

Society and Clubs

Mrs. Flora Dunne was hostess Tuesday to the Lincoln Club with a 12:30 dessert luncheon at her home, the rooms of which were especially lovely with summer flowers. A business meeting and patriotic program followed the luncheon at which the following ladies were present: Mesdames Blanche Davis, Margaret McLeod, A. F. Bean, W. H. Schroeder, Clara Wheeler, Harold McCue and the hostess. The door prize was won by Mrs. McCue. The August meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bean.

Mrs. Edna Stewart entertained the Charta Club last Thursday with a pleasant dessert luncheon. Bridge followed, with high score being won by Mrs. Whereat and low by Mrs. Christopherson. Those enjoying the affair were Mesdames Lyle Knox, Ted Snyder, Wm. Nelson, Walter Paulson, Val Harless, Ernest Whereat, A. Christopherson and the hostess.

A pleasant picnic was enjoyed last Sunday by several families at the Norton ranch, who gathered for dinner and the afternoon. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Currie, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McNelly, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Brady, of Allegany, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Norton, J. E. Norton, Beverly and Patsy Norton, Mary Ann Walker, Louise Terry and Billie Bourns.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Sanders, of Sheridan, Ore., spent four days last week at the home of Mr. Sanders' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCue returned Saturday from a three weeks trip east, where they visited in Chicago, Indianapolis and other places of interest.

Rebekahs Convened At Bandon Saturday

On Saturday, July 8, Bandon was host to the twenty-ninth annual Rebekah convention of District No. 13. In a very genial atmosphere, the convention was most interesting and instructive.

Mrs. Alma Henderson, president of Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, and Mrs. Christine McCormick, state publicity chairman, were the convention's distinguished officers.

Mrs. Ena Harless, N. G. of Mamie Rebekah Lodge, No. 20, of Coquille, won the cup for perfect presentation of the secret work. Her diction, poise and delivery were excellent.

Chapparral Lodge, No. 231, Powers, won the attendance cup, which is given for having the largest percentage of members attending the convention.

During the evening session, the Rebekah degree was conferred upon Gladys Mae Gardner and Lillian Bowman, of Bandon; also upon Corinne Baxter, Al Baker and Guy Mann, of Myrtle Point.

On Tuesday evening, July 18, Mamie Rebekah Lodge, of Coquille, will have the pleasure of entertaining the state president, Mrs. Alma Henderson and Mrs. Christine McCormick, state publicity chairman.

A short program will be given at 7:45 p. m., prior to the opening of the lodge for official business. Two candidates, Mrs. Merle Kellenberger and Mrs. Mildred Schaefer will receive the Rebekah degree.

Mrs. Clara Bosserman will entertain Mrs. Alma Henderson, president of Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, and Mrs. Christine McCormick, state publicity chairman, at a tea Tuesday afternoon, July 18, from three to five o'clock. Mrs. Bosserman has requested that all Rebekahs please at-

Riverton News

Mrs. Joe Nilsen, Freida Johnson and Nadean Stonecypher returned from Portland last week. Mr. Nilsen remained up there for medical treatment. He will return in about ten days.

Wendell and Ileen Clausen, of Medford, have been visiting relatives and friends the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Clausen and children visited Mr. Clausen's mother at Trail and Mrs. Clausen, brother, Elmer Olsen, and family at Dexter over the Fourth.

There were a few from Riverton who attended the rodeo at Empire last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Simmons and children drove to Lakeside for the Fourth.

Mrs. Jack Cooper, of Bear Creek, is visiting at the Adolph Malhu home while her husband is in the Coquille Hospital, recovering from a broken leg. The accident happened in a logging camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gilbert and family and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barnes returned from their trip to Portland, reporting a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Mary Olsen and Roy Detillon, of Fat Elk, Bobbie Morgan, of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Clausen and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Shelton and family, all enjoyed a picnic up Myrtle Creek Sunday at the home of Mrs. Olsen's uncle, Ed Rice.
