Miss Margaret Purvance was the recipient of a surprise party and miscellaneous shower last Friday evening in honor of her approaching marriage to Mr. Hubert Ulrich of Portland. The affair was held in Pioneer hall and given by the ladies of the Pioneer Missionary Society. To say Margaret was surprised is putting it mildly. The hall was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and foliage and in the center of a large table covered in white was an umbrella decorated with white crepe paper ruffles, long white streamers and a silver slipper. A large bouquet with the traditional pearls and a gift book completed the setting. The serving table was in crystal and white and was presided over by Misses Myrtle Minter, Eleanor Peterson and Muriel Davis. Hostesses were: Mesdames Henry Ellis, Louis Fugelson, K. P. Lawrence and W. A. Ireland. The evening was spent in chatting and looking at the large array of gifts. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. Purvance, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Graybeal, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Southard, Mesdames June Walker, Elizabeth Oden, Belle Elwood, Ella Nelson, Birdie Skeels, Bob Lawrence, Russell Wilson, Elton Savage, Frank Leslie, Frank Schram, Walter Oeding, Etta Marie Wagner, Ida Wagner, Orville Newton, H. A. Minter, Harold McCue, Leland Peart, Cyril McCurdy, Miranda Way, W. P. Laws, G. A. Gray, Blanche Davis, C. A. Tyrrell, Warren Davis, Henry Belloni, O. B. Harriman, Lundy Peart, Misses Claudia Jean Southard, Leona Bloom, Harriet Walker, Eleanor Peterson, Myrtle Minter, Beverly Lawrence, Muriel Davis, the guest of honor and hostesses.

The "Eadriens" drove to Allegany Monday to spend the day with Mrs. Roy Neal. The ladies had a great time talking, sewing, etc., with a bountiful luncheon at noon. About everyone received a birthday gift in honor of their natal day. Those going from Coquille were: Mesdames W. E. Bosserman, E. M. Kay, Geo. Johnson and Earl Nosler. Others were Mrs. F. A. Robb, Mrs. J. L. Aasen of North Bend and a guest, Mrs. Jas. Brady of Allegany.

Mrs. Charles Lewis was hostess to the Pinochle club members Friday for one o'clock dessert luncheon. Mrs. Leslie McElhaney won high at pinochle and Mrs. Byers, won second. Mrs. Wells received high score at Chinese checkers. Present were: Mesdames A. O. Culbertson, Roy Wheeler, Roy Byer, M. L. Foss, Leslie McElhaney, Ralph Hurlburt, Albert Wells, J. E. McLarrin, Jack Jarvis and the hostess.

The "Charter Club" met Thursday for 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Edna Stewart. At pinochle which followed, Mrs. Wm. Nelson won high score and Mrs. Roy Byer, low. Present were: Mesdames Walter Paulson, Ernest Whereat, Wm. Nelson, Val Harless, Jay Carter, M. L. Foss, Roy Byer, Lyle Knox and the hostess.

In honor of Hal Stevens' fifth birthday, his mother, Mrs. Harold Stevens and grandmother, Mrs. J. L. Stevens, gave him a party Saturday afternoon from two until five o'clock. The youngsters had a grand time playing all sorts of games and then gathered round the festive board where a birthday cake and all the trimmings awaited them. Children present were: Nancy Perrott, Patty Detlefsen, Patty Brown, Ranny Morris, Bobby Stevens, Bobby and Ganet Swinney, Lindley Simpson, Janice Epps, Gene and Bill Alvert, Judy Perrott, Bill Stevens and Hal. Mothers present were: Mrs. Mary Stevens, Mrs. Mary Epps and Mrs. Lorraine

Junior Women Plan For District Confab

About 15 local juniors have expressed their intentions of attending the Bandon convention Sunday. Mrs. J. Arthur Berg and Maybell Robinson are planning to attend the 9:30 o'clock breakfast for all junior presidents, past presidents, and contact chairmen of Lane, Linn, Benton, Lincoln, Douglas, and Coos counties. They will be the guests of the Bandon juniors. Coquille is contributing two numbers toward the program during the day. Peg Gould, Eunice Barrow, and Estel Sohler will sing a trio selection accompanied by Rose Naef at the piano. Cherie Mae Hartwell will give a reading, "Mrs. Pester."

Thirteen juniors represented the Coquille club at the county convention tea, held in the Washington grade school auditorium Tuesday afternoon. Eighty-three women were present during the day. The juniors of Coquille were in charge of the tea table, beautiful with ecru lace cloth, six pink taper candles, and large centerpiece of asters. Estel Sohler, chairman, was assisted about the room by Mabel Tucker, Eunice Barrow, Helen Ayers, Gertrude Swinney, and Hazel Foss. The junior president poured tea at one end of the table and the senior president at the other end. Geraldine Thornton and Jean Moy were in charge of the collection of dishes for the tea. The silver offering went into the county federation treasury.

One hundred Coquille junior club yearbooks are being printed this week by the Sentinel office. A copy will be exhibited at the District No. 2 Junior convention at Bandon on Sunday, October 22. A copy will be given to each paid member of the club as soon as sufficient outside covers have been made by the committee in charge.

The paid membership of the club now stands at 70 with several more girls expecting to join by the next meeting, which will be Monday evening.
