

Fairview News Items

David Tosten returned to his home at Fairview following a trip to California.

The Fairview-North Fork Grange met at the grange hall last Saturday good program which was followed by dancing. Mrs. Vern Kenison and Mrs. Charles Holverstott served refreshments.

Norman Powell left on Wednesday of last week enroute to Bremerton, Washington, after visiting with his parents and friends in the valley.

Tom Benham received several painful cuts on his left hand last week while bucking logs for the Cal Ray logging camp. He was under-cutting a log when a "widow maker" fell, hit his arm and caused the saw teeth to cut the palm of his hand.

The meeting of the Fairview Ladies Aid, which was planned to meet at the home of Mrs. Lillie Berkheimer on last Thursday, was postponed. The ladies have not decided upon a date for a meeting this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thurman and Betty moved from their home near the Riverside school to Port Orford last week-end.

Mrs. G. B. Dow planned to leave the Belle Knife Hospital at Coquille this week. Mrs. Dow has spent several weeks there, following a major operation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Menning left last Saturday for their home in Maywood, Calif., after spending ten days visiting with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Kenison and Lorraine.

Mrs. Melissa Brownson, Mrs. Carrie Benham and Harry Brownson, of Bridge, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Benham last Sunday.

Harold Neal was dismissed from the Coquille Hospital last week and is at the home of his sister, Mrs. Don Carver, in Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farmer and family moved recently into the house formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Moury by the Fairview church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Norris and Lorraine and Harold Stock left last Friday morning for Grants Pass,

BILL BERRY

—Le'Mille Photo

One of the most popular candidates in The Sentinel's campaign is Bill, who represents the Fairview district. We're always glad to see Bill when he brings his subscriptions for he has a nice cheerful smile and he always wears it on the outside of his face where it does the most good. If you'd like to see a permanent smile on Bill's face, pay your subscription to him before 9 o'clock Saturday night and help him in his effort to win one of the bikes.

where they visited his sister, Mrs. Otis Flitcroft. They also visited a niece, Mrs. Randall Cadwallader, at Medford and returned to Fairview Sunday evening. In spite of the 108 degree temperature at Grants Pass on Saturday it was a very enjoyable trip.

Clyndar Holverstott left Sunday for Portland, where he will take final tests before entering the Navy.

Glenda Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Richardson, fell while playing at her home on Monday of this week and received a three-inch cut and bad bruise on her right leg.

Arago News

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hampton spent several days last week on a trip to Illahe, returning home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Everett Lafferty, Allen, Mayre Lee and Howard, of Langlois, spent from Tuesday till the end of the week visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hill returned to their home in La Grande last Wednesday after visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. E. Watkins, for a few days.

The regular weekly Bible study was held Wednesday evening at the church with H. E. Watkins leading the discussion on the 14th chapter of Mark. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Root and John Paul. Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister, Mrs. Robert Munford and Leatha, Lynn Schrader, Mrs. O. H. Aasen. They will meet again next Wednesday at 8:00 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sayers and son, Glenn, of Ivanhoe, California, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Myers and family from Saturday till Monday. Mr. Sayers is a brother of Mrs. Myers, whom she had not

BERNICE GILLESPIE

—Le'Mille Photo

This young lady from the Arago community bows to no one as a subscription-getter. If she'll back her ability with plenty of hard work for the next three days, she can show the other candidates what strong competition means. Your subscription paid to Bernice before 9 o'clock Saturday night will count her thousands of votes and save your money.

seen for eleven years. Rev. G. A. Gray, of Coquille, conducted the regular Sunday morning preaching service with Sunday school immediately following. There was no evening meeting. Services will be held next Sunday morning as follows: preaching at 10 a. m. and Sunday school at 11 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Root, Merle and Lawrence, and Mrs. Edith Woodward, of Broadbent, visited at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. George Gillespie and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Root Monday.

Miss Esther Davidson returned to her home in Forest Grove Tuesday, after visiting at the L. M. Aasen home on Hall's Creek for about two weeks.

Mrs. John Devereux and children, Junior, Emmett and Katherine, of Bandon, enjoyed a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Zinslering in honor of Miss Katherine Devereux.

Mrs. C. A. Keltner accompanied Mrs. Clair Keltner to Oregon City last Friday. She has gone to take some more treatments.

Lyle Paul was to be out again last week after several weeks' illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Summerlin have moved up on Fishtrap.

Mrs. Ellis Barklow, of Redmond, Oregon, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller last Thursday for a short visit.

George Golden underwent an operation at the Coquille Hospital last Tuesday and is getting along nicely.

Frank Jones entered the Mast Hospital for medical treatment and is under the care of Dr. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans, of Rochester, Wash., left for their home last Saturday after a few days' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Evans.

