

Mrs. Jeub, O. E. S. Worthy Matron

Thursday evening, a large crowd witnessed the installation of the officers of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., in the Masonic Hall. The hall looked lovely with potted azaleas and the setting was enhanced by the lovely floor length gowns of the installing officers as well as of those to be installed. Mrs. O. C. Sanford, as installing officer, and Miss Bess Maury as marshal, did their work most effectively. Other installing officers were: chaplain, Mrs. Clara Bosserman; secretary, Mrs. Flora Compton; and organist, Mrs. Maud Woodyard.

The following officers were installed: worthy matron, Maxine Jeub; worthy patron, Ray Jeub; associate matron, Gladys Gano; associate patron, Clarence Osika; secretary, Emma Pierce; treasurer, Susie Folsom; conductress, Gertrude Ulett; associate conductress, Edna Taylor; chaplain, Edith McNelly; organist, Maud Woodyard; marshal, Helen Ayers; warder, Bess Maury; sentinel, Ralph Taylor; Adah, Edith Dunn; Ruth, Mildred McCune; Esther, Lola Milne; Electa, Idyle Godard.

Following the installation ceremony, Mrs. Maud Woodyard sang two lovely vocal solos: "Morning" by Speaks, and "Manana," a Spanish number by Brown. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Powell Yarbrough. Mrs. Esther Jensen played two delightful violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, "Czardas" by Monti, a gypsy dance, and "Souvenir" by Drdie. Mrs. Sanford, outgoing worthy matron, and Mrs. Jeub made splendid talks.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Sanford were welcomed into the ranks of the Past Matrons and Past Patrons organization by Mrs. Clara Bosserman, who made a most gracious speech and presented them with a lovely bouquet.

Following the program, sandwiches, cake and coffee were served in the banquet hall.

of the evening, Donald showed several reels of moving pictures. At the end of the reel came the surprise announcement and a picture of this popular young couple. Donald is a graduate of the University of Oregon and received his master's degree from the Northwestern University in Chicago and Emma Frances attended the Oregon College of Education at Monmouth. She is the elder of Mrs. Martha Mulkey's two children. The date has not been set for their marriage as the bride-to-be intends to work for a while.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble entertained a group of friends at their home on Third street. The rooms were attractively decorated with calla lilies. Following an evening of "Hearts," delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Litzberger, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ulett and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thrift.

Monday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Compton were hosts to their dinner club. Extra guests were: Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clatterbos. Following a seven-thirty o'clock dinner, contract bridge was played, with F. L. Greenough winning high score. Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stewart and Mrs. F. L. Greenough.

Mrs. Dulcie Donaldson was hostess to the "Ace of Clubs" Friday for one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. Flossie Powerie in Myrtle Point. Mrs. Hazel McKibben won high at pinochle and Mrs. Vivienne Darby, low. Members present were: Mesdames Esther Hatcher, Dorothy Mansell, Ruth Foss, Vivienne Darby, Hazel McKibben and guests, Mesdames Imogene Powerie and Flossie Powerie of Myrtle Point, Mrs. Mabel Kyle, Mrs. Nellie Wheeler, Mrs. Maud Jarvis and Mrs. Mattie Leatherwood.

New Year's eve Mr. and Mrs. Drue Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hand observed their wedding anniversaries at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor, meeting for a six-thirty o'clock potluck dinner, which included turkey n'everything. The table looked lovely, centered with a snow scene, holly and red tapers. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor presented the guests with a gift in honor of the occasion.

The Legion Auxiliary held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening in the Legion Hall, with Mrs. Fred Kunz, president, in the chair. The members voted to contribute $15.00 toward the milk fund for the schools; making $30.00 for the two organizations. They decided to postpone the card party until after Lent, owing to the district conference, which will be held in North Bend January 19.

Social Notes

The Octette club met with Mrs. Irving Larson Thursday for one-fifteen o'clock dessert luncheon. Bridge winners were: Mrs. Tichenor and Mrs. Greenfield. Members present were: Mesdames Fred Jensen, Robert Nelson, E. W. Tichenor, Milton Greenfield and guests: Mrs. Geo. Holbrook, Mrs. Roland Beals and Mrs. Kenneth Henninger.

