ireland, Dennis Waggoner, Fred Hudson, Dan Foss, Mrs. Hubert Hoxie, of McMinnville, and the hostess. Mrs. Miller received high score and Mrs. Tichenor, consolation.

The Monday night bridge club gathered this week at the home of Mrs. E. W. Lorenz for a pot luck dinner with an evening of bridge following. Mesdames J. A. Lamb, Muri Pettit, Hal Pierce, H. A. Young, J. L. Smith, Edna Hartson, E. L. Kay, Bert Folsom and the hostess were those who enjoyed the evening. Mrs. Pettit receiving high score and Mrs. Hartson the traveling prize.

The Octette bridge club was entertained with a one-thirty desert luncheon Friday at the home of Mrs. Irving Larson. Those gathered about the tables were Mesdames Sherman Morris, Felix Miller, Lucille Ellison, Earl Tichenor, Belmont Ireland, Milton Greenfield, Karl Dement and the hostess. Mrs. Ellison received high score, while consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. Morris.

The Bluebird group of Campfire girls met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Robt Harbison. After the regular meeting the little girls were taken to Norway grove where they had a jolly time roasting weiners and pitching horseshoes. Those included in the trip were Betty Lou Dalton, Sally Bonney, Rose Marie Peart, Martha Berg, Donna May Howe, Alene Hunt, Norma Helvie and Mrs. Harbison.

Guests at the W. M. Briner home, who arrived Saturday from Ravinia, Ill., were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stanger and their son, D. W. Stanger. They were old neighbors of Mrs. Briner whom she had not seen for 27 years and the younger Mr. Stanger asked the impossible when he knocked at the door and asked Mrs. Briner if she remembered him. He was a boy of eight when she left Joliet.

Holverstott-Fitch

Faye Holverstott, an employee of the Standard Oil company here, and Miss Iris Fitch, of Noti, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at Eugene. The ceremony was solemnized at the Unitarian church, with Rev. Herbert Higginbotham officiating and taking place at four o'clock. A reception followed at the home of the bride's aunt in Eugene. The groom, whose home city is Coquille, has been in the employ of A. E. Neilson, local Standard manager, for the past two summers, serving chiefly as truck driver.

Young Matrons club met at the home of Mrs. Walter West Wednesday afternoon. Among those present were: Mrs. Ernest Embree, Mrs. Bert Ferry and Norman, Mrs. Jack Clouse and children, Mrs. Lauren McCue and Jerry, Mrs. Kenneth Vadnais and Carol Jean, Mrs. Ronald Burr and Jo Deanne, Mrs. Enno Dornath and daughters, Mrs. Fred Martin, Mrs. Weldon Curtis and Ethel Mae and the hostess and daughter, Charlotte. The afternoon was spent playing cards, high score being won by Mrs. Burr and consolation awarded to Mrs. McCue. Door prize for the day was received by Mrs. Vadnais. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Wesley Travis.

PRETTY ARAGO WEDDING MONDAY

At a beautiful garden ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Aasen June 28, Miss LaVaun Aasen became the bride of Mr. Jesse Dunning, of Wenatchee, Wash. Rev. F. H. Barr, of the Brethren church of Myrtle Point, officiated. After Mrs. Orlin Lett, of Bridge, sang the solo, "I Love You Truly," the wedding party entered to the strains of Lo-hengrin, by Wagner, and proceeded across the lawn to a beautiful arch and latticed gate, covered with American Pillar roses, where surrounded by flowers on all sides, the ceremony was performed. The bride, lovely in garden hat and dress of emerald white organdy, with touches of blue ribbon, and carrying a beautiful bouquet of white roses, lilies and blue delphiniums, entered the garden on the arm of her father. The couple was attended by Miss Arlie Aasen, of Coquille, who was the bridesmaid and was dressed in a lovely gown of blue dotted swiss, and by Stephen Aasen, the bride's brother, who was best man.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served to the guests by the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Aasen. The beautiful wedding cake was made and decorated by Mrs. E. F. Hoffman.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Turner MacDonald, of Port Orford; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hoffman and Mrs. Clair Keitner, Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Barr, of Myrtle Point; Alvin Fredenberg, of Arago; Miss Esther Davidson, of Forest Grove; Mrs. Orlin Lett, of Bridge.

The bride and groom left shortly after the luncheon for a honeymoon trip up the coast, after which they will return to central Washington to spend the summer. They will be in Seattle next year, where Mr. Dunning will continue his graduate work in education at the University of Washington.

The bride was born in the Aasen home where the ceremony took place. She is a graduate of the Arago high school and of the Southern Oregon Normal, a member of the Sigma Epsilon Pi sorority. She has been a successful teacher for five years, is greatly admired and beloved for her Christian character, her culture and ability along many lines. The groom, a young man of sterling worth, is very influential in the young people's work of the district of Washington.

Port Orford Trims Coquille

Pat Hayes' Coquille Merchants team dropped the game to Port Orford at the ball park here last Sunday by a 6 to 4 count, while Marshfield won from Emphre 10-9, putting the local club in third place in the league standing.

There was only a fair attendance to witness what was a pretty good game, but numbered among them were a lot of rabid fans which protested loudly at some of the decisions called which were not even close.
