

Society and Clubs

One of the loveliest affairs of the season was the dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Sanford, worthy patron and worthy matron of Beulah Chapter, O. E. S., to their officers at the hotel Thursday evening. The long table was a vision, the decorations being symbolic of Christmas and the Eastern Star. The setting was enhanced by a tiny church, whose chimes pealed forth that familiar Christmas carol, "Silent Night," and the long white tapers in star-shaped holders.

Following a delicious turkey dinner, the guests went to the Sanford home, where a social evening was enjoyed. At contract, prizes were won by Mrs. Bert Folsom, Mrs. F. C. McNelly, Ray Jeub and Julius Ruble. Miss Bess Maury and Mrs. Gladys Gano received prizes at Chinese checkers. Mrs. Wm. Ulett was presented with a lovely Eastern Star pin, set with pearls. This pin belonged to her husband's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Caswell, of Waltham, Mass.

Guests for this delightful occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jeub, Mesdames Bert Folsom, Hal Pierce, Gladys Gano, W. C. Ulett, F. C. McNelly, Maud Woodyard, Lee Hand, D. B. Estes, G. W. Bryant, Stanley Ayers, Effie Miller, Keith Leslie, Miss Bess Maury, Julius Ruble and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman, a representative of the Grand Chapter.
