

Society and Clubs

Mrs. Aaron Wilson, of Myrtle Point, entertained the Friendly Dozen Wednesday afternoon. An enjoyable time was spent in chatting and sewing. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those motoring from Coquille were: Mesdames Clyde Minard, Sam Arnold, L. C. Kelley, Louis Fugelson, Fred Wheaton, A. G. Trendell and George Matney.

Wednesday afternoon, the Episcopal Guild ladies met in the Parish House for Bible study and a social time. Mrs. Jas. Watson and Mrs. G. S. Gosline were hostesses. Present were: Mesdames W. H. Mansell, Hal Pierce, M. Gratke, L. H. Hazard, Geo. Sherwood, John Martin, Frank Pook, Clarence Tuttle, A. N. Gould, R. L. Stewart, C. V. Smith, C. J. Fuhrman, E. M. Briner, C. T. Selbig, Henry and Edward Lorenz, Lee Hand, A. J. Sherwood, Annie Robinson, Charles Stauff, H. A. Young, Fred Kunz, Geo. Bryant and Rev. G. R. Turney.

Tuesday evening, Mrs. Julius Ruble entertained her bridge club. The rooms looked lovely with large bouquets of chrysanthemums. At bridge, Mrs. O. T. Gant won high score and Mrs. D. B. Estes, second. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour. Members present were: Mesdames Kenneth Kistner, Walter Litzember, O. T. Gant, E. A. Walker, D. B. Estes, J. E. Axtell, Paul Trojel, Fred Watson and the hostess.

"The Humming Birds" is the name chosen by one of the Bluebird groups of Campfire girls under the leadership of Miss Roop. Martha Berg is assistant leader. This group is studying foreign countries. Officers were chosen as follows: president, Joanne Savage; vice president, Carol Jean Gray; secretary, Sally Bonney, and treasurer, Ann Harbison. Other members are Dorothy Hughes, Rose Marie Peart, Allene Hunt, Letha Harless, Helen Marie Hildebrand, Berlyn Scott, Nancy Grant, Gale Shick, Mona Pinklin and Lenore Wormstaff.

"Coquille" is the name of another group of bluebirds, under the leadership of Miss Cherie Mare Hartwell. They took their name from the Indians who once inhabited this area. They have sent for their charter.

The two older groups, "Ha-spo-che" and "Cheskchamay" are working together in their activities. They are selling Christmas cards and are making a gift package for the Veterans Home in Alaska. They are also collecting gifts for the Doernbecher Hospital in Portland. They are also busy making place cards, which are for sale at Bergen's Flower Shop. On December 13, all of the groups will have a Christmas party in the Washington school building. They plan at that time to bring their gifts for Doernbecher Hospital. Each group is also to furnish one number toward the program. A new group is being started, composed of sixth grade girls, with Mrs. Wardrip as leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson and daughter, Judith Ann, returned Sunday from a ten days vacation spent in Oakland, Calif., visiting Mr. Wilson's relatives.

Jr. Woman's Club

Pilgrim silhouettes of orange art paper; quins; Thanksgiving favor baskets of orange art paper filled with mints; Thanksgiving paper napkins and placards decorated the long tables in Guild hall at the Coquille Junior Woman's club potluck dinner, in charge of Emma Briggs and Doris Caudie. Large colored pictures of turkeys decorated the walls of the room.

The serving committee was composed of Dena Pierce, Esther Jensen, Zelma Hopkins, Leah Rover and Inez Rover. Nearly fifty girls attended. Guests of the evening were: Beverly Norton, Norene McKeown, Cecilia Dehne and Leona Bryant.

Maybell Robinson, president, conducted a short business meeting during the course of the dinner. Year-books were distributed to the members who had not previously received them. A balance of over $117 was reported by the treasurer.

The hostess committee for the next meeting will be Geraldine Thornton, Eileen Kendall, Audrey Stamper and Lucille Walker.

Alberta Brandon gave a report on the very successful barn dance, sponsored jointly by the Woman's club and the Junior Chamber of Commerce on November 18. Net proceeds for the Junior Women were $25.

Mary Stevens outlined plans for the annual Christmas party, which will be held in Guild hall Tuesday evening, December 19. Every member is requested to bring a wrapped gift to the party. Names will be drawn during the evening, so that each girl will receive a present on the club's Christmas tree.

Marietta Biegger and Lucille McEnry were appointed representatives for the Christmas Basket community dance to be held on December 9 in the Community Building. Each club in Coquille is expected to sell fifty tickets at 75c per couple. The Junior Woman's club is acting as chairman of the advertising committee for the dance. The money from the dance will be used to buy Christmas baskets for the needy.

The girls decided to hold another public dance in the Community Building on December 23. Detailed plans will be announced at the next meeting.

Linda, the club's "Dream Doll," and her complete wardrobe, trunk, and high-chair will be given away on December 20.

At the conclusion of the business session, Mrs. Leona Bryant showed two hours of colored motion pictures which she took while in Europe a year ago. England, Scotland, Italy, France and various ocean views were particularly appreciated by the members. Mrs. Bryant very interestingly discussed the pictures which she showed.

The next regular meeting will be held on December 11 at eight o'clock in Guild hall at which time the state president, Mrs. Harold Peterson, will make her annual visit to the club. A musical program has been arranged and a very interesting evening is planned.

Carnival At Fat Elk School Friday Night

The Fat Elk School children and their teacher, Florence Oerding, invite the public to a potluck luck dinner, carnival and party to be held Friday, Dec. 1.

Those coming for dinner are requested to bring one covered dish and enough buttered bread for their own families. Dinner will be eaten promptly at seven-thirty.

A brag-bag table and "beano" are planned for which there will be a charge made. Several games are planned for which there will be no charge. All money raised is intended for scholarships for Philip Clausen and Robert Morgan, two 4-H club members. This will enable them to go to summer school at Corvallis next June. All prizes were donated to the school by the following Coquille merchants: Busy Corner, Slater's, Cow Bell Dairy, J. C. Penney Co., Thrift's Grocery, Folsom's Grocery. We wish to take this opportunity to thank these merchants.

Probate Court Cases

Frank E. Fogde, of Marshfield, was last Friday appointed administrator of the estate left by Gust A. Roos, who died at Marshfield, Nov. 11. Felix Kester, A. Nash and Martha Fogde are appraisers of the estate which is estimated to be worth $1200 in real property and $9,000 in personal.

Alfred J. Mattson was on Monday named as administrator of the estate of his late wife, Amy Mattson, who died at Coos Bay, Nov. 21.

Rev. Wm. McLeod, of Portland, was on Monday confirmed as executor of the will of Rev. L. A. LeMiller, who died at North Bend, leaving an estate of $1,000. The appraisers are A. J. Eberhart, Earl G. Stephens and Father Louis Derouin.

A petition for probating the will of Elizabeth Tyberg, who died Nov. 16, was filed in court on Tuesday. The estate is estimated to be worth $7,500.

Two divorces were granted by Judge Brand in circuit court here last Saturday, to Alice L. Hunting, separating her from Wm. Hunting, and to Elinor Cothrell from Jos. L. Cothrell.