The Past Noble Grands club met at the home of Mrs. Jennie Price Friday evening, with Mrs. H. S. Norton as joint hostess. The club members planned to divide into two groups, with a captain for each side; the purpose being to arouse interest and enthusiasm in a social and fraternal way. Mrs. E. M. Kay heads one group and Mrs. R. E. Boober, the other. The captains plan to keep scrapbooks of their activities through the year. Various games were played during the evening. Mrs. Boober received a prize in the spelling contest, Mrs. Kay, two prizes in guessing contests and Mrs. Skeels, a prize in a guessing game. Mrs. Robinson received a birthday shower from the members.

At a late hour, a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses. Present were: Mesdames Birdie Skeels, Annie Robinson, Flora and Estelle Dunn, E. M. Kay, L. A. Greene, R. E. Boober, Inez Chase Miss Ida Oerding, a guest, Mrs. Grace Baxter, and the hostesses.

The engagement of Emma Frances Mulkey and Donald Farr was announced recently in a very novel manner. A group of Christian Endeavor members were having one of their monthly social affairs at the Mulkey home, when toward the close

Two New 4-H Cooking Clubs

Myrtle Point and Sitkum have both sent in enrollments for 4-H Cooking Club this week. Officers of Mrs. Amelia Adams' club are: president, Lavone Summerlin; vice president, Hilda Miller; secretary, Lois Counts. Howard Schnur is president of the Sitkum "Handy 4-H Clubbers," of which Mrs. Fred Lafferty is leader and Mrs. Elmer Strode, assistant leader. Vice president of the club is Evelee Gillespie and secretary is Burton Wilson.

Local Poet Wins Place In Important Volume

Mrs. Ida H. Rolund, McKinley Route, Coquille, is one of the authors whose poems are included in "The Yearbook of Modern Poetry, 1939," a 700-page volume just published. More than 11,000 poets living in every part of the United States and Canada competed for a place in this important volume; only a few hundred of these were found to write poetry of sufficient merit to be accorded a place in the book.

First Session of School of Religious Education, Jan. 15

The School of Religious Education will hold its first session Monday night, January 15, beginning at 7:30 o'clock in Pioneer Hall. There are two lesson periods, one at 7:30 and one at 8:40 p. m., each of 45-minute duration. From 8:15 to 8:40 there will be chapel service. It is planned to show moving pictures, related to the courses offered, during this period. The picture to be shown the opening night of the school is "The China of Today." There will be three reels, "Every Day Life," "The Church at Work," and "Young China Takes A Hand."

Courses offered at 7:30 o'clock are: "Personal Religious Living, R. D. E. Smith, instructor; and "The Christian Message for Our Present Day World," Howard L. Graybeal, instructor.

At 8:40 o'clock, Edwin C. Swanson will teach a course in "Personal Evangelism," and C. Adrian Sias, a course in "The Purpose and Program of the Church."

It is expected that the school will be about twice the size it was last year. All above grade school age are welcome.

Townsend Club

The Coquille Townsend Club held a business meeting Tuesday evening. A short silent prayer was given by all present in respect to Mrs. Tilghman. Her loyalty and friendship will be greatly missed and long remembered.

A large delegation from the Myrtle Point club was in attendance. They announced a chicken dinner will be held Friday evening, January 12, in the basement of the Methodist church there. Everyone is cordially invited. Adults 40c and children 25c. The proceeds are for the Townsend birthday fund.

The Coquille Townsend club will hold a pot-luck supper next Tuesday evening, January 16, starting at 6:30 p. m.; 25c admits you to the supper and dance afterwards. Ladies are asked to bring covered dishes. The proceeds will be used for the Townsend Birthday fund.

We are inviting everyone to attend. Help put this great movement into action. It will fight diseases and do away with poverty and crime. Only with your loyal support can we achieve success.—Press Cor.
