Townsend Club

The local Townsend Club met Tuesday evening for regular business session, with President Drake in the chair.

All members take notice! Next meeting, Dec. 5, nominations of officers for 1940. Be sure and come if you are interested in your club. A good crowd was out this week, 60 in attendance. This was free pie and coffee night. All present enjoyed the orchestra music.

Next meeting will be dance night, so come and have a good time.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the club met with Mrs. W. W. Tilghman on Friday, with the following present: Mesdames E. A. Wimer, Z. C. Strang, Jerry Peart, Leo J. Cary, A. M. McIntee, H. A. McCue, Tom Drake, Geo. Wilkinson, Leontine Knox, Myrtle Jones, W. H. Schroeder, R. Newton, and the hostess. Lovely refreshments were served and the hostess was surprised with a large birthday cake in honor of her natal day this month. —Press Cor.

Riverton School

F. F. A.
The F. F. A. boys recently purchased ten new blue sweat pants and ten blue sweat shirts for the main string high school basketball players. The words, "Riverton Trojans," made of white felt, will be stitched across the outfits.

Improvements
Lines are to be painted on the floor of the old gymnasium and a general cleaning is to take place in that room so that the "Scrubs" can practice basketball in there.

The old lockers in the boys' dressing room have been torn out and the lumber has been made into benches. Hooks have been put into the walls for the boys' clothing.

A new scoreboard, 30 in. x 4 feet, has been built in the gymnasium. The numbers to indicate the scores are 6x7 inches.

The P. U. C. plates for the three district-owned buses have arrived. These plates show that the buses have been inspected by the state police and that they now meet all safety requirements.

Teachers
Harold Beall spent the Thanksgiving holidays in McMinnville, Portland, and Salem; Miss Dorothy Rowland, in Eugene; Carroll Rycraft, in Corvallis; Wayne Robinson, in his bed at the Coquille Hospital; Mr. Leonard at home on Bullards Route with company from Portland, Corvallis and Eugene; Mrs. Joyce Owen, in Riverton; Miss Opal Robison, at her home in Arago, and Mrs. Marcella Rawe, in Klamath Falls.

Basketball
The first and second string boys' basketball teams will play the Marshfield teams at Marshfield Friday evening. This will be the third practice game of the season. The second game was played against Langlois at Langlois Tuesday evening. The student body attended this game with transportation being provided by the Bear Creek bus.

New Arrival
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barnes, (Geraldine Gilbert), are the parents of an eight pound daughter, Judith Joy, born Saturday morning at the Mast Hospital in Myrtle Point. Geraldine was a member of the Riverton graduating class of 1937.

Off Crutches
Clifton White, who has been on crutches since August as the result of an automobile accident is able to get around without them now.

Visitors
The high school had three visitors last week—Quentin Church, graduate of 1938; Hazel Heffley, 1939; and Muriel Herman, 1939.

Grade School
Mr. Leonard is giving the boys and girls of his room a forty-five minute physical education period each day.

All six weeks tests except arithmetic and spelling were given the seventh and eighth graders last week. Arithmetic was given Monday, and spelling Tuesday this week.

The grade school combined to give a little Thanksgiving program in the gymnasium last Wednesday afternoon.

With the Classes
Several members of the Oregon History class have received the material which they requested from the Chamber of Commerce in practically every county of the state. They will each give a talk on the resources, industries, tourist attractions, etc., of the county to which they have been assigned.

Alice Church leads the typing 1 class with a net rate of 29 words per minute on a fifteen minute speed test. Genevieve Fetch is second with a rate of 22 words per minute on the same length test.

Mrs. Robinson has been testing each member of the public speaking class on reading and writing speed and voice tones in connection with the regular lecture part of the class work.

show: I average, Junior Smith; II average, eighth grade, Mary June Foote, Billie Smith, Lester Cross, Chester Oylear, Elvin Wilmark; fifth grade, Molly Oylear and Bobby Detlefsen.

Health-o-meter scales, a football and several new books have been purchased from funds raised at our Halloween party.

The lower grades have started work on their Christmas program.
