Justice of the Peace Clarence Baron gave as his opinion this morning that there is not nearly so much drunken driving as there was a few years ago. The $100 fines, jail sentence and driver's license revocation is putting the fear of God into those who night be tempted to take the wheel when in no condition to do so. Mr. Barton stated that in July, 1937, he had 69 cases brought before him, most of them traffic cases, and now 20 to 25 is the maximum per month and very seldom is one for

The state police, too, find it necessary to make much fewer arrests than formerly, their principal duty being to patrol.

Large variety of Potted Plants at Bergen's. Sturdy stock and blossoms of beauty.

WARRANT REDEMPTION NOTICE All warrants up to No. 543 inclusive, drawn against School Dis-trict No. 72, Coaledo, will be paid upon presentation to the Clerk. In-terest will cease on Jan. 12, 1940.
