Alcohol demonstrations are being conducted in the public schools, as well as the Sunday schools, with much success. Dr. Wice, the mechanical man, is being used for the alcohol demonstrations. Two of his clever sayings are: "A corkscrew will never pull you out of trouble" and "A pint flask can cause a peck of trouble."

In the Union Signal quiz contest, Mrs. Wm. Phillips, of Marshfield won first prize and Mrs. Pearl Cardwell, of Coquille, second.

Bernice Grensky Married

Word has been received by her friends here that Miss Bernice Grensky, daughter of Frank Grensky of McKinley, was married on January 18 to Paul Minx, a mechanic of the North American Airport, at Santa Monica. The bride has been a member of the Oregon Little Wranglers group, which played for dances in Coos county and last summer was assistant in the Coquille Wood Co. office.

Lions Club Entertains Ladies

Ladies Night by the Lions Club last Thursday evening was attended by seventy members, their wives and guests, and a very enjoyable two hours was spent, with Olive Barber, of Marshfield, giving a witty and clever address on the subject of "Oregon Wild Life." She overlooked a point in not mentioning the Lions as a part of Oregon's wild life.

Instrumental music was furnished by Mrs. Fred Jensen on her violin, accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins at the piano.

President J. E. Axtell welcomed the assemblage and then turned the session over to Burton W. Dunn, toastmaster, who makes a more enviable reputation for himself every time he serves in that capacity. And he did a thoroughly competent and humorous job the first time he did it in Coquille.

Other speakers on the program were R. A. Jeub, who spoke on "Ski Lift," J. L. Smith, "Figure Skating," Dr. J. R. Bunch, "Thin Ice," and Mrs. Leona Bryant, "Toboggan Slide."

The committee which arranged for this annual ladies' night affair was composed of C. C. Farr, S. C. Gaulke and B. W. Dunn.

After the gifts were unwrapped and admired, a group of her own poems about babies and children was read by Mrs. Frances Holmstrom.
