

McKinley News

McKinley Grange, No. 582, held the annual election of officers last Saturday night. M. C. Miller was re-elected for the third time to serve as master. Harry Mast was elected to serve as overseer, succeeding E. P. S. Abernethy, who has also been the worthy master of this grange a number of years and has served in other offices also. Mrs. Beatrice Rhule succeeds Mrs. Rosabel Brown as lecturer. Mrs. Brown has a long record of service as she was active in this grange before her marriage to Rex Brown and ever since her return to this neighborhood has given outstanding service in all community activities. Mrs. Reba Alford was elected chaplain in place of Mrs. Hatfield; Clarence Churchill re-elected steward; Mrs. Zilphia Krewsen re-elected secretary; Mrs. Ethel Abernethy re-elected treasurer; Ceres, Pomona and Flora are respectively; Mrs. Martha McCarthy, Miss Velma Krewson and Mrs. Mildred King. Other re-elections were Delbert King, assistant steward; Mrs. Hilda Brown, lady assistant steward. Ivan Mast has the office of gatekeeper. W. W. Rhule, Severus McCarthy and J. B. O'Sullivan were elected as members of the executive committee. The only Pomona officers from this grange is M. C. Miller, who was elected overseer. He has announced that a class will receive the fifth degree, (Pomona), at the next meeting which will be held at the community hall.

Thanksgiving, homecoming and birthday celebrations were observed at the Kenneth Hansen home Sunday when the W. W. Lawhorns, the H. L. Hansens, the Wm. Frames, A. M. Shepherd and Vern Hansen partook of a most delicious dinner.

Other family gatherings were the David and Henry Levinsons; the Leonard Lawhorns had her mother, Mrs. Mary Gage, and sister, Helene, and Mrs. Birdie Skeels. The Sullivans entertained the McCarthys and Freemans. The Browns enjoyed their celebration together after the Rex Browns had returned from Tillamook. It was a combination birthday and Thanksgiving dinner.

Mrs. James Howard, of Riverton, and three small lads visited with her sister, Mrs. Reuben Brown, the last week.

Nevy Heller and wife spent the holiday in Portland visiting Mrs. Heller's father.

McKinley folks were very sorry to lose Charles and Vesta Thomas from this neighborhood but they feel they can be of more service in grange work by becoming members of the grange where Charles will be located for several years, as he has a logging contract near Azalea.

Dr. O. P. Heller, county veterinarian, was a business caller at the W. W. Lawhorn home last Monday.

Pretty Wedding at Fairview Tuesday Evening

The Fairview church was the scene of a very pretty candlelight wedding at eight o'clock Tuesday evening when Miss Viola Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, of Fairview, became the bride of Donald Phillips, of Bandon, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips, of Oakland, Oregon. Rev. C. W. Laughton, of Powers, read the services before an altar, banked with yellow and pink chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length princess gown of eggshell taffeta made with short full sleeves, plaited collar and sweetheart neck. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pink carnations and wore a wreath of orange blossoms in her hair. Her only jewelry was a gold cross necklace.

Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Helen Johnson, who wore a floor-length aqua-blue taffeta and carried white and yellow chrysanthemums.

Mr. Clayton E. Smith, of Bandon, was best man and Messrs. Floyd and William Smith, both of Coquille, were ushers. Miss Luella Laughton sang, "The Little Old Garden," and C. E. (Doc) Nevin sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. C. S. Duncanson at the organ. She also played the wedding march. Many lovely and useful gifts were received.

Following the ceremony the young couple remained at the church to receive the best wishes of the wedding guests and then quietly slipped away on an unknown destination. They will make their home at Bandon.

The bride was born in Fairview and grew to womanhood there and her wedding was the first ever celebrated in the Fairview church.

Purvance-Ulrich Marriage Solemnized

Miss Margaret Purvance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Purvance, became the bride of Mr. Hubert Ulrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ulrich of Portland, at a lovely ceremony Thanksgiving Day at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. R. L. Gile, in Roseburg. Rev. Kenneth Wishart, pastor of the Peninsula Ave. Evangelical Church of Portland and brother-in-law of the groom, officiated.

The beautifully decorated improvised altar in front of the fireplace, was banked with sprays of sword ferns and huckleberry and flanked by large baskets of Turner chrysanthemums. Other bouquets of chrysanthemums were used about the candle-lit room.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Marie Ellis of Portland, sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Myrtle Minter, of Coquille, and Mr. Oscar Carlson, of Salem, violinist. Miss Elois Wilson sang "Oh Perfect Love" at the close of the ceremony.

The bride was charming in a white taffeta floor length gown and her white tulle wedding veil was fashioned with a head wreath of lilies of the valley. She carried a round shower bouquet of bouvardia, tallasman roses, sweet peas, gardenia and ageratum. Miss Elois Wilson, as bridesmaid was her only attendant. She wore a formal frock of aqua blue and carried a bouquet of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums. Eldon Ulrich, brother of the groom acted as best man. Little two-year old Nancy Marie Gile, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a frock of yellow silk with matching hair ribbons.

Following the most impressive wedding service, a Thanksgiving dinner was served, buffet style, in the dining room which was beautifully decorated. The table was centered with a large bouquet of chrysanthemums in pastel shades and asparagus fern. The two tiered bride's cake, which was cut by the bride, was decorated with white and pastel colored rosebuds and topped by a tiny bride and groom.

An informal musical program was enjoyed, at which time the groom sang, accompanied by the bride. A few numbers were sung by the Dolce trio and a few numbers by the violinist, Mr. Carlson.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ulrich, Eldon, Ivan and Gladys, Miss Marie Ellis, Miss Pauline Hayden, Gerald and Gordon Jaffer, Rev. and Mrs. K. Wishart, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gile and son, Schuyler and Oscar Carlson, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Wilson and Elois, Miss Myrtle Minter, Miss Eleanor Peterson and Richard Christianson, of Coquille. Attending from Roseburg were: Mrs. R. L. Gile, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gile and Nancy Marie, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Masters, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Osborne, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Miss Marion Murray, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Post and Mr. and Mrs. Washington Hughes.

Following the reception, the happy couple left on a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Portland. For traveling, the bride wore a teal blue frock and matching coat with black accessories.

The bride graduated from the grammar and high schools in Coquille and later attended the Bible College in Portland, where she majored in music. She worked as stenographer for Smith Wood-Products Co., preceding her marriage. The groom is a student at the Bible College in Portland. Both bride and groom are talented musicians. The bride's many friends in Coquille wish her much happiness.
