J. G. W. Picnic Held Sunday

The ladies of the J. G. W. club, their husbands and a few guests enjoyed a delightful day at the Gould cottage in the Ko-Keel Kanu Klub grounds on the East Fork last Sunday. More than half of those attending went out for an 8:30 o'clock breakfast and there were 27 who sat down to the tables on the river front porch for the dinner at 1:30 p. m.

The Sentinel has remarked in the past that there are no better cooks and cake makers in Coos county than these J. G. W. ladies and the statement is still true.

The day was very pleasantly spent, the ladies putting in the time roaming around that beautiful section of the East Fork county, conversing, etc. The men made a trip up to the two logging operations of the L. B. L. company, the last one part way up the mountain of the Coast range grade, five or six miles above Sitkum.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames J. A. Lamb, A. N. Gould, J. E. Norton, C. J. Fuhrman, E. E. Johnson, Lloyd Ross, O. C. Sanford, Ed. Lorenz, H. A. Young, and Mrs. Birdie Skeels, of Coquille; Mrs. Alice Stark, of Weiser, Idaho; Mrs. Emma Liljeqvist, of Portland; Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Endicott, Mrs. Marvin Lyons and Mrs. Catherine Huling, of Marshfield; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Walstrom, of Bandon.

Shower For Mrs. John Norton

Miss Marjorie Knight invited twenty-five young ladies to a tea at the Theo L. Clinton home on the Myrtle Point highway last Saturday afternoon. It was a surprise shower for Mrs. John Norton—the former Geneva Agostino, who was married at Crescent City the first of July.

The wedding march was played as the bride entered the room where the guests were assembled and Miss Gretchen Clinton rendered several piano selections during the very pleasant afternoon. The rooms had been beautifully decorated with flowers and greenery for the occasion. Jean Laird and Gretchen Clinton presided at the tea table.

Those invited to attend were: La Verne Knife, Carol Young, Inez Rover, Ruth Dey, Alta Brandt, Audrey Stamper, Gertrude Swinney, Ruth Clayton, Edna Robison, Blythe Saylor, Lorraine Perrott, Beverly Norton, Evelyn Elliott, Dorothy Fish, Maxine Knight, Carolyn Perrott, Margarita Brodie, Faye Wagner, Margaret Belloni, Lotus Eaton, Margaret Purvance, Maxine Stevens, Bernice Ireland, Frances Detlefsen, Doris Caudle, Dora Kendall, Gertrude Kendall, Mary Stevens, Becky Morgan, Hazel Foss, Blanche Sandon, Irene Sandon, Bertha Smith and Lois Fehn.

Loyal Womans Class Meets

The regular meeting of the Loyal Woman's Class of the Church of Christ was held Thursday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Fred Schaer. Following the devotions, committee reports were given and other business conducted. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. McCue in serving dainty refreshments during the afternoon. Those present included Mesdames A. N. Foley, A. Towne, Kenneth Stockhoff, Cal Young, C. C. Farr, Verne Bailey, Mary Newton, Pearl Cardwell, M. V. Roady, Jennie Lafferty, Harold McCue and the hostess.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Estey.

Shower For Jean McNelly

Mrs. H. S. Norton, Mrs. Effie Miller and Mrs. E. E. Leslie were joint hostesses Friday at a delightful 1:15 dessert bridge. A feature of the affair was the gift shower for Miss Jean McNelly, who is soon to become the bride of Preston Moy. A gift was also presented to the bride's mother.

Six tables of bridge followed the luncheon, at which high score was awarded to Mrs. William Bourne, with second being won by Mrs. Frank Thrift.

The rooms were charmingly decorated with gladioli and rosebuds.

Entertains With Lawn Party

Jane Kramer entertained sixteen of her girl friends at a lawn party, July 14, at her home. After playing croquet and tennis during the warm afternoon, the girls gathered on the lawn for iced drinks and lady fingers. The invited guests were: Ann Hawkins, Markie Smith, Mary Jane and Donna Dunn, Jean Laird, Jeanne Clasterbos, Elaine Gray, Barbara Leslie, Gretchen Clinton and Donna Dean Bosserman, of Coquille. The out-of-town guests were Mary Bundy and Nan Duckett, of Powers, Alya Belshaw, Faye Johnson, Ardella Mitchell and Phyllis Belloni, of Myrtle Point.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY

Emma Frances Mulkey was given a surprise party by Elois Wilson at the latter's home on South Myrtle, last evening. Margaret Purvance assisted Miss Wilson, and the rooms were beautifully decorated with gladioli and sweet peas.

Music and games preceded the refreshments which were served by the hostesses to Geraldine Holcomb, Annamse Holverstott, Dorothy Belle Newton, Dorothy Bennett, of Myrtle Point, Edythe Farr, Rae Allen, Leonard and Donald Farr, Jack Towne and Charles Mulkey.
