Eighty-two fathers and sons attended the banquet given by the Odd Fellows Dads in the banquet hall of the I. O. O. F. building last Friday night. Clyde Clark was general chairman of the affair, he was assisted by Dr. L. B. Gould and Piper Johnson. Noble Grand Val Harless introduced the master of ceremonies "J. P. Beyers," who gave a splendid talk on Odd Fellowship. H. M. Ross also gave an excellent talk on the same subject. Sterling Gruenewald, in behalf of the sons, thanked the Odd Fellows for courtesies extended to them.

The long tables were decorated with green ivy and centered with flags. A small hatchet was at each plate. Pee Wee and his Wranglers furnished the musical program. At the close of the session, Mrs. Val Harless played the piano for a community sing. The Rebekahs served the dinner. Mrs. George Johnson was in charge of the dining room with the following assistants: Mesdames Edna Harless, Alice Morris, Merle Kellenberger, Cathryn Erickson, Iola Moore, Mildred Schaefer, Miss Wilda Van Meter and Miss Eileen Kendall. Mrs. Lillian Clark and Mrs. Clara Bosserman.

Mrs. Beryl Mullen was hostess to the Myrtle Club last Thursday afternoon. The time was enjoyably spent in sewing, chatting, etc. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members: Mesdames Helen Anderson, Aina Eckholm, Bertha Edwards, Ina Sandine, Alice Standley, May Anthony, Ruth Varney, May Anthony, Ruth Varney, Margaret Mullen, Pearl Rubie and two guests: Mrs. Wm. Buell and Mrs.

Last Thursday night was Past Matrons and Past Patrons night at the regular meeting of Beulah Chapter, O. E. S. The marshal and star points honored 18 past matrons and patrons with a lovely floral degree, a ship of flowers being the motif of the ceremony. Following the meeting, a short program was enjoyed, consisting of a clever musical reading, "Stay in Your Own Backyard," by Beverly Lawrence, accompanied by Miss Anita Pageler and several excellent accordion numbers by Miss Inez Rover's group of players. Games in keeping with Washington's Birthday were enjoyed. Mrs. Bertha Smith, past worthy matron, received a prize in a guessing game of "American Quotations." Delicious refreshments, also carrying out the holiday motif, were served in the banquet hall. The table looked lovely being cleverly decorated with flags, emblematic flowers and small paper hatchets.

See me for Needlepoint and Needlepoint Yarn. A nice variety on hand. Mrs. Bonnie Walker at 491 South Coulter, Coquille.
