

Society and Clubs

Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gillespie were hosts to their pinocle club for seven o'clock dessert. The long table was centered with white tapers and silver ornaments. Members present were: Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boober, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Godard and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Drue Cunningham.

Saturday evening, the W. E. Boserman home was the scene of the Christmas party of their bridge club. The mantel was decorated with tiny Christmas trees covered with bright ornaments and tinsel, while around the room were red candles, holly and greens. Meeting for seven o'clock supper, the members sat down to a long table decorated most artistically with Christmas lights and other Yuletide adornment. Place cards were tiny Santas in gum drops. Following supper, Santa gave out appropriate gifts for all—some causing much merriment. The evening was spent in playing contract, with Mrs. R. E. Boober winner of high score. The ladies played the men and triumphed in a big way Saturday evening. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McCune, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boober and the hosts.

The ladies of the Pioneer Missionary Society held their Christmas party and program in the church parlors last Thursday afternoon. The room was decorated with silver poinsettias, holly, red candles and a Christmas tree. Mrs. Ella Nelson read a lovely Christmas story, which was followed by the singing of carols. Mrs. Frank Leslie read, "The Night before Christmas." A Christmas exchange followed, with refreshments served in Pioneer Hall. Hostesses were: Mesdames Orville Newton, R. B. Knife, Elizabeth Oden, R. E. Boober, Henry Belloni and Frank Leslie. Present were: Mesdames Kennett Lawrence, Clyde Minard, Elton Savage, Leland Peterson, Henry Belloni, Jas. Richmond, R. B. Rogers, Cora Wimer, Hilda Gulseth, Flora Edwards, Ella Nelson, R. E. Boober, Frank Leslie W. A. Ireland, Elizabeth Oden, Frank Schram, G. A. Gray, O. B. Harriman, D. D. Dale, Ernest Purvance, Blanche Davis, Jack Hultin, Lundy Peart, Leland Peart, Lloyd Oddy, Cyril McCurdy, W. P. Laws, Louis Fugelson, George Taylor, Walter Oerding, Bob Lawrence, Birdie Skeels, H. L. Graybeal, B. W. Dunn, Harold Ziegler, Carrie Baker, Miranda Way, M. A. Thomas, O. E. Larson and E. Thompson.

A week-end house guest at the R. A. Wernich home was Robert Jarger, of Albany, Oregon. Saturday evening the Wernich home was the scene of a gathering of old friends for his pleasure. Interspersed during the evening were a number of musical contributions by talented guests. Those asked were: Mr. and Mrs. Tallant Greenough, Mr. and Mrs. Roy O'Mara, Mr. and Mrs. T. De La Rhue, Mrs. Pearl Ellingsen, Miss Muriel Dae, Miss Rose Naef, Miss Betty Felker, Messrs. Wayne Smith, Earl Stromquist, Manning Nelson and George R. Turney.

Thursday, the Myrtle club met with Mrs. May Anthony for its annual Christmas party. Everyone received a gift from their secret sister and a most enjoyable time was spent opening gifts, chatting, etc. Refreshments in keeping with the season were served by the hostess. Mrs. Bertha Edwards and Mrs. Margaret Southmayd were voted into the club. Others present were: Mesdames Ruth Varney, Alice Standley, Ina Sandine, Aina Eckholm, Angie Yoakam, Lorraine Chard, Helen Anderson, Fay Darby, Margaret and Beryl Mullen and the hostess.

Mrs. Ted Snyder entertained the Charts club Thursday for one o'clock luncheon and the Christmas party. After the exchange of gifts, the members played pinocle, with Mrs. Edna Stewart winner of high score and Mrs. Walter Paulson, low. Present were: Mesdames Ernest Whereat, Jay Carter, Val Harless, D. G. Ireland, Wm. Nelson, Walter Paulson, Edna Stewart and the hostess.

The home of Mrs. Albert Powers, Jr. was the scene of the Christmas party of the Duplicate club Friday. The room was most festive with decorations of holly, red candles and a small Christmas tree. The members met for one o'clock dessert luncheon. The individual tables were most attractive with red covers trimmed with tinsel, while place cards were individual pots of holly. Following refreshments, the members had a Christmas exchange. At duplicate, Mrs. Hal Pierce and Mrs. R. E. Boober were high for the afternoon's play and Mrs. Thrift and Mrs. Kay, second. Present were: Mesdames U. E. McClary, A. B. Collier, Mary McKeown, Hal Pierce, Frank Thrift, R. E. Boober, E. M. Kay and the hostess.

Friday, the members of the "Ace of Clubs" enjoyed a Christmas party and exchange of gifts at the home of Mrs. Hazel McKibben, with Miss Grace McKibben as hostess. The members met for one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon. The decorations, place cards and dessert carried out the Christmas motif. Following the opening of gifts, pinocle was played, with Mrs. Dorothy Mansell winning high score and Mrs. Emily Wells receiving consolation. Members present were: Mesdames Emily Wells, Dorothy Byer, Evelyn Foster, Dulcie Donaldson, Vivienne Darby, Esther Hatcher, Dorothy Mansell, Hazel McKibben and three guests: Mrs. Lola Fletcher, Mrs. Elynor Miller and Mrs. Nellie Wheeler. The club will meet with Mrs. Dulcie Donaldson in Myrtle Point January 5.

The State Board of Agriculture at its meeting here Saturday announced the dates for the 1940 State Fair as September 2 to 8, inclusive. This means the fair will open again on Labor Day as it has for the past several years.
