

AMERICA FIRST, LAST AND ALWAYS!

"Man of Conquest" brings to the screen for the first time the romance, color and achievements of America's great soldier-statesman, Sam Houston, who avenged the Alamo and established the independence of Texas. Representing an investment of a million dollars and many months of research, "Man of Conquest" is Republic's spectacular bid for a place among the leaders in screen entertainment.

OPENING AT THE ROXY FOR THREE DAYS STARTING SUNDAY

MAVIS TYRRELL

—LeMille Photo

Here's one Coquille candidate who has made up her mind that she won't be satisfied with a cash commission. Mavis has set her mind on a bicycle and has been going about her campaign work with determination to win. These next two days will tell the story—if she put everything she has into her campaign between now and 9 o'clock Saturday night, she can win any prize she wants. Your subscription, paid by that time, can help her and will save you money.

Wedding Announcement Made At McNelly Home Thursday

Announcement of the approaching wedding of Miss Jean McNelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. McNelly who reside on the Fairview road north of Coquille, to Preston Moy, of this city, was made at a luncheon at the McNelly home last Thursday afternoon. The date for the nuptials was announced for July 27.

A dozen of Miss Jean's intimate friends had been invited by Mrs. McNelly, and the announcement was made by means of hand-painted cards beside the china slipper favors at each guest's place.

The centerpiece of the table decorations were the golden slippers, flower filled, which Miss McNelly will wear when she becomes a bride.

Since her graduation from Coquille High the bride-to-be has been employed at Brandon's confectionery. Mr. Moy is an employee at the Smith Wood-Products plant and is relief operator at the Roxy theatre.

Young Matrons' Club Met Wednesday

Young Matrons club met at the home of Mrs. Westley Travis on Wednesday afternoon. The following were present: Mrs. Lavern McCue and Jerry, Frank DeCosta and Dolores, Fred Martin, Enno Dornath and daughters, Ronald Burr and Jo Deanne, Jack Clouse and Louise, Ernest Embree, Weldon Curtis and Ethel Mae, the hostess and her daughters. The afternoon was spent playing Pinochle and Hop-ohing, high scores being won by Mrs. Embree and Mrs. Curtis. Door prize for the afternoon was awarded to Mrs. Clouse. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ronald Burr.

Probate Court Cases

Daisy D. Graham was last Friday appointed administratrix of the $1500 estate left by J. D. Graham, who passed away here March 23. Appraisers of the estate are J. S. Barton, R. H. Creager and A. O. Walker.

Homemakers' Camp At Lake Cleawox

The fifth annual Homemakers' Vacation Camp for homemakers in Coos county will be held from August 1st to 6th, at Lake Cleawox, which is three miles south of Florence on the Coast Highway. Miss Julia Bennett will be director of the camp this year and Mrs. Rex Ingram, of Marshfield, will be assistant director. Cleawox Lake is considered the loveliest now used in Oregon, according to Mrs. Azalea Sager, the state home demonstration leader. Mrs. Esther Ward will again be the swimming instructor in the section of the lake shore which has been logged off into an excellent swimming pool, with both shallow and deep water, making it an ideal spot for persons learning to swim.

Mrs. George Bryant, of Coquille, who has given many interesting discussions on her recent trip to Europe, will be a discussion leader for one of the regular afternoon discussion groups. Another of the discussion leaders will be Mrs. Frances Holmstrom, Coos county poetess and authoress. Others who will lead discussions will be announced later.

The cost of camp this year will be $4.50 for the entire six-day period as it was last year. Of this total amount, $1.50 may be furnished in produce such as fruits, vegetables, and meats if the homemaker desires. Every woman in the county is invited to enroll for the camp at Lake Cleawox. It does not matter whether she is a member of any extension group or particular club or organization, for all girls and women from 18 years to 98 years are welcome.

For further information concerning registration, write to Julia Bennett, home demonstration agent, at the court house, Coquille or call at the county agent's office before July 24, which is the deadline for registration.

Pot Luck Supper At Pioneer Church

A pot luck supper has been announced for next Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the dining hall of Pioneer Methodist Church to which all the members and friends of the church are invited.

This supper will have a three-fold significance: First, it will be in the nature of a reception for the pastor and his family, they having been returned to Pioneer Church for another year. Second, it will also be a reception and fellowship hour for the thirty new members who have been received during the past year. And third, it will celebrate the final union of the two local Methodist churches, as the two congregations are now merged in accordance with the plan of union adopted at Kansas City two months ago.

The program for Monday evening is being arranged by a committee of three with Ernest Purvance as chairman, while the supper committee is headed by Mrs. Orville Newton. No formal invitations are being sent out but all members and friends of Pioneer Church are cordially invited to attend.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Finds Unrest Universal In East

Allan A. Hall returned Monday evening from his five weeks' trip back to northern New York state, where he spent nearly a month with his father, who is 83 years of age.

In commenting on the trip, Mr. Hall mentions the very fine and economical service to be had on the Union Pacific's "The Rose," from Portland to Chicago. Meals per person total 90 cents a day, 25c for breakfast, 30c for lunch and 65c for dinner, and all you want.