Mrs. L. A. Myers and Lillaverle accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sayers to Ivanhoe, California, Monday for a short visit. They will also visit Mrs. Myers' mother before their return home.

Mrs. Thede Perry and three children, from Roseburg, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Farrier last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schroeder, of Corvallis, were Monday evening dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Orvus Miller, Phyllis and Alice, and Mrs. Frank Miller drove to Central Point last Saturday and returned home on Sunday.

Mrs. Emily Hickam and Kent and Miss Lois Schroeder returned to their home in Corvallis Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cochran, of Fairview, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schroeder over Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Watkins, Mary, Jean and Anne, enjoyed a picnic dinner with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boak and family, of Bandon, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Damron, of Denmark, at the Damron home Sunday.

The Arago community was greatly saddened by the death of Mrs. Helen

MARY JEAN McALLISTER

—Le'Mille Photo

The next three days are important ones to Jean—they will decide whether or not she wins a bicycle. They are important to Sentinel subscribers, too, especially in Miss McAllister's Arago community—they mark the end of the special subscription price offer. To crown Jean's efforts with success, to save money, pay your subscription to her before 9 o'clock Saturday night.

Hammack, who passed away at the Coquille Hospital last Friday evening, after an illness of about a week. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Milton Hammack, and infant son, Richard Milton, of Arago; her mother, Mrs. Wm. Eveland, of Gaylord; her sister, Mrs. Lloyd Dietz, of Myrtle Point, and many other relatives and friends who mourn her death. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Brethren church in Myrtle Point and interment was in the Norway cemetery.

Mrs. Zelda Simmons and children, Harvey Myers and Oliver Myers spent from Monday till Thursday visiting at the home of Mrs. Simmons' parents at Azalea, Oregon. They also enjoyed a trip to California while they were away.

Bridge Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Tonole, of Cottage Grove, returned home Monday after an overnight visit at the Chas. Mack home.

"Advertising with Good Books" is the topic for the Christian Endeavor meeting next Sunday evening and Jerry Walker is the appointed leader. Miss Maude Hooton left Saturday evening for Rolling Bay, Wash., where she will enjoy a vacation of a week or two at the home of her uncle, Oscar D. Hooton.

The Bridge Grange at the regular meeting Friday evening enjoyed visits from two state officers — Arthur

WILDA BECKETT

—Le'Mille Photo

Wilda has been working against odds, living in a district that is only just beginning to get Sentinel-conscious. They're lots more Sentinel-conscious now than they were when Wilda started in and this plucky youngster is working hard to bring a bicycle home to Bridge and to make the majority of Bridge people readers of one of the most rapidly improving and best read weekly newspapers in Oregon. Every subscription is a big boost to her. Pay yours to her before 9 o'clock Saturday—it can mean a bicycle to her.

Brown, of Salem, and Henry Gustafson, of North Bend, both of whom gave interesting and helpful talks. A fine program, which was the last one in the Program contest, was presented by the "Bridge group." The judges awarded the prize, for the best program in the series, to the Rock Creek group, which won by a margin of one point. At the close of the evening, refreshments of apple pie, cheese and coffee were served by Mesdames John Koch, Vern Magill and Elmer Magill.

Evelyn Shields was honored Friday evening with a surprise birthday party given by her friends, Evelyn Morrison, at the Morrison home. An enjoyable evening was spent in playing games and swimming. Refreshments of cake and punch were served to the following: Lois and Betty Medley, Florence Johnson, Anna Calvin, Marvin Huff, Charles Holmes, Roger LeClerc, Edson Hatfield, Edward Morrison, the honoree, Evelyn Shields, and the hostess, Evelyn Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McAllister, of Marshfield, were Sunday guests at the E. J. Walker home.

Mrs. Frank Culver, Pomona lecturer, attended the Pomona Grange at North Bayside Tuesday.

Among the Sunday guests at the Henry Huff home were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Downs, of Redmond, and Mr. and Mrs. Ned Gurney and daughter, Marlene, and Bob Montgomery, of Coquille.

Mrs. Joseph LeClerc is able to be out again after being confined to her home for a few days with tonsillitis.

A crowd of friends charivared the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. John Koch at their home Monday evening.

Among the relatives and friends who enjoyed a picnic dinner Sunday at the Dwight Culver home were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Knight and daughter, Arlene, Bobbie and Donnie Kroeger, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cribbins, Norman Brown, Mrs. Claude Davis and daughter, Sandra, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cribbins and two children, all from Myrtle Point; Jerry Butler, from Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Knight, Alice and Donald Knight, Howard and Josephine Schauer, from King creek; Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Perkins and daughter, Phyllis Jane, (who were house guests of the Culvers), and Mr. and Mrs. Culver, Mary Lou and Evert.

Bullards News

Fred Koos is working for Lee Petersen on the Russ place near Coquille.

