Riverton School

Riverton Wins!

Half way through their league schedule, the Riverton Trojans have split their games 50-50 with their opponents. Last Friday night, Riverton won its second game in four starts by defeating Arago 23 to 19. High point man for Riverton was James Staten, who was responsible for eight points, while Warren Smith and Bob Georgis scored five each. Phillip Staten and Theron Miller scored two points each and Dick Bemetz one. Others who played were Keith and Orville Young, Floyd Cooper, Orton Standely and Junior Gilbert.

In the preliminary games, the Riverton grade girls' volleyball team lost two games 15-13 and 15-11. The Riverton club team also lost to the Arago boys by one point, 26 to 25.

The next Trojan game will be with Port Orford in the Riverton gym on Friday night.

Student Body Meets

The first student body meeting of the semester under the new president, Keith Young, was held in the assembly hall Monday morning for the purpose of electing a new business manager. Bernice Palmer, former business manager, quit school at the end of the first semester. Zetta Gibson was elected to fill the position for the rest of the school year.

Trojan Published

The latest issue of the "Trojan," Riverton high school paper, was distributed Friday, Jan. 12, to the grade and high school student body. The paper was the first one issued by Editor Genevieve Fetch and her assistant editors, Alice Church and Geraldine Guerin, with a new staff of reporters.

Typing

At the end of the first semester, Alice Church with a speed of 33 words per minute has the highest rate in Mr. Beall's typing class. Genevieve Fetch is a close second with 28 words per minute. The speeds are based on fifteen-minute speed tests corrected by international rules, which require a penalty of ten gross words for each mistake.

Minstrel Show

March 1, a three-act minstrel show with darkies galore will be presented as a benefit to raise money to send the high school basketball team to the Ashland tournament if the results of the season's play justifies spending the money for that purpose.

If not, the money will be used for some other worthy purpose about the school.

Mrs. Rawe and Miss Rowland are assisting the students in the preparation of the minstrel show which will be full of good music, lots of wisecracks and unusual dances.

Volleyball Practices

During this semester, Mr. Robinson is coaching the volleyball team on the days when Miss Rowland is working with the boys' glee club. The glee clubs are now preparing numbers for the coming Minstrel show.

Volleyball Suits

The grade school volleyball team will be a dazzling spectacle of aqua green when they meet the Bridge team at Bridge Friday night. The grade student body has purchased new aqua green volleyball suits for the team's first string players.
