Jive Session

Saturday Night

Coquille will again be the chosen spot for the usual Saturday night entertainment center. This Saturday, Don and Spenny's popular band will hold another meeting of the "hepcats" and also entertainment for the older folks as they plan a mixed concoction of music that will please the entire dance gathering.

The old tunes that are the "immortals" of many a dance crowd will be featured, together with the newer hits of the day. Bob Spears and his new "ultra moderne" accordion will hold an important part in the entertainment program so everyone is assured a grand time. Let's all turn out for an evening of fun and help Coquille remain the entertainment center of southwestern Oregon.

BELLE KNIFE HOSPITAL

A six pounds and nine ounces baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Denton Ellingsen at the hospital yesterday.

Leonard Scolari underwent a mastoid operation and Joyce Maugh, of Coquille, a tonsillectomy on Monday. Three operations were performed on Tuesday—Roy Guadt, of the S. P., an appendectomy; Mary Vincent, also an appendicitis operation, and a major operation for Mrs. Elmer McCue. Dismissals the past week were Tom Middleton last Friday, Bill Fadon on Saturday and Floyd Smith on Monday.

To Examine Basketball Official Applicants Dec. 8

Clarence Osika, high school principal, announces that he will hold the examination of prospective basketball officials for the Coos high school conference games at the Coquille high school at four p. m. on Friday Dec. 8. The basketball season opens the first week in January, but an effort is being made to schedule a game with Klamath Falls High on Dec. 28, the game to be here.

Red Devils To Be Admitted Free At Myrtle Point Dance

For his 30-minute in Spain dance in the V. F. W. hall at Myrtle Point this coming Saturday evening, Fred Bull, of Babe's Entertainers, has invited all members of the Coquille High football squad to come as guests. The invitation is the result of a one-sided bet he made last week, that the Red Devils would score in their game at Medford.

Births At Coquille Hospital

An eight-pound son, who has been named Stanley Edgar, Jr., was born to Mr. and Mrs. Stan Sherwood on Monday of this week.

A baby boy, named John Edwin and who weighed seven pounds and 11 ounces, was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Whitney, of the McKinley route, on Wednesday.