A. Barrows returned Saturday from Portland, where he went for medical aid for an eye, which has

ARTHUR WILBERGER

—Le'Mille Photo

Notice to the people of the Bullards Route area: You have in your midst a young chap—Arthur Wilberger—who is one of the most energetic salesmen in The Sentinel subscription campaign. With your whole-hearted co-operation Arthur has a good chance to win. You can pile up thousands of votes for Arthur and save money, too, by paying him your subscription before 9 o'clock Saturday night.

been causing him a lot of trouble lately.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bullard and son, Barry, of Marshfield, visited at the Warren Bullard home Sunday.

Frank Martin was found unconscious in his home Friday and was taken to the Leep hospital at Bandon by the coast guard. He passed away at eleven o'clock that night. Frank drove stage for Gorst & King a number of years ago and lately he has been extra man on the Bullards ferry, working for Lawrence Dorland.

Mrs. Eugene Hamblock and Miss Julia Hamblock visited at the Malinda Bullard home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Eddy, of Port Orford, called at the Hugh Lemmon home Sunday. Mr. Eddy is editor of the Port Orford Post.

McKinley Items

Mrs. Tim Freeman and children are spending this week at the home of her father, W. W. Rhule. Mrs. Freeman lives at Remote.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Nye and daughter Shirley, of Coquille, and Mrs. Earl Adams, of Myrtle Point, were Sunday callers on Mrs. F. A. Carrillo, who is rapidly recovering from her appendicitis operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Mills and family, of Charleston, and Mrs. Roy Strickland, of Allegany, were Sunday visitors at the W. W. Lawhorn home.

The McKinley Welfare Club was to have held an outdoor picnic at the Cherry creek grove Sunday but the weather being so cold and gloomy, the ones present adjourned to the Sullivan home near by.

Lyman King is still at the Veterans' hospital in Portland, where he went several weeks ago for a check up. Mrs. King has been going to Coquille several times a week for medical attention. Her daughter, Velva, has returned from Empire where she was a guest of Mrs. Grinnell.

Vern Shaw and family have left McKinley to live near Eugene, where he has employment as a "cat" driver. Mrs. Chas. Thomas has gone to Glendale to spend several days with her husband who is trucking near there.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sickles (she having been Alice Mast), were up visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Fred Mast, and they have now gone to Grants Pass to make their home.

Mrs. Martha Bennett is still very low at the Belle Knife hospital. She was long a resident here and her many friends will be grieved to hear of her continued illness.

Harry Mast and Vern Hansen played on the Norway baseball team Sunday against Gravelford.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hansen were Marshfield visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Theron Loshbaugh returned from her trip to Canada but her mother, Mrs. Cram, remained for a longer visit with her brother. Mrs. Loshbaugh saw the king and queen but not the quintuplets.

J. H. Freeman's house on Cherry Creek road is rapidly nearing completion. He has the brick flue finished and part of the roof on.

ROY PRATT

—Le'Mille Photo

By good hard work this McKinley representative has come a long way up the list of candidates in The Sentinel's campaign in the past two weeks and he intends to climb even farther in the next three days. If you want to give him a hand up and save money, too, pay him a your subscription before Saturday night at 9 o'clock.

A. L. Hooton, electrical contractor and dealer, 274 Second St., Coquille. Complete stock of wiring supplies.

Chadwick Lodge No. 68
A. F. & A. M.
Special Communication
Tuesday, July 18, 8:00 P. M.
Work in M. M.

Coming IN PERSON THE MORGAN FAMILY
FROM THE HOLLYWOOD BARN DANCE

Roxy—One Day Only—Wed., July 19

QUALITY STEER BEEF

When you buy your meat at this market you are assured of the best quality steer beef that the market affords as we handle no other kind.

PHONE 20

J. L. STEVENS
Peoples
MARKET
"Your Ideal Meating Place."

THE RECORD... Facts That Concern You No. 9 of a series.

THE NON-BEER DRINKER BENEFITS FROM BEER!

BEER TAXES SWELL GOVERNMENT RECEIPTS, AND REDUCE THE COSTS OF GOVERNMENT TO ALL OTHER TAXPAYERS... BY A MILLION DOLLARS A DAY

100 MILLION DOLLARS FOR FARM CROPS
50 TIMES THE PRE-REPEAL MARKET'S A HELP TO THOUSANDS OF FARM FAMILIES!

AND NOW, TO KEEP BEER'S MANY BENEFITS, FOR YOU AND FOR THEM, AMERICA'S BREWERS WANT TO HELP KEEP BEER RETAILING AS WHOLESOME AS BEER ITSELF. THEIR PROGRAM WILL INTEREST LOCAL LAW AUTHORITIES... AND YOU.

For free booklet, address: United Brewers Industrial Foundation, 19 East 40th Street, New York, N. Y.

BEER... a beverage of moderation

