

Anderson-Nye Wedding Sunday

At a very impressive ceremony in the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Belloni on South Coulter Street, Miss Sara Margaret Nye, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Belloni by whom she was reared, and Mr. Phillip Anderson, son of Mrs. Bertha L. Anderson of Portland, were united in marriage at one o'clock Sunday afternoon, July 2. Rev. Howard L. Graybeal, Pioneer Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. It is interesting to note that Miss Nye was born in this same house nearly twenty-four years ago.

Mrs. Carl Anderson, sister of the groom, sang, "I Love You Truly," Miss Anne Barton played the wedding march and Miss Janice Anderson acted as bridesmaid and Joe Nye as best man. Mr. Fred Belloni "gave away" the bride.

The room was attractively decorated with huckleberry greenery, blue delphiniums, sweet peas, and Easter lilies.

The bride wore an attractive brown pencil-stripe suit, wheat-colored shoes, blouse, and gloves, and aqua suede hat and purse. She wore a very beautiful corsage of mixed flowers. She is a graduate of the Coquille high school and Oregon State College and was a teacher of home economics at Riverton the past year.

Three of the bride's girlhood chums—Carol Young, Anne Barton and Beryl Unsoeld—were present at the wedding. They, as children, were all members of the local "Pirate Club."

Following the ceremony, a buffet luncheon was enjoyed in the dining room. Mrs. Otto Shindler, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Carl Kramer and Mrs. Wayne Robinson of Coquille assisted with the serving. Mrs. Guy Mauney made and decorated the cakes and assisted in making the wedding the beautiful affair that it was.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Otto Shindler and Franz, of Bandon; Mrs. Bertha Anderson and Janice, of Portland; Ralph and Wynne Cope, Mr. and Mrs. Lex Cope, of Langlois; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kramer, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mauney and Marcia, John E. Paulson, Mr. and

Mrs. H. H. Oerding Enjoyed The Fairs

Mrs. Harry H. Oerding returned last Saturday from her five weeks' trip to San Francisco and New York to visit the two fairs.

She characterizes the two as being typical of their locations, the San Francisco particularly western and the New York as having a greater world-wide display of exhibits. She mentions the beautiful $8,000,000 Russian building in the eastern fair as being an outstanding feature and the General Motors display as one of the most interesting there.

In the French building concession the evening dinners are $10 a plate—$5 for cover charge and $5 for a steak dinner such as you can get almost anywhere for 85 cents.

Not counting the entertainment features for which an admission is charged, she says that it costs about $3.50 for exhibit admissions at San Francisco and $5 at New York.

While she was glad to get back to Coquille, she says that she felt very much at home on the entire trip for there were only a few days of the entire five weeks that she didn't see rain.

COUNTY JAIL ARRIVALS

County jail arrivals the past week were Eugene W. Judd, who was sentenced to two and one-half days in J. P. court here for driving without an operator's license; Michel C. Bowen, who is serving a 15-day sentence on a vagrancy charge given him by Justice Bolt at Marshfield; and R. G. Ostrander, of Myrtle Point, who was bound over to the grand jury by Justice Dodge, with bail set at $250. The charge was driving while intoxicated.

Mrs. Joe Nye, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Robinson and Darlyne, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Belloni, Anne Barton, Carol Young and Beryl Unsoeld, all of Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Anderson left on a three-day trip to Portland and Bend and will return to their home at Fairview on July 5 where Mr. Anderson is employed.

Anderson, of Dyer, Tennessee, and formerly president of the Assembly of God young people's organization, the Christ's Ambassadors, for that state, is to be the evening speaker at the Assembly of God this coming Sunday. Mr. Anderson is the brother-in-law of R. D. E. Smith, the pastor of the local Assembly of God and is visiting here for some little time. His sermon topic will be "The Man Who Went to Hell and Back." He will also be featured on the musical program. His specialty is singing to his own guitar accompaniment.

Rev. R. D. E. Smith will be speaking in the morning, his sermon topic being, "Wake Up and Live."

Several additions are being made to the orchestra at the Assembly of God which is creating added interest in the popular Sunday night song services.

Oregon State Game Commission Hearing July 7 and 8

The Oregon State Game Commission will hold its annual hearing to determine the 1939 hunting seasons and bag limits on Friday and Saturday, July 7 and 8. The meeting will be held at the office of the Commission in The Oregon Building, Portland.

Sportsmen and the general public are invited to submit, either in person or by letter, their recommendations in regard to any changes in seasons and bag limits for upland game birds and game animals.

Two Offenders Given A Jolt

Walt Smith and Carmel Sanders who were taken before Justice Barton a few days ago, on the usual charge, were given their choice by the J. P. of sixty days in jail or an absence from Coquille of six months. They elected to take the longer punishment, but were warned there would be no fudging on the half year or time off for good behavior.

New Tip Top Opens Friday

Coquille's newest public refreshment fountain will open Friday, July 7, at 10 a. m., under the same name that has been a community watchword for many years, the Tip Top.

This time, the ownership is vested in Alan Bailey and William Walker, two promising young men and high school graduates here.

The new owners have completely rebuilt and renovated the building and premises inside—it is a unique, streamlined recreational spot that will do the city justice for its artistic make-up and progressive trend.

The fountain has been arranged in the center of the building with booths placed down the east and west walls, where privacy and relaxation can now be enjoyed by all who desire it. The kitchen has been rebuilt and will enable the owners to more conveniently serve patrons with light lunches as well as fountain delicacies.

The fountain structure is striking. It was built by V. L. Bailey, Alan's father, and has been faced with inlaid linoleum artistically arranged by Biegger & Gunderson Furniture store. This firm also provided linoleum for the surface of the tables and floors.

Ray's Renovating and Upholstery of Marshfield has made new, soft cushions of blue for all seats of the booths. C. C. Smith, of Coquille, had charge of all refrigeration installation in the new lay-out and says that it is really one of the finest in the county.

P. L. Johnson did all plumbing work in the new recreational center and A. L. Hooton had charge of the electrical installations which included new lights and arrangements of lights for all booths in the place.

Another pleasing feature is the color scheme and art work which was planned and carried out by E. H. "Abbey" Thompson.

It is indeed a creditable improvement for the community and one worth paying a visit to see. If you go to the Tip Top Friday from 2 to 3 p. m., the boys have promised everyone an ice cream cone free to all holders of the Sentinel coupon.

We have a nice variety of bedding plants for brightening up your yard and flower boxes. Myrtle Gardens.

Miss Inez Rover Presents Gretchen Clinton In Recital

In the Episcopal Parish House last Friday evening, June 30, Miss Inez Rover presented Gretchen Clinton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Clinton, in a classical piano recital. Miss Clinton was assisted by Mrs. Roy Barton, soprano. The very interesting program, which held the attention of the listeners throughout its entirety, consisted of selections by Chopin, Debussy, Sinding, Friml and Torjussen.

Miss Clinton's program in three groups, was designed to display well rounded technique and excellent interpretative ability. She played with cleanliness in phrasing, with rhythmic steadiness and a clear tone of volume and firmness.

The platform was decorated by Mrs. James Watson and Mrs. J. H. McCloskey and was beautiful in its artistic arrangement of flowers.

CITY POLICE COURT
