

Bridge Notes

The Christian Endeavor had a banquet at the Grange Hall Thursday evening in observance of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the movement. The table was very attractive with red and white crepe paper covering, candles in the same colors, C. E. napkins and handmade menu cards. Miss Maude Hooton made the birthday cakes, which were iced in white with the anniversary dates in red. Mrs. Frank Culver was the clever toastmistress and Archie L. Booher contributed much to the success of the evening with his fine song-leading. Others having part on the program were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fier, Ruth Walker and Mrs. Glen Hutton. Messages were read by the secretary, Lynn Culver, from two former presidents of the local society, Miss Mae Hatcher, of Klamath Falls, and Miss Nadine Ellis, of Turner. Much credit for the success of the affair is due to the committee in charge—Misses Maude Hooton, Virginia Beckett and Ruth Walker. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Archie L. Booher, Jimmy, Sammy and June; Mrs. Frank Culver and Lynn; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fier; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Culver, Mary Lou and Everett; Mrs. Stanley Lake and Vivienne; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hutton; Mr. and Mrs. John Koch; Maude Hooton; Betty Doney; Sally Ann Wright; Lillian and Charles Holmes; Evelyn and Edward Morrison; Ruth, E. J. and Jerry Walker; Virginia, Wilda and Alden Beckett; Noah Comer, Clyde Bartlett and Marvin Huff.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvin B. Finch, Marian, Gene and Charlotte spent the week-end in Marshfield visiting Mr. Finch's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McAllister, of Marshfield, were Saturday night guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Walker. Mr. Walker returned home with them Sunday morning.

There was a fine attendance at the Grange meeting Friday evening. There were four applications for membership and the third and fourth degrees were given to Misses Anne Kos and Orelia Hudson. A fine program of reading and songs was presented by the lecturer, Mrs. John Koch. At the close of the evening, refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served by Mesdames O. W. Heath, Clarence Fier and O. B. Fisch.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brostrom, of Myrtle Creek, were entertained at dinner Sunday at the Archie L. Booher home.

Mrs. O. W. Heath suffered a painful injury to her left hand Friday evening when a car door was accidentally slammed on it.

There was a good attendance at the Christian Endeavor services Sunday and the sermon, playlet, musical numbers, etc., were all much enjoyed. Mrs. Frank Culver is appointed to lead the Christian Endeavor meeting next Sunday evening at 8:30 and it will be followed by a church service, conducted by Archie L. Booher.

Thelda Huff was confined to her home over the week-end by illness.

February Home Demonstration Dates

Home demonstration meetings during the next week include the following four meetings on "Minor Alterations and Repair" and one meeting,

"Good Grooming III" or "Care of The Hair."

The Summer extension unit will meet in the Grange hall on Thursday, February 8; Norway, at the home of Mrs. Roy Robison on February 9; Fairview, at the Community hall on February 13, and North Bayalde, at the Grange hall on Wednesday, February 14.

A meeting in Broadbent on Good Grooming is scheduled for Thursday, February 15, and Mrs. Roderick Herman is making arrangements for the place.

Provision is made for the care of children at all meetings, if arrangements are made with the chairman ahead of time.

Anyone in the community is invited to attend any extension meeting.

Not So Modern But So Cheap

The popularity of our January—"Do You Own a Modern Car"—sale brought in more cheap used cars than our lot will hold. They must be sold to make room for the late model trade-ins on new 1940 Chevrolets and Buicks.

In 1939 we sold practically as many new Chevrolets and Buicks combined as the total new car sales of all the other Dealers in our Territory.

With This Volume We Can Sell For LESS—Try Us!