He tried to get a cross section of political thought in the east, and of economic conditions and, to quote him, he felt better with every advancing mile on his return trip. "We don't know out here on the Pacific coast how well we are."

The economic condition is sickening, crime of all kinds is rampant; factories are closing every day due to the burdens imposed by a government policy whose sole idea is that of spending.

Mr. Hall says he found a sentiment among both democrats and republicans in favor of Jack Garner next year. Party lines include the consolidation of republicans and democrats in one camp, new dealers in the other.

But the new dealers are becoming fewer and where eight years ago the talk that there might be revolution in the United States was laid at the door of Herbert Hoover, the shoe is on the other foot now—in the east—and the Rooseveltian new deal policy is talked as the cause of possible revolt.

Controlled inflation is another suggestion for curing our ills, and another is a return to the American theory of government as distinguished from the policies which have been in force for more than six years.

Anyone desiring illumination on conditions as they exist in New York can get much to think over by having a little talk with Mr. Hall.

One incident Mr. Hall witnessed might be called humorous, although it wasn't really. A drunken driver of a milk truck collided with a car and two others were involved. The milk was spilled on the pavement, became mixed with escaping gasoline, and a dog which eagerly lapped up the milk, became as intoxicated as the Coquille men who mix buttermilk and gasoline for their toddy.

The driver was fined $10 although the damage he caused amounted to more than $500.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

JEWEL CAPPS

Tennis Court To Be Built Before Summer Passes

Plans for the construction of the new Coquille tennis court project are now under way and if all details are worked out successfully, actual work will commence about the 20th of this month, according to announcement of Mayor R. F. Milne.

Threat of strike among WPA workers which might affect local labor and official sanction of the WPA office to change the location of the court from the ball park to the city myrtle grove are the only obstacles that might delay progress. However, favorable indications are already apparent that these matters will be overcome.

The court will be built in the grove by virtue of formal action Monday by members of the Coquille junior chamber of commerce, authorizing the council to make the change. It was felt advisable that as long as the grove could be obtained as a site for the project, it would be more accessible and convenient to the public. Marlin Brandon, junior chamber committeeman in charge of the project, informed the council of this decision of the club.

There is $661 available from various charitable funds that have accumulated in the city for the past several years and these, together with funds raised by the junior chamber will be used to defray the cost of materials to be used in the construction. All labor will be furnished by the WPA.

The court will be built between the Legion hall and the Boy Scout building to the north of the community building.

Geneva Agostino And John Norton Married at Crescent City

A belated wedding announcement is that of the marriage of Miss Geneva Agostino and John T. Norton, both of Coquille, which occurred at Crescent City, Calif., on July 1. The bride and her sister, Mrs. Marguerite Brodie, and Mrs. J. L. Morgan had been on their vacation, visiting the fair at San Francisco and were met at Crescent City by Mr. Norton and the bride's mother, Mrs. V. Finley. The ceremony was performed in the Catholic church there at one p. m. and was followed by a wedding dinner at the Lauff hotel.

From there the newlyweds went to the Oregon caves and Crater lake, returning to Coquille on the Fourth. They are making their home in one of the apartments in the C. W. Ashton home.

Both these young people are employees at the Smith plant, the bride in the office where she has been for several years. The groom came to Coquille from Boston, Mass., something less than two years ago.

Campaign Drive Ends Saturday

placed in the window as soon as the judges have finished, showing how the candidates placed. Those receiving bicycles may get them immediately, and those receiving commissions will receive their checks in the mail not later than Tuesday.

Preparations have been made to handle a big rush of business on the final days of the campaign and everything is in readiness to take care of the candidates and to make the final count as quickly as possible.

Scores of subscribers are coming to the Sentinel office to pay their subscriptions for their favorite candidates before it is too late, and the special rate is off.

During this campaign a special price of $5.00 for three years has been made with the special price applying to new, renewal and to those who have allowed their subscriptions to get delinquent.

This very special offer for both new and renewal subscribers expires with the end of the campaign 9 o'clock Saturday night, July 15.

If you have promised your subscription to one of the candidates, or intend giving it to one of the entries, now is the time to act—before 9 o'clock Saturday night. Bring or mail it to this office, where it will be credited to him or her today. Your subscription may be the one needed to win the most valuable prize for your favorite.

Rushing around this last week as they are, candidates cannot be blamed for overlooking you if you have promised your subscription. Look over the list of candidates in today's paper and then pay your subscription to the credit of your favorite.

Candidates Hustle Candidates are working at top speed now, for they realize that time is short and the five beautiful bicycles plus the $10 cash prize are well worth their very best efforts these last few hours. Candidates are asked to read the large announcement elsewhere in this issue, and to come in some time Friday or Saturday to check up the amount of money they have turned in, the amount of votes and the number of points they have with the campaign manager.

All candidates are required to fill in and sign two copies each of the two different statements which will be given them when they come in to check up with the campaign manager. Parents must also sign these statements. These must be at the campaign office when the campaign ends. These statements are to make certain that every candidate has received credit for all subscriptions he or she has handed in.

There are only two more days, candidates—don't be sorry, when it is too late, that you didn't do your very best.
