B. P. W. Entertains Senior Girls

Monday evening the Business and Professional Women's club entertained the high school senior girls in the Guild Hall. The party was in charge of the Educational and Emblem committees: Mrs. Martha Mulkey and Mrs. Annie Robinson as co-chairmen. The members of their committees were Mrs. Ruth Beyers, Miss Ruth Towne, Mrs. Clara Stauff, Miss Marian Endicott, Mrs. Isabel Unsoeld, Miss Myrtle DeLong, Miss Cherie Mae Hartwell, Miss Ethel Roop and Miss Eleanor Menegat. The guests were each given a carnation boutonniere.

A community sing was led by Miss Ruth Towne. Mrs. Stauff told of the loan fund available to graduates of the Coquille high school for further education and that several girls had been aided through this fund. She said that club's educational motto is: "At least a high school education for every girl."

The club's emblem was explained: the torch, a symbol of light, wisdom, principle and leadership—the educational symbol; the winged staff of Mercury symbolizes a new day for women, with opportunity, equality, co-operation and coordination of effort; healing, harmony and power being the symbol of the Health committee. The ship of Commerce is the symbol of the International Relations committee. The scroll is a symbol of publicity and public relations. It is a scroll of learning and achievement begun in 1919 and is still unrolling. It is the symbol of expression, self-improvement, knowledge and responsibility. The winged victory of Saint-Thomas is a symbol of strength, progress, freedom and triumph facing squarely the winds and waves of prejudice and all other limitations. All of these symbols are found in a golden circle of unbroken harmony, endless friendship and circle of completeness.

Mrs. Buena Maris, the state supervisor of Parent Education from Oregonia, spoke on "What do you want in life?" All people want two things, a sense of adequacy and a sense of belonging. The four wishes of human beings are: first, recognition; second, security; third, love, and fourth, new experience.

Following the splendid talk by Mrs. Maris, dainty refreshments were served on individual trays. Guests were Mrs. Maris, Gretchen Clinton, Jean Laird, Mrs. Lydia Long, Mrs. S. F. Stevens, Vesta Duncanson, Gloria Swain, Dora Gilman, Eva Stevens, Lydia Ann Lynde, Nancy Sonneland, Jeanette Wheeler, Helen Kyle, Dorothy Newton, Joy Norton, Jeanne Clatterbos, Mary Jane Dunn, Catherine Schroeder, Edith Drake, Dorothy Landaker, Violet Sutton, Muriel Davis, Jerry Davis, Josephine Canterbury, Venita Farris and Lucile Bennett. Members present were: Mesdames Inez Chase, Harriet Osika, Georgia Richmond, Isabel Unsoeld, Martha Mulkey, Ruth Beyers, Viola Newton, Edith Walton, Clara Stauff, Bonnie Walker, Gladys Gano, Marian Endicott, Margarita Brodie, Geneva Norton, Hazel Hanna, Naomi Crews, Jennie Price, Ida Owen, Marjorie Rowland, Clara Bosserman, Annie Robinson, Misses Inez Chase, Ellen Braxton, Anita Pageler, Julia Bennett, Lotus Eaton, Edna Robison, Cherie Mae Hartwell, Ruth Towne, Ethel Roop, Nora Jackson, Lois Fenn, Myrtle DeLong and Ida Oerding.
